Jeny is in her car, in the front, passenger side. She is on her knees on the seat and she is looking for something in the back seat. It is certainly her panties that she is looking for because we can clearly see that she is not wearing any. She must not have found it because she turns around now and we can see that her white dress is very see through. This time we can see that she has no panties on because we have a good view of her pussy. Thus exposed, she waits for Alex to return. I'm sure that pedestrians passing by the car certainly saw that she wasn't wearing a bra.

Alex is finally back. They meet in a studio for a photo shoot. He asks her to take the wheel and off they go. Jeny is very focused on his driving while Alex is more playful. He films his wife, focusing on her famous landing strip, which is very visible because her short dress is hiked up beyond reason. It is certain that truck drivers and even bikers do not hesitate to take advantage of the assets of this pretty young woman.

Jeny is well aware of this situation. She is excited and her hand is now wandering into his crotch. Red fire. She stops, looks at her husband and pulls down the strap of her dress, smiling. Her right breast is revealed but the light turns green so she quickly puts her strap back on. But the game starts now. She pulls up her dress again and completely reveals her pussy. While rolling, she caresses her breasts through her dress first before revealing one breast again first and then both. There are a lot of cars on the expressway and this amuses Jeny a lot. But when she arrives in town, her pretty chest finds itself enclosed again.

She greatly excited Alex. Now he is caressing his wife's thigh. Obviously his hand is irremediably attracted to his partner's pussy, a pussy that he openly masturbates. Jeny bites her lower lip but tries to stay focused despite the pleasure she feels. More traffic jams. Jeny's look at her husband is clear, she wants more. Reactive, he turns on the ceiling light. He wants as many people as possible to benefit from it. It tickles the nipples through the thin fabric. Immediately they stand proud. And the arrival at the photo studio takes place like this, between caution and excitement.
