This video runs for 32:38 minutes and is amongst the top 10 most popular videos with currently 284 thumbs up. So if you want to find out why that should be, please read on!

The video begins with a scene setting shot of the studio where the action will take place. There is a divan set on a raised stage with a full length mirror. Then as the camera pulls back, in the foreground is a leather settee. Then suddenly seated on the suite appears a man dressed all in grey and he is wearing a black woollen mask with only holes in it for his eyes and mouth. He sits nervously.

Then on the stage we get our first sight of Jeny. She brushes her hair. The dress she is wearing is a oat colour with a thin black leather belt and matching court shoes. The dress only just covers her butt cheeks and on closer viewing she has seamless pantyhose in a nude shade. Needless to say, she looks fabulous. Jeny inspects herself in the mirror, seemingly oblivious to the man who remains seated.

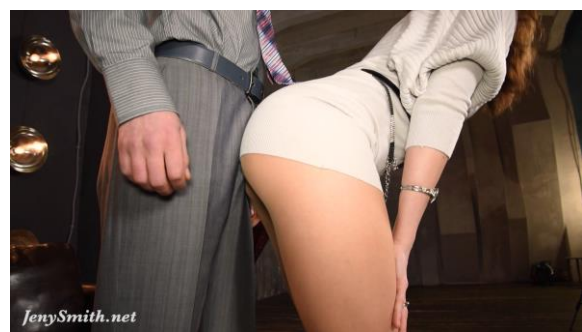

She loves the camera and the camera loves her. Slowly she makes her way towards the man and parades in front of him. He sits with hands together and waits anxiously wondering if anything is about to happen.

As with all things to do with Jeny, it's all about spontaneity and teasing and as the video progresses we'll witness her at the peak of her powers! Jeny, the ultimate temptress stands in front of her poor victim. Pulling him up towards her face by his tie. Is she going to kiss him?.....

.....of course not! After all I've said about her teasing! Standing close to him, she places his hand on her nylon encased pussy and presses her hand on his so that all the pressure is on her venus mons! Then she turns to rub her awesome ass against his crotch and, again grasps his hand and playfully spanks herself in a scene that is over far too quickly.

But this is Jeny and as we are about to see that she has only just got started! Leading him by his tie, she manoeuvres both of them so that he is now laying down with Jeny astride him. She pulls her dress up so that between them is only the tiniest layer of nylon and she rubs her pussy against his crotch before turning around and going through the same motion.

Suddenly, Jeny reaches forward to undo his belt, with one leg either side of his body she gets him to pull his trousers and underpants down until his erection is free and leading his hand to his cock she indicates that he should masturbate as she stands astride him and she too is masturbating!

Jeny continues to tease both the victim and us mercilessly, this time she caresses his chest whilst bending over and then she leans over his torso and brings her open mouth within an inch of his cock and for a second looks like she is going to suck him, again she comes up towards his erection and with her tongue out makes us believe that this time she will lick the length of his cock from balls to engorged head!

There follows a sequence of Jeny doing what Jeny does best. We are only half way through this video and to write about what happens in the second half would not do justice to what is a tour de force of Jeny (just to mention one of many highlights, as the guy leans back on the sofa, Jeny finds his head is at exactly the right height for her to straddle him and gets him to lick her pussy albeit through her pantyhose!).

Jeny is in the unusual position of being almost a dominatrix which runs contrary to her usual persona and it's very exciting to watch. The victim plays by Jeny's rules and because of the trust she has in him. Jeny pushes her own boundaries as far as she wants, suffice to say that this is an erotic masterpiece!

Jeny clearly enjoys herself as will you! Until the next review, Poka Poka
