

Review for “Psychology Test 4 (Non Nude)”

Tags: Psychology; Published: January 20st, 2020

Running time: : 11 minutes 03 seconds

The scene is set, with Jeny again sat behind the desk. She is wearing the same white sleeveless polo neck jumper with the faux fur wrap around her shoulders. Beneath the table we can see that she is naked apart from her shiny black short boots. It looks promising so far

But there is something missing already.....it slowly becomes apparent that the crucial missing element is chemistry.

Jeny starts by asking him how he feels, and runs through a series of words that will lead to Jeny having a psychology picture of the student. She asks him about the nude body and he replies that it depends on the situation/place. And there are people, what are they called .... he elaborates.....people who run through the forest ...Jeny suggests 'exhibitionists' .....he is not sure if that's what they are called ..... Jeny interrupts him, she suggests a scenario where a woman undresses in public, he responds by saying that if minors saw them.....beaches are normal, but if she does it when minors are around 'that is not good.

Jeny asks him how would he react if she was sat in front of him wearing a long skirt and flat shoes, he says nothing, then what if she was wearing long boots and a miniskirt that hid nothing.....of course he would have emotions

She asks him if he would like to see her legs. What does she mean? She says again...-'would he like her to stand up and let him see.. . No! He doesn't want that! In fact he would be happier if they could just continue with a serious dialogue!

Jeny tries to tempt him again she takes off her fur wrap and asks him to look at her nipples. Has the situation changed, she asks him.....it's unpleasant, he replies!

Jeny is clearly surprised by such a negative response she tries one more time .would he like to see her bottomless.....

.....so what! is the reply!

The conversation continues for a short while but Jeny sees it's going nowhere and politely draws the session to a close!

Just goes to show (or not in this case!) she can't win them all.
