

Review for video “She's a dancer”

Tags: Dancer; Published: May 29th, 2019

Running time: 35 mins 23 sec

For this video, Jeny is dressed like a young woman who has just come out of her dance class. She put on a sweatshirt over her pink fishnet bodysuit. A sweatshirt too short to hide her buttocks entirely.

She is walking a little randomly when she sees a dancer who is practicing tap dancing and decides to go see him. Even though the discussion is focused on tap dancing technique, the guy is fascinated by Jeny's outfit.

Jeny continues to walk and heads to the pedestrian square. She films herself with her selfie stick near a flower bed. We notice that the many walkers around her seem to appreciate the sexy look of this beautiful "dancer".

Now Jeny enters a picture shop. The salespeople are happy to follow her with their eyes and she knows it because she has heard some nice comments. Some even took a picture of her.

Jeny leaves smiling before going up to a stage to take another selfie.

She can see that everyone is watching her so she decides to do a show.

Many people have photographed her, from the back as well as from the front.

And it's while leaving that one of the guys approached her The guy is friendly. Together they talk about dance and finally they take a few steps together.

The conversation continues sitting on the grass, facing each other.

The guy sometimes sneaks glances between Jeny's legs and seemed worried that people around might notice, but Jeny reassured him by saying it didn't bother her.

While she noticed that he was becoming shy when the conversation was about dancer outfits, she discreetly pulled aside her bodysuit to expose her pussy, but he didn't react.

She showed him what she was wearing in the dance studio, and he looked at her nipples greedily.

And since now he wanted to see more, Jeny showed him her pussy just before leaving.
