Running time: 21:59 minutes

We first see Jeny walking along a neon lit street which she is quick to point out isn't Las Vegas but is in fact Paradise City on Paradise Island. As always Jeny looks stunning in a very short black dress which has a deep cut at the front and a pair of gold high heels.

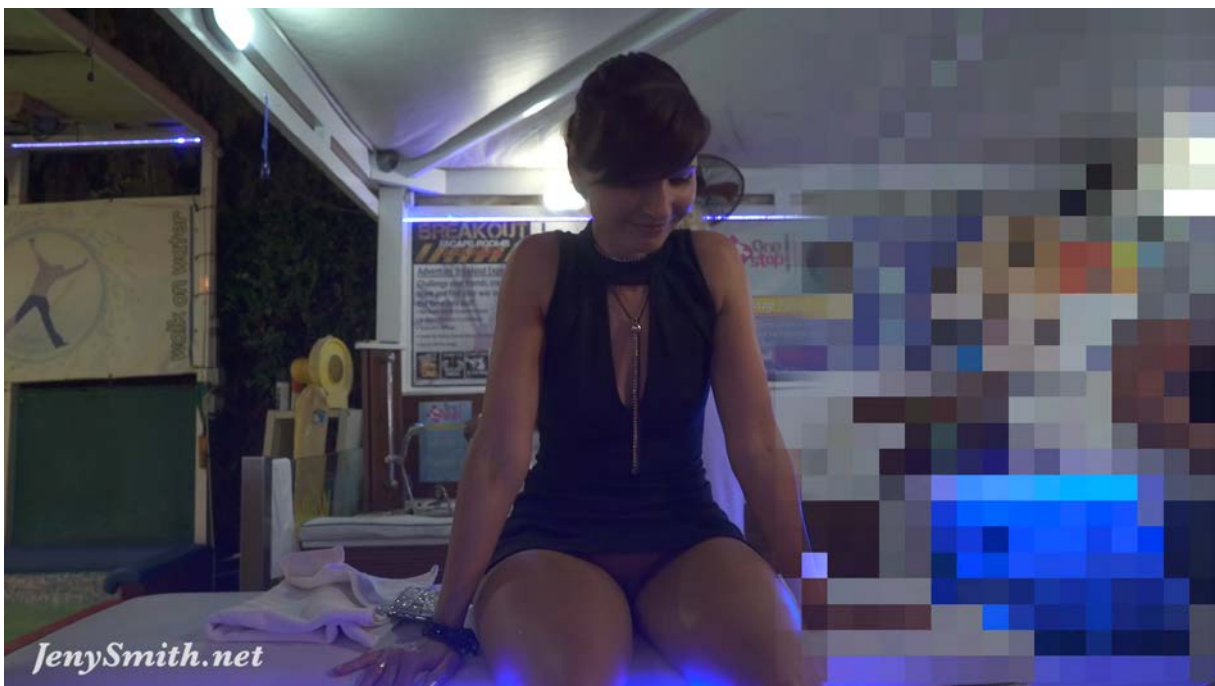

Jeny is giving us a travelogue of the night life of the island's party capital, where all the taxis appear to be stretched limousines (incidentally a McDonald's in the City is the busiest one in Europe apparently!).

Jeny pauses outside of a strange place where small fish nibble at your feet and in the process clear away dead skin!

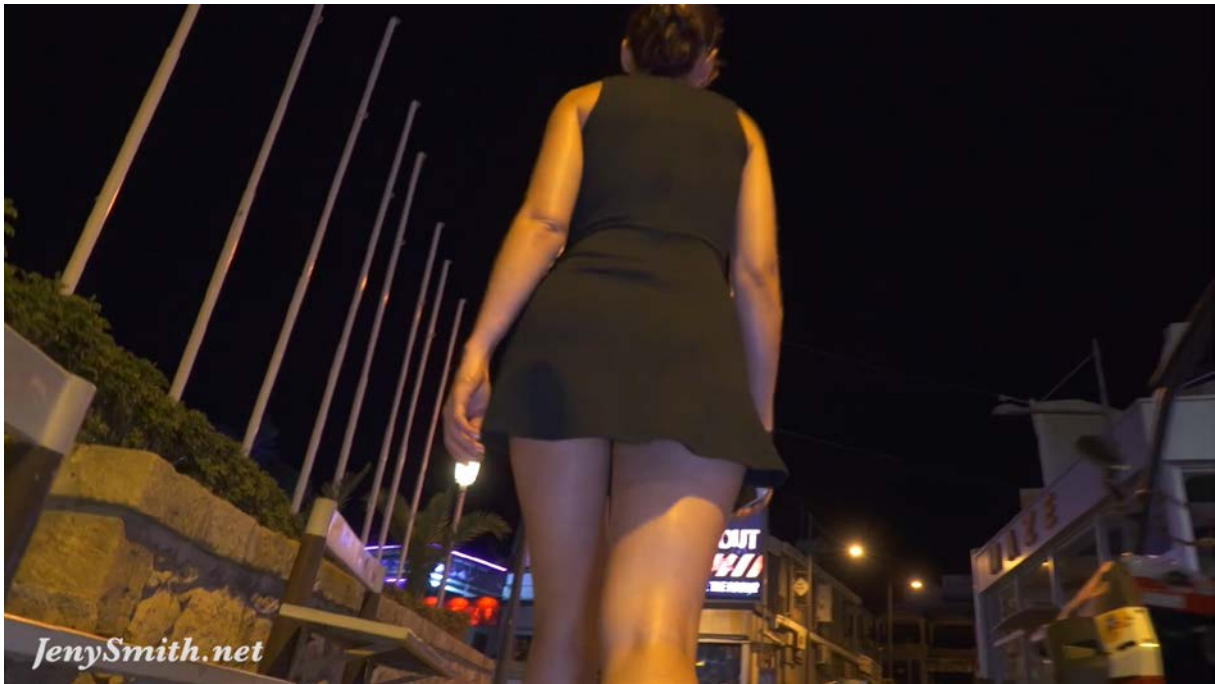

Curiosity gets the better of Jeny and she is quickly ushered in by an enterprising young man who thinks such a short dress in the front of the shop might have a good effect on business. Little does he know how attractive she will prove to be!!

Jeny is pantieless and soon the shop is buzzing with clients. She describes the sensation (of the fish!) as akin to having her feet immersed in sparkling water.

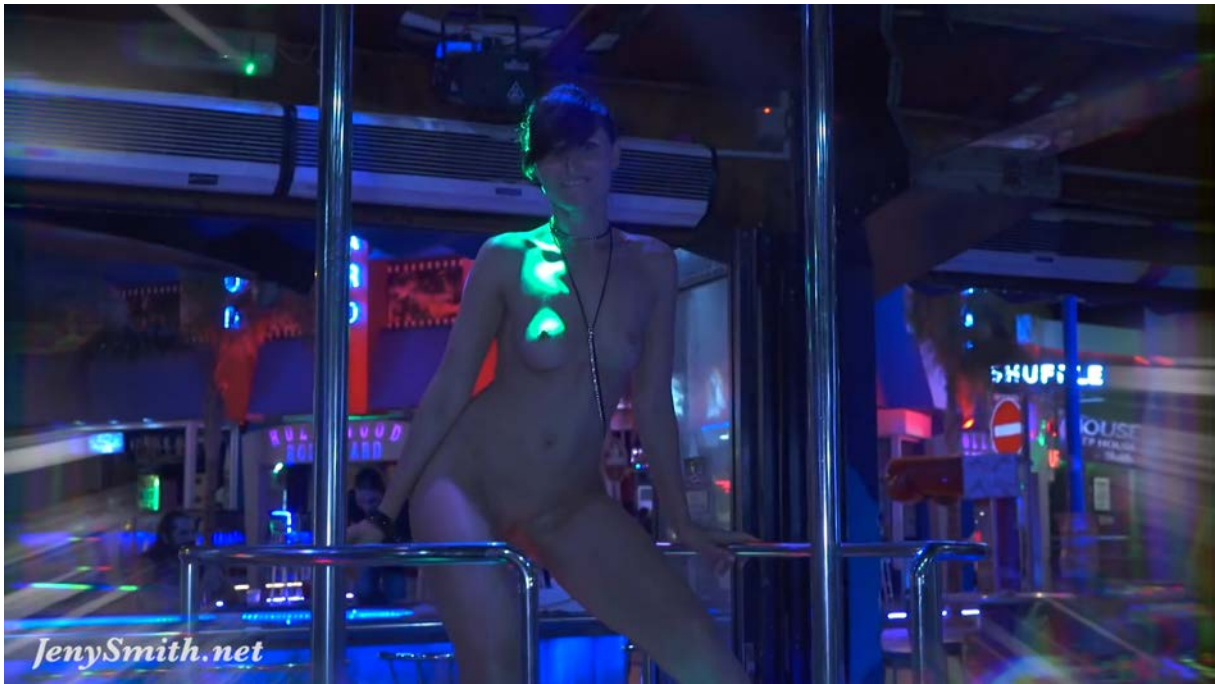

Soon Jeny is back on the strip and attracting the attention of the bar flies whose job it is to draw ladies to their nightclub.

After resisting the attention of several of the guys Jeny is tempted into a bar called Titanic (no shortage of ice for drinks). After a couple of cocktails, Jeny is encouraged to help serve behind the bar. This entails climbing over the counter and revealing her gorgeous pussy and naked bottom to everyone sitting at the bar.

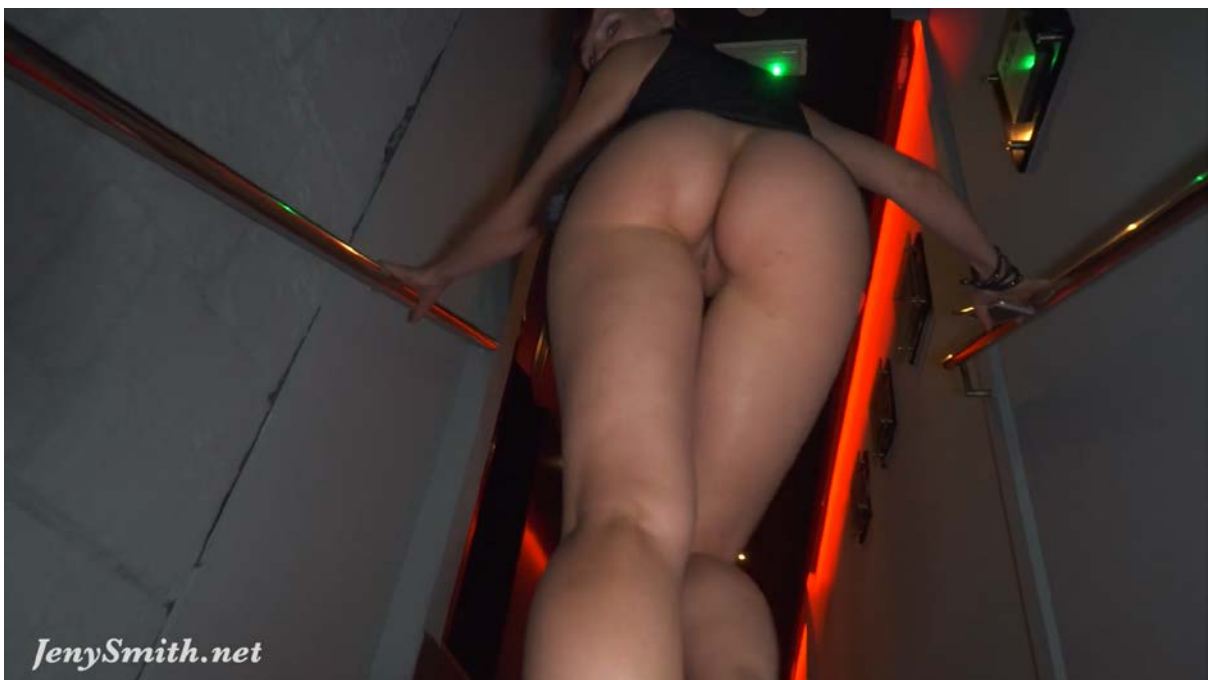

But this being Jeny, just flashing her bare cheeks is never going to be enough to satisfy the exhibitionist in her, she finds a chrome encased dance platform to disrobe in! There at the entrance to the nightclub in full view of passing trade, Jeny dances naked!

Jeny looks stunning and so relaxed as if it was the most natural thing in the world (and what a shame it's not, as the world would be a much better place!)

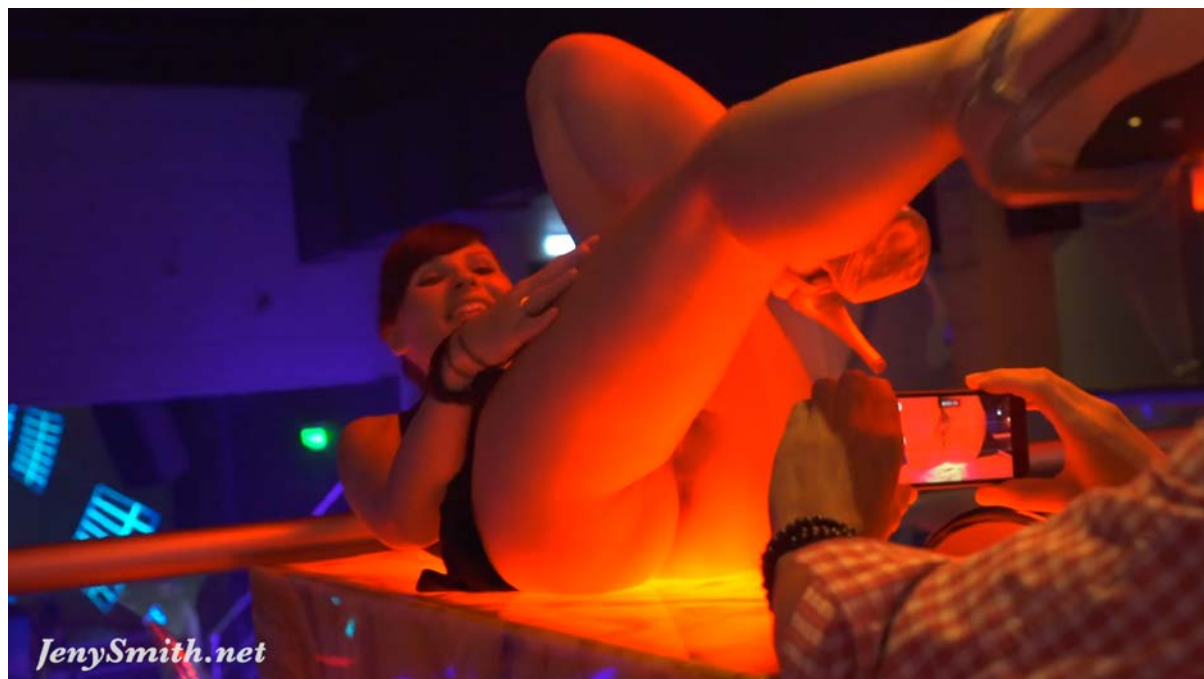

As it's the Titanic, the music plays on and Jeny (now dressed) has found a lifeboat to cling on to and is helping the crew to keep afloat by drinking the champagne (provided free !). Jeny admits to being tipsy and it's time to leave the safety of her lifeboat and swim to the other flotsam and jetsam (there are points to be had if you can tell me the difference!).

Walking up the stairs to the next club, Jeny feels the urge to display again so as Alex films from below Jeny pulls her dress right up so that the sensational bottom of hers is now fully on show, stopping briefly to cover her pleasure points (she quickly realises that the dress code is very relaxed) and so Jeny wastes no time in lifting her dress up to show everyone her gorgeous ass!

Jeny is in full exhibitionist mode now and with her perfect pussy on show as she climbs on a table (one guy must be less than a foot away from Jeny's pussy he is so determined to get a close up!).

Now Jeny takes her rightful place on the throne as Queen of tease.

The final scene has Jeny back on the strip having to choose between one more club or her bed, the deciding factor is when she looks at her watch it's 5am!

Jeny never needs much beauty sleep but she has plans for the coming day and those clubs will still be there tomorrow!
