Running time: 40 mins 02 sec

This video could have been split into 2 as it's 2 stories so count yourself lucky, strap yourself in and get ready for 40 minutes of Jeny doing what she does best, here we go!
Jeny sets the scene, she and Alex have found a disused steel works that has been turned into a museum of sorts. And it being a hot day, Jeny wears a t-shirt with a belt and.....nothing else!
Sorry I forgot about her baseball cap oh and sensible shoes with socks. And it's not very long before Jeny is showing us what is under her t-shirt.....nothing! She is in full exhibitionist mode and as there are plenty of ladders to climb up so there are plenty of scope for up t-shirt opportunities too.

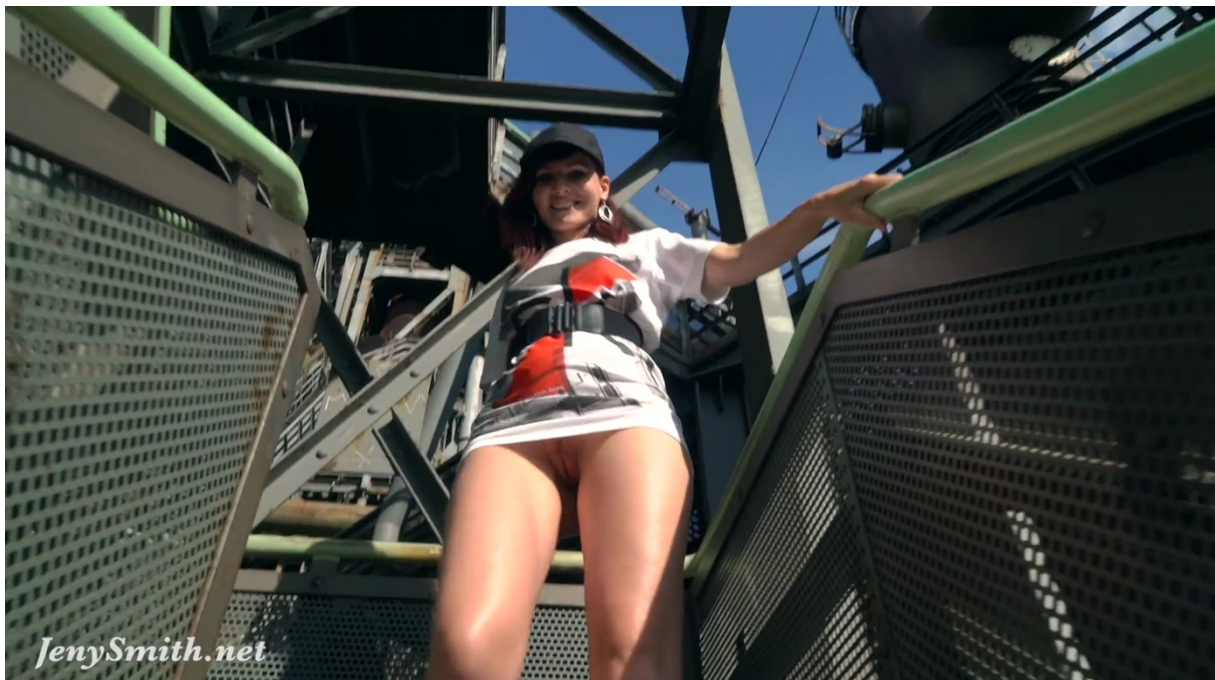

Not that Jeny needs ladders to flash, she checks that the guy who she passed by is busy looking in the opposite direction and she pulls her t-shirt up to expose her perfect pussy with its whisper of pubic hair trimmed down to a mini landing strip leaving her pussy lips hairless. Jeny is in a mischievous mood as she pulls her t-shirt up to her waist so that her beautiful butt is now fully exposed.

Jeny finds herself being followed by a photographer and when approached, she discovers he is Russian speaking and offers to pose for him. We then see Jeny climbing on a ladder so that he can take pictures of her fabulous pussy and she turns on the ladder so that her bare butt gets the attention it so rightly deserves.

Jeny's t-shirt is so short and as she walks about the steel works her gorgeous butt cheeks are visible constantly and they are only covered briefly when other explorers come too close. But whenever Jeny is in her element then anything can happen!

We watch as Jeny finds a relatively quiet place and she takes her belt off and pulls her t-shirt right up so we get to see her beautiful breasts with their gorgeous nipples. Apart from revealing her wonderful figure she also reveals her fear of heights and so she shows her bravery alongside her beautiful body. (during this whole segment we can hear the Russian speaker's shutter on his camera as Jeny continues to pose for him!)

I am tempted to split the review in two purely because of the length of the video and the natural fact that you may need to take a break! As with every review there are no rules. So anyway,,, I have the feeling that Jeny's fear of heights stimulates her in much the same way as her fear of being caught naked does! In this case clearly Jeny is excited and has more plans for further nudity! Jeny is now walking on one of the platforms that criss-cross the site and covers the gardens, she tells Alex that she wants to go there next.

We find Jeny in one of the gardens next where she wastes no time in pulling her t-shirt right up and walks around the square with her wonderful body on show. She then returns to the entrance and tells us that she needs to be careful as there's a number of people close by.

And Jeny's way of being careful.....is to walk to the middle of the garden and this time she removes everything! Yes, she stands in a pool of sunlight and her only concession to having a cover for her nakedness is the baseball cap.

Jeny is in full exhibitionist mode now and nothing is going to stop her now. A sure sign that she needs to go further is the fact that she has to massage her breasts. Jeny is now like a teenager and she is excited by her next challenge which is to come out of the garden and get to the next garden, a distance of probably 100 yards. So what, you say but 2 things you need to know is that the entrance to the next garden is also the main path for anyone to walk along and she is totally naked!

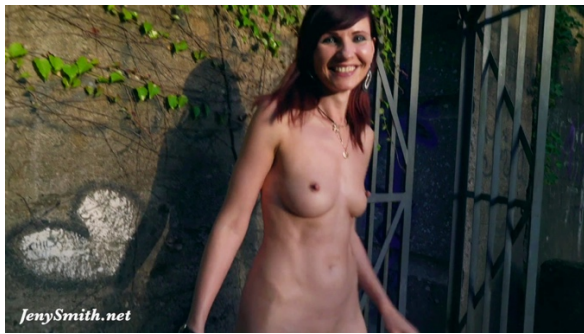

Jeny is suddenly reminded that the very walkway that she herself had crossed some time before was now being travelled across by others, she, quickly hides again, giggling as she does so. This is one of many things that I love about Jeny, it's her joie de vivre. The very fact that she enjoys what she is doing, Jeny is a joy to behold!

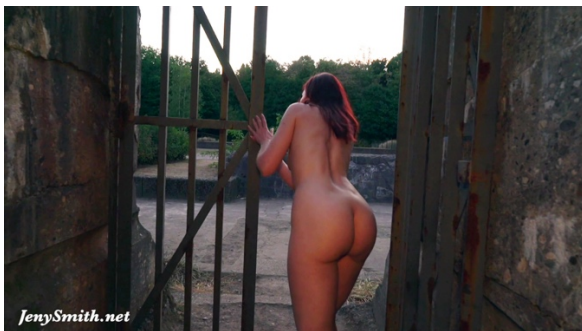

As a case in point, Jeny can't stop laughing as she leaves the relative safety of her garden and enters another more cultivated one. She soon finds out that she isn't alone in this garden as there's a photographer who has been drawn by the flowers and is busy snapping away completely unaware of the naked woman only feet away! A game of cat and mouse develops between the two protagonists with Jeny having the upper hand as she is the only one aware of the game.

The stakes are raised when Jeny finds herself on the far side of the gardens, either she will run back into the arms of the photographer or she must find a way past some other visitors.

Suddenly Jeny decides to run for what she thinks is a solid wall only to find that it's just a mass of wire cages. Jeny makes a further dash, laughing out loud as she confesses that she's never run so fast. She decides to make one last charge back to the gardens.

She is greeted by a round of applause from various groups who had witnessed the whole thing from start to finish. There was even time for Jeny to wave at one woman who caught the action on her phone.

Jeny is still naked as she says her good byes to us all.

So it's poka poka from Jeny and poka poka from me!
