

Review for video “Naked is Normal”

Tags: No; Published: January 12th, 2018

Running time: 17 minutes 47 seconds

For those of you who loved Jeny's trip to Porto with Vienna this video is going to spoil you. Yes they are in Spain this time and needless to say they won't have to pay for extra

The video begins with them having stopped overnight the sun is out and then they find themselves on the outskirts of Servilla and the scene is set. There are some wonderful shots of the architecture of this grandiose city. You can almost feel the heat rebounding off the sun drenched walls. Then there in the shade of one of the many squares are Jeny and Vienna both of them wearing high heeled shoes, Vienna wears a thin belt where as Jeny is naked.

The locals and tourists alike are watching from a distance with most men taking pictures on their phones. Being used to being naked is no big deal for these self confident people who allow any one to snap away

It's a typical European scene where the nudity is almost taken for granted. They're 2 beautiful women who just happen to be naked. The mix between the architectural magnificence and the grace of Jeny and Vienna soon turns into a childlike game of splash as each of them laugh and caress each other. There's real chemistry between them highlighted by the way they hold hands.

I can not begin to do justice in words of how stunningly beautiful they look. I can only repeat the words of the bard 'a rose by any other name would smell as sweet'

I have decided not to describe any more because you really need to watch the scenario developing.
Goodness knows I would have to join them as nature intended

Feel free to add your comments too,
