

Review for video “Stockings flash”

Running time: 18 mins 14 sec

Jeny tells us in the introduction to this video that we will be in the fantasy of the voyeur who is lucky enough to be in the right place at the right time.

Jeny is in the upper part of a shopping arcade, leaning against the railing. Under a beige coat, she's wearing a white sweater, a black miniskirt and black stockings. Her skirt is so high that we can see that she is not wearing panties.

We now follow Jeny into the metro. Standing in the carriage by the doors, in the station, sitting on a bench with a book in her hand. Waiting to get on another metro and finally sitting by the window. If you're still with her, you'll know that the view between her legs is hypnotic.

We meet Jeny in the rotunda of a department store. She is sitting facing the water jets and has resumed reading her book. We see that she has discreetly spread her legs so that her landing strip is visible to anyone who looks. And it's obvious that some people will try to take advantage of this.

But too many people around Jeny forces her to get up and go to the next floor so she can open her coat and show her pussy. This time we follow her in the glass lift with her coat still open before she decides to take the stairs down to the underground car park. And this time she gets to play with her nipples, take off her skirt and show off her body, despite the fact that anyone could show up.

And here are the last images before she disappears.
