

Review for video “Porto Vacations”

Running time: 28 minutes 38 seconds

We start our journey with both girls packing their suitcases for their forthcoming holidays (not that they will need much as will become clear later!) They are waiting for flights to Porto where we see them next and after booking in they are both in blue dresses down by the river Porto. This is a video full of history, culture..... and nudity! As I remarked earlier, every city should take a leaf out of Porto's book and produce such a video!

Because the next we see of the girls they have lost those dresses and are both naked. Jeny's pussy is not hidden by her tiny landing strip and Vienna's is completely hairless!

What makes this initial scene so exciting is that 2 nude women are not surrounded by people and hounded by them to cover their nudity, rather by people who look but take it in their stride

I can imagine the conversation going something like this:

Woman: look over there. There's 2 naked ladies.

Man: oh yes, so there are!

Woman: it's a beautiful sight in such a beautiful setting and they look so relaxed

Man: you could go over and join them if you want!

Woman: we haven't got enough time. Our tickets for the river trip say we must be there in 5 minutes!

Man: that's a shame. They look so happy!

This imagined conversation is because it should be the most natural thing in the world. We are brought into this world naked yet are taught that it's sinful.

The video continues with Jeny ( in her dress ) crossing the bridge and joining Vienna who naturally is naked. The 2 gorgeous women continue to pose with the city as a colourful backdrop..

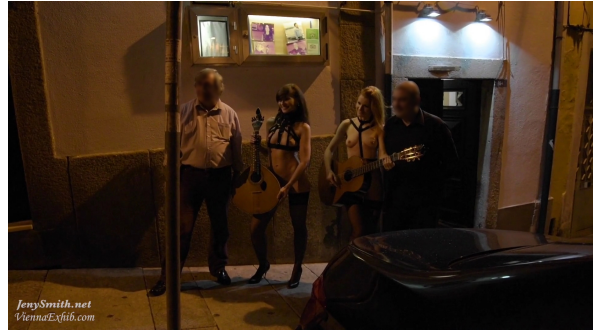

They gradually make their way to the top of the city where they get up close and personal before Jeny, by this time back dressed flashes a passing motorcyclist

Then it's nighttime in the city. This time they are dressed up to a point.. both now wear black stockings and mymokondo tops (if you're not aware of these accessories then imagine bdsm play outfits and you won't be far off) there's a chemistry between the two girls as they walk arm in arm with a stray hand on each other's butt, stopping occasionally to kiss whilst pressing their bodies together.

Despite a passing shower which forces both of them to briefly don raincoats the 2 walking erogenous zones make 2 street musicians' evening by posing with them

Until the next review
