It is not apparent from the title, but this is one of the series of massage videos. In fact it is the one that has been on Jeny’s site the longest. It is 24:36 minutes in length and is a video that has earned more than 300 thumbs up so is highly regarded by the members. Why might that be? Read on to find out.

The first shots are of what seems to be a single bed with a brown covering on it. At the right side end of the bed is a white towel and sheet. A figure comes into view right in front of the camera wearing a black hoodie. The top third of the screen is pixelated so the head of the figure cannot be seen. Who is it? However quickly the top is lifted and fabulous breasts and nipples are revealed so it is of course Jeny.

The lettering on the hoodie, said in white letters “Amazing”. On the front it said in white and black letters “Perfectly” and “Fabulous” and on the other sleeve, another “Amazing”. Three simple words that apply to Jeny.

Jeny was also wearing grey leggings but the next shot shows her naked sitting on the bed facing towards the camera. Her head is still pixelated. She turns to the right and lays down on her front and she pulls the towel over to cover her butt. We now get the first look at her pretty face as she smiles at the camera and she waggles her butt. Her arms are drawn up and she rests her head on them.

She must be waiting for a massage to start as she says something in Russian. A male figure then appears to the far left back of the screen wearing black bottoms and a white tee shirt. He speaks Russian in a deep voice which has been electronically distorted.

He has a bottle of massage oil and he spends the first few minutes massaging the back of Jeny's calves and thighs. They are soon glistening with oil. He pulls the towel further up Jeny's thighs. They seem to be chatting quite normally in Russian but there is no translation. He then moves up to Jeny's back to oil and massage it. He folds the towel down so more of Jeny's back is exposed for his touch. She moves her arms down at her side so she is lying flat.

She is clearly enjoying the massage so he must be skilled at his job. The masseur then returns to massage her thighs. He tucks the towel up once again. The bottom of her butt cheeks can now be seen. Surely he must now be able to see glimpses of her pussy as well?

Up to now we have been viewing the action from the side. But at 3.49 minutes – wow! The view changes for a few seconds. We are now at the end, by Jeny's feet with a marvelous view looking up between her legs. He comments that Jeny isn't wearing many clothes. Presumably he was expecting to see panties, so it must have come as a very pleasant surprise for him to see there were none. Jeny asks if he minds but quite professionally he says she should regard him the same as a doctor.

The next view from between Jeny's legs clearly show the towel has ridden even higher so her butt crack and the line of her pussy are now visible. He then walks past Jeny's head to her side nearest the camera.

He lifts the towel even higher. The whole of that glorious butt is now on show in all its naked glory. But that's not enough for Jeny. She suggests, as it is hot, the towel is dispensed with completely. Quick as a flash, he removes the towel (he'd have been a fool to miss that opportunity).

So, after just 5 minutes, Jeny is completely naked. The masseur then concentrates on massaging Jeny's magnificent bubble butt. The camera by her feet shows him giving it special attention as he kneads and squeezes it a cheek at a time. He massages the outside of her butt as well which has the effect of pulling her cheeks apart, revealing her butt hole for the first time, both to us lucky viewers and of course, him.

For the next few minutes he carries out a fairly normal massage although he does seem to concentrate on Jeny's butt. I don't really blame him. Then just after 7 minutes we see him massaging the sole of Jeny's left foot. Her legs have been spread farther apart. Her pussy must now be clearly on show to his gaze.

Obligingly, the screen switches to the view between Jeny's legs. Her butt hole can be seen as can her prominent outer lips with even a glimpse of her slightly open inner lips.

The masseur uses both hands to massage all the way up Jeny's left leg. He massages her inner thigh very close to her pussy. So close in fact that we can see her pussy lips moving as he massages her thigh. With a hand on each of her butt cheeks he briefly pulls them apart exposing her butt hole. That seemed to me to be a very unusual, intimate massage technique! He then moves to the opposite side of Jeny's body and repeats the massage of Jeny's butt and inner thighs.

Returning to the far side of Jeny's body, the concentrated massage of Jeny's thighs and butt continues.

They seem to be having a normal conversation. Subtitles tell us he has asked about her calves and thighs and we see his hands moving right up her left thigh ending up rubbing one side of her pussy. At first, Jeny says she cannot feel anything. He does it again. She says she can now feel it. She raises and waggles her butt slightly and she asks him to do it again!. This massage must be reaching parts that a massage would not normally reach.

A short while later, Jeny's left butt cheek is gently tapped. With that, she turns over on to her back.

She turns to the camera and smiles. A small pillow is put under her head and she rests on it. The masseur starts massaging Jeny's feet and legs. She tells him that her tummy may be overtrained so he switches attention to her tummy. She then mentions her chest so of course his hands switch briefly to stroking her breasts. He asks if she wants them oiled as well. So he does. But all too briefly.

The masseur moves back to massaging Jeny's thighs. The camera gives us a magnificent shot looking up Jeny's body from between her feet. Her pussy and landing strip can be seen. Her nipples are very stiff. Jeny looks so relaxed and she has a lovely broad grin. Attention then switches to the upper part of Jeny's body. We see his two hands moving across Jeny's pubic area and then her tummy and breasts. Jeny says it is ticklish.

He then returns to Jeny's legs saying that for the next bit he needs to part her legs. He moves her ankles so that they are about a metre apart. Jeny's pretty pussy is now fully on show. Jeny grins and they laugh as they discuss what he can see!

There are a further 10 minutes or so of very erotic massage shots to look at and you really should do so.

It seemed that towards the end the masseur was caressing, rather than massaging. It also shows the masseur finding various ways to lift and press and spread Jeny's legs giving him the opportunity to have a good look at and put his hands on her pussy.

There are even shots of him with one hand resting on Jeny's pussy whilst with the other hand, he gently squeezes her breast. Another time, as he moved from one side of her body to the other, he gently fondled her breast.

Jeny explained in some of her answers to member's comments, that they had rented the room to use and they had planted hidden cameras. The masseur did not know the session was being videoed so that was the reason for the pixelation and the distortion of his voice.

Jeny was happy that this massage was more intimate than a normal one would be. It was the first time this masseur had massaged Jeny and she liked him. She was enjoying it and he was very gentle and did not go too far. There were people in the next room and the situation was under control as

Alex was watching events on a screen in an adjoining room from a remote camera. Jeny also guessed her members would like watching her extending her boundaries. That has certainly been confirmed by the number of thumbs up this video has received.
