

Review for video “How about body art and painted clothes?”

Running time: 22mins 12 seconds

The video starts with Jeny naked in the apartment of Thomas B. He is the body artist to whom any number of plaudits are winging his way. And he deserves them as he must have a strong will to help him concentrate on his work!

Jeny stands in the centre of the room as Thomas, spray paint in hand, 'dresses' Jeny in a very short pair of denim shorts.

She wears a sleeveless hoodie which leaves her midriff bare. He finishes his work (there are some great touches, such as the J and S painted on Jeny's belt buckle).

Having completed the task Jeny finds herself dropped off in a large municipal park and the mischief begins! You can see from her mischievous smile that Jeny is already excited.

Jeny walks across a wide open area and from a distance everything appears normal (although her shorts are small).

However the fact that she is wearing her pink high heeled shoes further draws attention.

Jeny finds herself walking along a wide avenue of plane trees. She doesn't take the easy option by walking the length of the avenue behind the trees. No, not our Jeny! She wants to be seen by as many people as possible.

Now she is closer to others in the park, the shorts, although still painted, to the more observant park user's a pair of ass cheeks are visible. What a sensational pair!

But it is amazing how few people notice that for all intents and purposes Jeny is naked from midriff to her toes.

So now she's in the mood for a change of scenery. Jeny is in a concrete jungle, where there's less people but her painted shorts are more noticeable...

...and sure enough along come a couple and the woman spots her secret! And with that Jeny's adventure draws to a close!

As Jeny would say poka poka.
