Please enjoy my review of Jeny and her visit to a German castle in the summer of 2019.

The video begins with shots of the medieval castle and the landscapes of the woodland that encircles the historic buildings.

Cut to the next scene of Jeny who has gone for a stroll in the forest after discovering the castle isn't open until later. She is in her element here with a cool breeze and the woods full of birdsong. Jeny is wearing an off the shoulder elasticated white blouse and what looks like at first glance a full black skirt, but as we already know, there is bound to be a surprise. Jeny spots in the distance a gnarled tree that has a mystic look about it and appears to be a tree from Lord of the Rings! So to the surprise with the skirt but not before Jeny pulls her top up revealing those fabulous breasts and nipples that appear to be constantly erect! Jeny reaches down and spreads the skirt which is made from sheer black material to show us that once again she is pantieless, her hairless pussy lips exposed not for the first time. Walking ahead with her skirt pulled open, she comes across a folly where the most natural thing in the world is for Jeny to remove her skirt. Stopping briefly to admire the view, she continues on her walk but this time her only clothing is a wide belt and top pulled up so that her magnificent body is on show.

Jeny stops to tell us that one of the hazards to being almost naked in the woods is that you don't hear people on bicycles until they are practically on top of you! So no time to get dressed, but the rider just winks and gives her a thumbs up!

The scene changes as we are now back at the castle and a relaxed Jeny is walking around the buildings oblivious to the fact that her skirt is sheer. She enters the castle, all the time flashing her pussy even with other visitors close by. However she is disappointed with the castle, saying that it is unrealistic and so Jeny returns to the open air.

This time she has found a map of the area and spots a waterfall which Jeny sets off to find and true to form, she loses her skirt and as we are behind her we are greeted by the sight of Jeny's perfect ass.

She soon hears the sound of the waterfall and can't resist the urge to go in the reservoir especially as there's another model and photographer taking shots in the water. Jeny, wearing just her top, enters the cold water and decides to have her own wet t-shirt event so she dips her gorgeous frame in the water and emerges with her hard nipples pushing against the material of her thin top. She speaks to the camera, telling us that because of her wet top she asks if we mind her being topless! Well you'd have to be mentally deranged to disagree!

But instead of removing her top she goes bottomless to a viewing platform where she meets an English man who she can't understand but poses for him to take pictures of her. After he leaves, Jeny decides she must remove her top as the water has made her too cold and those completely naked she will walk back to the car. She looks so relaxed and happy as she skips up the hill with just her handbag, smiling at the other people she meets on the way.

Jeny is the Queen of tease as we well know but also she is completely at one with her own body and proves once again that the world would be a better place if we were so child like (NOT childish!) about nudism. We have to be taught shame it's not something we are born with. Sorry if you don't agree with that but still enjoy the video for what it is, a celebration of the woman we all love.....Jeny!!
