Running time: 47 mins 38 sec

This begins, as so many of Jeny's videos do, with Jeny giving us a brief description of where she is and what she has planned. In this case she and Alex were not planning on doing any filming today (they were going to visit relatives)

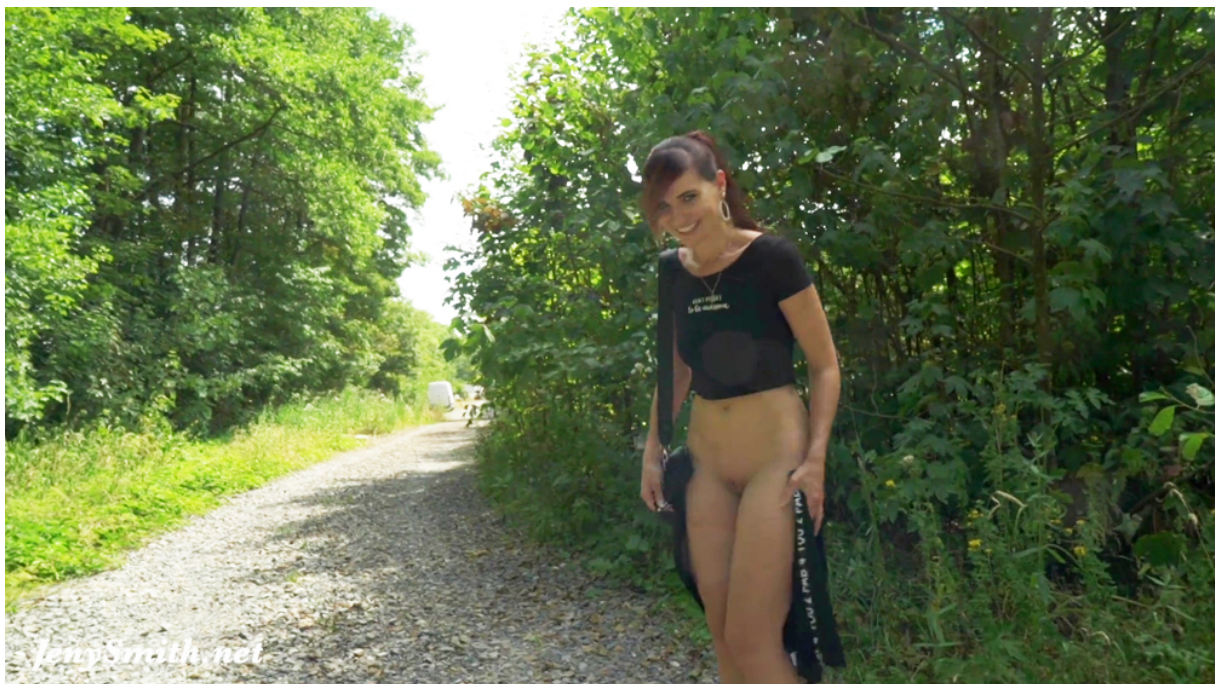

She then explains that she had heard on the grapevine that they would pass by a disused factory that was currently used by bands for filming videos. So Jeny was determined to explore. So having parked up Jeny walks through the woods that surround the abandoned factory. She is wearing a black short sleeved tshirt with the message 'don't forget to be awesome' written in small letters and she tells us that she wants to explore the building in the nude!

Jeny is definitely in the mood to do just that ! Whilst still in the woods but with the path running parallel with a busy road, Jeny unzips her skirt (the zip runs from bottom to top at the front of it) so that with every step her perfect pussy is exposed and to make it even sexier Jeny pulls her top up above her beautiful breasts.

Still with traffic travelling back and forth, Jeny leaves the sanctuary of the forest behind and is now in a sun drenched spot opposite the factory. She pulls her t-shirt down but leaves her skirt as they are nearing the factory and although it is disused there are still some signs of life.

Jeny complains that is painful under foot as she isn't wearing sneakers but a little problem is not going to deter Jeny and, in fact she decides that the time is right to take off her skirt which is folded up and placed in her handbag.

Jeny is clearly excited by being bottomless as can be seen by her nipples which are doing their hardest to escape through her tshirt!

Feeling better, Jeny moves from her fairly safe spot to a position close to an open doorway. And what a lovely sight we have of her naked ass as she walks up to and into the first building. There are further signs of occupation and Jeny quickly hides as someone passes by a window casting a shadow which spooks her and she runs deeper into the factory. Finding herself in a quieter area she feels the need to be naked and she slips her tshirt over her head and it joins her skirt in her handbag.

Now it's possible to see all of Jeny's body as the light from the video recorder illuminates the space. And what a body it is, from the perfectly sized breasts and fabulous nipples down across her flat stomach down to her hairless pussy and to her perfectly proportioned legs. A goddess if ever there was one!

This video is a delight in that it shows what life is like living with an exhibitionist. Not only do we get to see Jeny naked but we get an insight into what arouses Jeny.

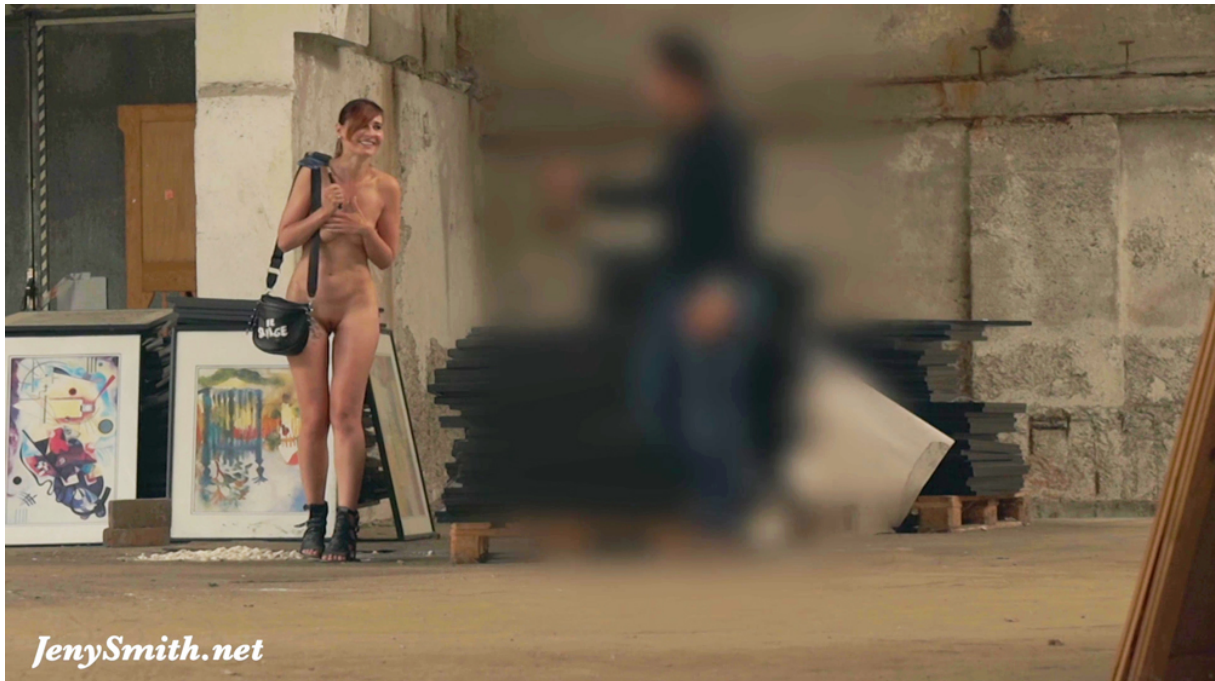

The excitement is written across her face firstly when she takes her skirt off and then when she is naked (I sometimes think that if left to her own devices when naked how far she might go!)

Jeny is insistent that they explore further (as I suspect that she wants to be caught) and, finally that's what happens after Jeny lives out one of her fantasies as a student and then she is a teacher. For those that have read her blog on her website about her journey into exhibitionism, you will recognise elements of the fantasy.

Jeny is caught and we are left wondering what happened to her as she stood there naked and her interrogation begins! Sadly we will never know as there was never a part 2!
