

Review for video “Pride Parade in Cologne part 1”

Tags: No; Published: July 20th, 2018

Running time: 52 mins 29 sec

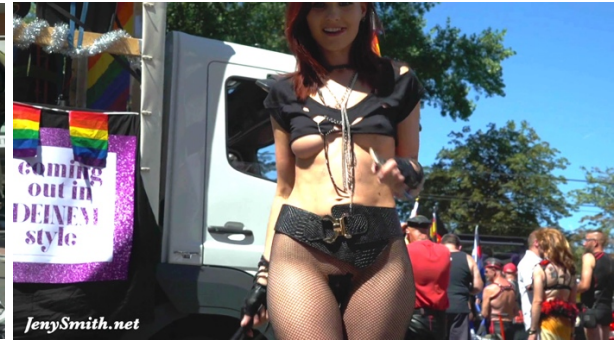

Some background info on Pride and it's evolution from revolution to it's current world wide celebration. It has it's roots in the Stonewall riots in New York in 1970 after police raided a gay club. The following year there were marches in cities across the USA demanding equal rights for the LGBT community. The LGBT standing for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender. Following the riots the LGBT moved from protests to a celebration of what might be thought of alternative lifestyles. Generally held in June (these groups are largely in the northern hemisphere and realised that having the marches in the warmer weather was likely to produce greater turnout!) Likewise the southern hemisphere marches are held in November/ December, jeny would otherwise be filmed in jogging bottoms and 4 layers just to keep warm !

As for the attendees at these parades, quite a large number aren't necessarily LGBT but are people who respect people's freedom of expression. Jeny, herself, describes her sexual orientation as 'straight' but I'm sure if she was given more options she would have replied that 'never say never!' So that's a potted history of Pride Parades, if you'd like to learn more about them, I will add a Wikipedia article at the end.

As Jeny states in the prologue to the length of both videos (yes there's a part 2) that both she and Alex wanted us to get a feel for the atmosphere generated by the different groups here, plus the happy demeanour of everybody!

Jeny is dressed as only she can dress for such occasions with her wearing a 'village people' style police cap, a crop top which Jeny has adapted (she has worn the police cap in three other videos, see section "related videos" at the end of this review) a black belt, fishnet pantyhose, fingerless gloves, black wedge heeled shoes and a small strip of material covers her pussy lips but her glorious bottom is completely visible through her tights and I bet it becomes the most photographed butt that day (incidentally Jeny says that the following day and because of the sun, she had a fishnet sun tan!

We watch Jeny as she calmly strolls amongst the crowd, never refusing a photo with anybody(I refuse to say what sex they might be, because a, it doesn't matter and b, I'm not convinced I would be right!

There are guys dressed in rubber dog outfits (bdsm?) and Jeny carries a crop which any number of people want her to be used on them!

The one constant throughout this video is Jeny's butt which to all intents is naked and I for one while never get enough of! I have to admit that being of an older generation it is hard to get my head around a lot of the significance of the symbols but one certain thing is how happy everyone is! And how diverse people are, the colours of the rainbow symbolic of that diversity and when the colours all meet then pure white light is produced.

Back to the parade and we find Jeny at a mobile bar and she is making great use of ice cubes as if her nipples weren't hard enough already! Also Jeny's patch of material covering her perfect pussy has almost given up the ghost and as part one finishes it loses the battle completely!
