

Review for video “Elite Car Service prt 3”

This is the third and final video in the Elite Car Service series. It is the shortest at 14:29 minutes. As a reminder Jeny had paid for four days’ business class service of a luxury car with driver.

The opening shots show Jeny sat in the rear seat. She is wearing a light coloured overcoat with a faux fur collar and black knee high boots. We can see that it is night time and the car’s interior light is on. She raises her left leg to rest her foot on the rear central tunnel and she parts her legs showing her pussy. She looks to be in a thoughtful mood. Unlike the earlier two videos in the series, there has been no indication at the start of this one about what Jeny must do.

Jeny picks the camera up and points it towards the front of the car. Through its windscreen we can see the car travelling along a wide, brightly lit road with many brightly lit buildings and objects on the side. After a couple of minutes the car stops to let Jeny out. She can be seen talking to the driver who has opened the door for her (he looks to be the same driver as in the two other videos) and sub-titles tell us she is asking for his help with her coat as she wants to take a selfie video and needs to be fast.

He asks if she is going to get naked again (and I expect he is really hoping that she does). Jeny says he will have to wait and see (but not for long I would guess). She places the camera on the bonnet of the car. The driver can be seen pacing nervously. There she goes – the coat comes off and is handed to the driver. Jeny is partly covered. Her breasts are covered by a see-through bra-top and she has stockings and boots on. And this time she wears a suspender belt – a thin strap affair. This means her pussy and butt are naked.

She twirls and shows her naked parts off in the glare of the car's headlights. After just a few seconds she asks the driver to hand the coat to her which she quickly puts on. We see her walk towards the car bonnet to pick up the camera and we get a look at her pussy's landing strip. We also see a wall runs along the right side of the shot but on the left there is what seems to be a low rise residential apartment block.

After returning to the car's rear seats, she takes her coat off. She splays her legs giving the camera a better shot of her pussy. She gives her pussy a few gentle rubs. Sub-titles then show us she has asked the driver a stunning question – does he want to take a better and closer look of her? Wow!

The driver doesn't really know what to say. He says he is not sure what his rules would allow him to do but it would be a pleasure for him. Of course it would! Jeny tells him to stop then and he should take a look for at least 2 minutes.

The video continues for a short period whilst the driver tries to find a suitable place to park. They have small talk about Jeny liking to take naked walks but not having done it in a car with a driver before. After what seems like ages, but was only just a few minutes, the car stops. We can see from a split screen that the driver has turned around in his seat to have a proper look at Jeny. Members will know that Jeny really loves having attention when she exhibits her naked body.

So Jeny is sat upright with her legs fully open. The interior light is bright so her puffy pussy lips can clearly be seen. I imagine the driver is thinking that she looks so desirable. She plays with the straps of her suspender belt and the tops of her stockings. She then raises her left leg and then asks the driver the second stunning question of the night – how do you like it? He responds “Amazing, amazing girl, amazing body, it’s so beautiful”. A sentiment that surely all members would agree with, but the driver was lucky enough to be so close to our gorgeous Jeny when telling her personally.

Jeny responds by thanking him and saying he is finally looking at her. (Although in fact I think he has stolen plenty of looks on the sly during the previous days with Jeny but nothing would compare with what he has now been shown).

They carry on talking. All the while Jeny has her legs open and her pussy open to his gaze as if it was the most natural thing to do. She explains she would not mind if outsiders were to see her as she is doing nothing wrong. She also admits she finds it pleasurable him watching her and she has another rub of her pussy.

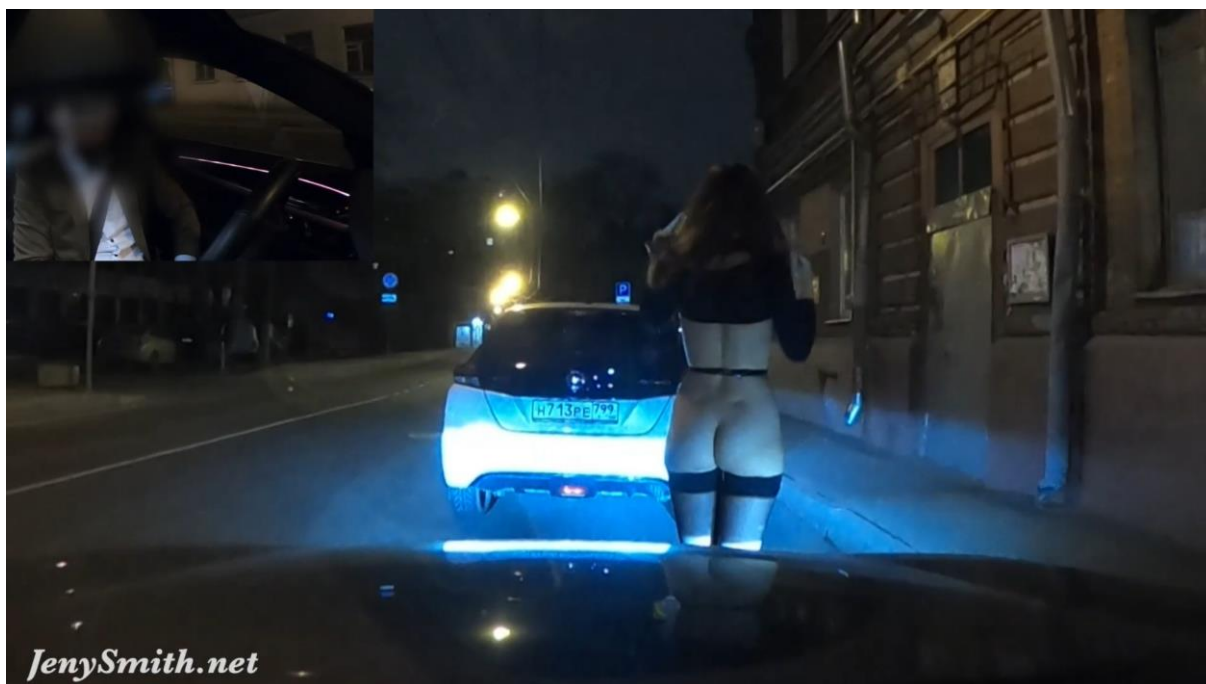

They continue to talk. Jeny starts giggling and says she is getting embarrassed. But the talk continues and Jeny keeps her legs open. But after about 2:30 minutes the driver notices two people walking close to the car. Jeny puts her window down to have a quick look but then puts it up again and the driver turns off the interior light.

After a short while the interior light is back on. Jeny is still sat with her legs open and she now tells the driver she wants to show him something. With that she pulls her top up to expose her breasts. She thinks the view is better now. The driver then admits that he has already seen Jeny looking like that on previous days by looking in the car’s mirrors. No surprises there really!

Jeny assures him that in the videos his identity will be blurred. He says she is so beautiful. However the couple that came close earlier are still close outside and it seems they are arguing. Jeny turns the interior light off again and the driver says he will move to a different spot.

Whilst the car moves Jeny decides to do even more to shock the driver. When the car next stops we see the camera is now on the car's dashboard. It shows her getting out of the car and it follows to show her walking to the front of the car. Its headlights show clearly her naked butt, breasts and pussy as the car is parked in a street just behind another car. Jeny turns her back to the headlights just as another car drives by on the left side. Her naked butt must surely have been clear to the driver of that other car.

She is seen returning to the back seat. The driver passes the camera back to the centre armrest. It shows Jeny once again with legs splayed. But, this time her breasts are naked and her nipples look so hard. She says she is so cold and is going to stroke herself. Which she does.

The driver asks if he should make it warmer. He also asks if he can watch Jeny stroking herself. Of course, she says she doesn't mind. She has a large smile on her face as she masturbates with her right hand and fondles her breast with her left. The driver turns around and watches her intently.

Jeny's inner lips are now so puffy and prominent. But someone is getting close so the internal light is turned off again (how frustrating for everyone). But just a few seconds later, the light is back on. Jeny licks the fingers of her right hand and then uses it to rub her pussy again. However after just a few seconds Jeny (frustratingly) stops. It seems she doesn't want to climax there and then but says she is satisfied. She asks to go home and blows a farewell kiss to the camera.

We then see shots from the following day. Jeny is once again sat in the back seat. But she is (or appears to be) fully dressed. The sub-titles tell us she didn't talk with the driver and acted as if nothing untoward had happened the night before. I wonder what he thought about that night and the previous two days with the beautiful Jeny. Surely, a never to be forgotten assignment!
