

Review for video “Dirt”

Tags: dirt; Published: 19 July 2016

Running time: 18 mins 04 seconds.

First things first! The title of the video is misleading in that it really should be 'mud' as you will see shortly! Jeny is walking along the (Black?) Sea shore line. She is wearing a multi coloured bikini, a tiny white bolero jacket, sunglasses and a straw hat.

Well, I I say Jeny is wearing a bikini, on closer inspection she is only wearing the bikini top, she's carrying the bikini bottoms after taking them off!

But by Jeny's standards, she is over dressed and, sure enough, the bikini top is soon being pulled back releasing her beautiful breasts and nipples, fully erect!

Jeny can't resist playing with her nipples as she splashes her way along the shore line and we watch as people drive back and forth with Jeny waving to the occupants, proud of her nudity.

Finally Jeny finds what she has been looking for! A large circle of mud that has been left for Jeny. She is quick to scoop up a handful of the mud and spreads it on her thigh.

Has she gone mad! Of course not! Jeny knows the benefits of using the mud on her body (it works as a scrub, taking away any dried skin) and as we watch, Jeny continues to rub the mud on to her skin.

She concentrates on shaping the mud into shorts, there's some delicious close ups of Jeny pulling her butt cheeks apart so that she doesn't miss any part.

And then as a glorious ending, Jeny makes sure her hands are covered in the wet mud before placing them on each beautiful breast and leaving hand prints.

It's awesome seeing Jeny walking along naked but covered up by the mud.

Now it's time for Jeny to wash the mud off and whilst doing so a couple park their car and sit there watching Jeny wash her body clean. She, of course, makes the most of an audience and what starts as a simple cleansing finishes as an erotic strip tease and massage of her pussy and breasts.

Jeny proves once again, that there's nothing wrong with nudity in public.

She is never happier when she feels the warmth of the sun on her body and what a body! Jeny is the living embodiment of all that is good in the world, that erotica and sensuality are great bedfellows. Now that Jeny has finished washing her figure clean, she blows us a kiss and says poka poka to friends before skipping away into the distance.

So until our paths cross again... Poka poka.
