

Review for video “Plan “B” ”

Jeny is outside in the bright sunshine. However, it must be cold because she is wearing an orange puffa jacket, orange skirt, black pantyhose with black knee high boots and she has a brown knitted hat on her head and she is carrying gloves.

A subtitle flashes on the screen “Jeny the Bait. Innocent girl goes for free massage”. It points to her.

She explains to us viewers that she has advertised for a guy to take part in a massage class. She will play the role of the model and the guy she is going to meet in the subway will be taught how to massage. She meets him in the subway and we learn he is called Max. They travel together to the clinic. Jeny films them with her selfie stick and they talk about what they think may happen. Jeny tells him she has been massaged before at the clinic and is going with him now as the model for a free massage. She thinks they will take part in a training video and she is excited as it is her first modelling job.

At the clinic we see Jeny has removed her hat. She wears her hair in a ponytail with her fringe falling over her right eye. She wears long dangling earrings. She is full of smiles and her face looks oh so pretty.

The next scene shows Jeny in the room with the masseur. He is in on the prank. He shows Jeny to the end and draws a curtain across so she can undress ready for the massage. She has been told to strip naked (of course) and then to lie on the massage table. Jeny appears wrapped in a large brown towel. She lies on her tummy on the table.

The masseur places a large tubular pillow under Jeny's ankles and "adjusts" the towel. That gives us the first look at her fabulous naked butt before he settles on having it cover her back leaving just the bottom part of her butt on show. For once, Jeny feels quite modest and she pulls the towel down to fully cover her butt.

We then see the masseur talking to Max. The top part of the screen is blurred to keep the identity of both the masseur (whom Jeny has used before) and Max secret. The masseur explains Max is going to be taught how to massage properly. The session is going to be videod (by Alex – good for us). So they start.

We see the lovely skin of Jeny's back as she is laid out on the massage table before the two guys. We see the glorious swell of her butt with the top part of her cheeks peeking out from beneath a white sheet. Butt crack is visible. She is thanked by the masseur for being the model. The massage is about to start.

The masseur first rubs oil into his hands which he then uses on the full expanse of Jeny's back. He pays particular attention to her bubble butt and her butt cheeks. He motions to Max to come in and stand closer to get a proper look at what he is doing.

The masseur spends some minutes massaging Jeny, explaining and showing Max what he needs to do. Jeny's butt cheeks wobble deliciously as he presses them. What must Max be thinking at that particular moment? Jeny is naked! Lying on a bed just before him! He is about to put his hands on her!

Max's moment has arrived. He rubs his hands together to warm them. The masseur also rubs those hands. The masseur then sprays some oil onto Max's hands. Max lays his hands on Jeny's back. He rubs up and down trying to do what he has been shown (a huge wave of envy washed over me at that point, the first time I watched it). However, he avoids touching Jeny's butt. The masseur pats Jeny's butt with the back of his hand so must be telling Max to massage there as well. Max tries but is too tentative. The masseur takes over and massages Jeny's butt firmly showing how he expects it to be done. In doing so, he causes the cover on Jeny's butt to slip down slightly.

Max tries again and massages the top part of Jeny's exposed butt whilst massaging her back. The masseur master is still not happy so he takes over again. We see him firmly massaging her butt from one side to the other and back again. Max tries again, firmly starting from her left butt and continuing up the left side of her back. The scene switches and we see Max, more confidently this time, massaging the right top half of her body including her right butt cheek. All the while, Jeny's naked butt is nearly fully exposed.

The masseur then pulls the brown towel that has been covering Jeny's legs, up her body to cover her back. He tucks the white cover upwards so the whole of the lower part of Jeny's butt is now on show. He also slightly spreads Jeny's legs by lifting and separating her ankles. Her butt crack and her pussy can now be seen. The masseur draws attention to them (probably deliberately) by placing his hands high up on Jeny's thighs and pointing to where the crease runs between the top of Jeny's thighs and her butt. He also draws his hands up from Jeny's ankles to the top of her thighs and his hands cause the cover to lift slightly each time showing even more of her butt.

Max tries to repeat what the masseur has shown him. The camera pans around to look up Jeny's body from her feet. Her pussy and butt crack are clearly on show. The massage continues on the back of Jeny's left leg. At one point she has four hands working on it.

The masseur then shows how to massage the whole of Jeny's left leg from her ankle to the top of her thigh by using his two hands. He decides the white covering is in the way so lifts it up fully exposing her butt and pussy. When his hands reach the top of her thigh, his fingers get so close to her pussy. Max repeats the moves and when leaning in, he must have a wonderful view. Surely no man could resist looking! The masseur notices Jeny's legs shaking but after asking Jeny, teases it is being caused by Max's hands shaking.

The next shots show the cover on Jeny's right butt cheek, meaning the left one is fully exposed.

The masseur lifts and squeezes her left butt cheek. Each time he does her butt hole is exposed. Max repeats the moves. The masseur nonchalantly leans on Jeny's butt as his student continues massaging Jeny's leg. The massage seems very concentrated on Jeny's butt. We see the cover has slipped off her butt before the masseur pulls it back to cover her right butt cheek. Both their hands are getting very close now to Jeny's pussy, so much so that on the upward massage strokes, we can see Jeny's pussy lips are being pulled slightly apart.

At around 18:30 minutes Jeny is asked to turn over.

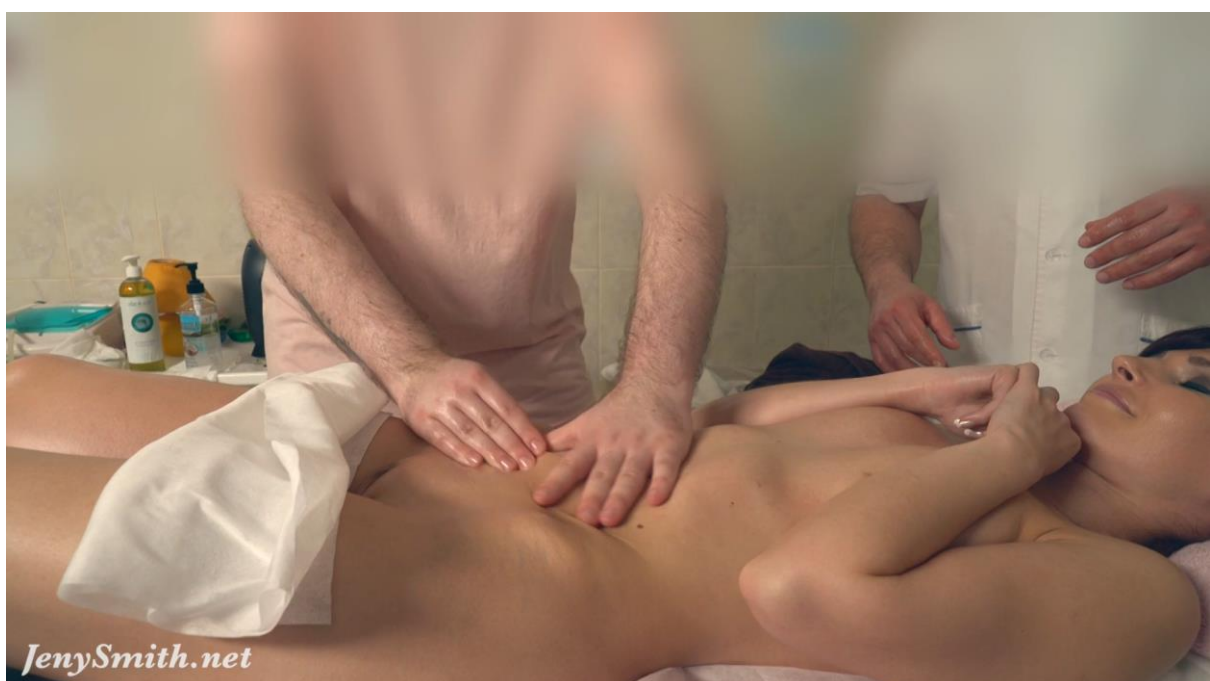

She tries to keep her top half covered by the towel but her naked bottom half can clearly be seen as she turns. The masseur places the tubular pillow behind Jeny's knees and once again spreads her legs slightly apart. From the side it seems that Jeny is covered properly apart from her legs. But standing where Max is, Jeny's pussy can clearly be seen. Jeny has a smirk on her face. She knows she is exposed in that way. Once again, the masseur draws attention by stroking and pointing to the top of her thighs.

The next three minutes or so concentrates on massaging Jeny's exposed thighs. All that time, Jeny's pussy is on show. I like to imagine it twinkled at Max. We see his two hands sliding up Jeny's thigh and his fingers get so close to Jeny's pussy lips.

The masseur asks Jeny if they can remove the towel. Of course she agrees. So we then see Jeny completely naked laid on her back on a massage table. What thoughts that evokes!

Her modesty is preserved only by the flimsy white covering loosely draped over her tummy region and her arms covering her breasts.

The next few minutes are so erotic. You really should watch the video to see what I mean. As a tempter (if you need one) I would just say that close attention is paid to Jeny's tummy and pubic mound. Also, she is eventually "persuaded" to uncover her breasts so they could be properly massaged (squeezed). Max trembled with the experience.

To wrap up the video, we see Jeny talking with Max as they walk away from the clinic. We see Jeny was so pleased by the whole experience. She wanted to know what Max thought of it. With great insight, he said it was "fucking exciting". Enough said! He was not told what he had really taken part in.
