

Review for video “Cembalo Fortress”

Tags: ; Published: August 25th, 2017

Just some background info you might like to know before watching this video, filmed whilst on vacation in Crimea before the war in Ukraine, Jeny and Alex were in no danger although there was a couple of attack helicopters who had a close up look at Jeny (more of that later in the video!)

The video begins with Jeny naked in the hotel room and needs to find somewhere to dry her nail varnish, well the sun is shining and it's Jeny's toe nails that need its warmth. So out on the balcony goes our naked goddess, does she worry about the busy carpark or the other balconies at the hotel, of course not! She puts on her headphones and with legs up she relaxes without a care in the world.

The next we see Jeny, she is wearing her home made bikini and she is in a shop trying on a sheer wrap and a wide brimmed straw hat. Having made her choice, Jeny now walks amongst the other tourists in the port of Balaclava. And this is when we see how sheer the wrap is and how tiny her bikini bottoms are, in fact it's no more than a string back. Whilst pointing out various sites, Jeny, herself is now on the list of must see sights!

Just some background info on Cembalo Fortress, this is a medieval construction built on a headland with a strategic view over the deep water port it guarded. The travel guide says it is in good condition but what we see in video is anything but good! Well that's enough about an old ruin!

We follow Jeny as she begins the ascent to the castle which means that we get to see her fabulous butt cheeks. Jeny hasn't worn the most practical pair of shoes but nothing is going to stop her reaching the summit, where Jeny decides she wants to be naughty and in the blink of an eye off comes her bikini bottoms and now just wearing her tiny bikini top and the sheer wrap, Jeny gently teases us with flashes of her completely hairless pussy!

She then decides to rest and sunbathe when Jeny is joined by a young local guy who is curious as to what she and Alex are doing. On hearing that they are filming for YouTube, he surprises Jeny by talking about nudism and the Fortress is centred on a ley line and is the source of very positive vibes. They are joined by a second local who confirms that the fort is a powerful source of positive vibes.

At this news, Jeny says that the best way of getting the vibes is by removing an item of clothing, thinking that she will take her top off, they are surprised when Jeny unties her wrap and shows them her smooth bare pussy. At that moment 1 of the 2 assault helicopters that I mentioned earlier flies close by them and Jeny uses her wrap to wave at the pilot who clearly radios the 2nd pilot and he adjusts his flight path to fly right over the wrap waving Jeny!

Jeny is wearing just her bikini top and the 1st guy says to her that she would look better without it and helps her to remove it. And there stands our Jeny in all her naked beauty, her beautiful breasts fully revealed as is the rest of her wonderful body.

She teases her audience (well she is the Queen of tease!) asking them if the wrap is the correct length, knowing full well that her pussy is on display! After showing her fabulous body for a few more minutes, Jeny decides it's time to explore the areas restaurants, she waves goodbye and leaves us to admire her gorgeous butt as she begins the descent.

Thus ends another wonderful video which is one of well over 550 videos available to watch right now at jenysmith.net
