This video starts with a full on shot of Jeny’s pretty face. She is holding the camera on a selfie stick. We see her gorgeous sparkling green eyes and her auburn hair falls loosely over her shoulders.

There is the bonus of her speaking English with her sexy Russian accent. She tells us she is going for a ride in her car to see the city and she is wearing her hot red vinyl bodysuit for us. Lucky us!

For the next few minutes she drives and rather unwisely (which she admitted in her comments afterwards) she is still holding the selfie stick to show us her body. When stopped briefly she even manages to release her right nipple and we see how stiff it is.

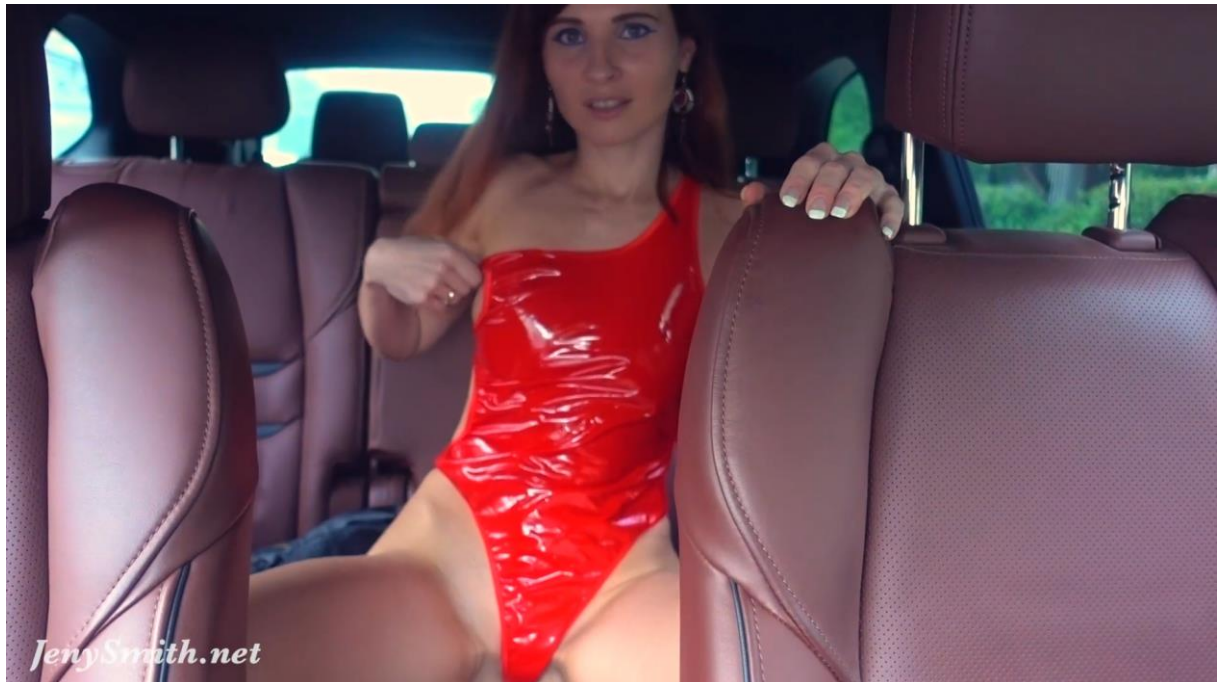

She is driving in slow moving traffic and when she stops she moves the camera around to show other cars which are so close to hers, meaning the other drivers could see what she is doing. She tells us one man did indeed notice!

After about 6 minutes she has parked her car. The driver's side is closest to the pavement. She shows large numbers of cars passing on the passenger's side. She tells us she wants to record her getting out of the car so she places her camera down to do that. As she gets out of the car we can hear the noise of a lot of traffic in the road where she is parked. We get a fabulous shot of her back and butt.

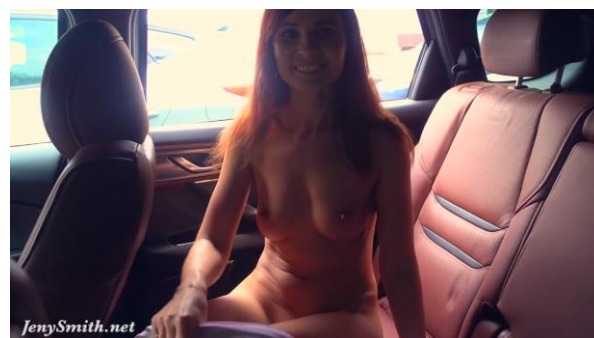

There is a lot of flesh on display as the bottom of the bodysuit has a narrow strip of red vinyl that disappears between her butt cheeks. We also see briefly that she is wearing red vinyl ankle boots.

Almost straight away, Jeny climbs into the back of the car and she adjusts the camera to focus on her as she sits in the middle of the rear seat. Her right nipple is still on show. We also see the brief part of the bodysuit is tight between her legs only just covering her pussy.

Jeny uses the camera to show how close other cars are on the passengers side, and they are still in slow moving traffic. The rear window on the passenger side is tinted so she lowers it, both to have a better view out but also to allow anyone outside a better look in. A driver in the next car spots Jeny and gives her a thumbs up sign. Jeny moves towards that side but the driver has to move on. He waves cheerio. Jeny laughs and smiles broadly after he has gone.

Facing the camera and with her back to the traffic, Jeny drops the top of the bodysuit, exposing both her breasts. She flicks her nipples to make sure they are both at their firmest. But she doesn't stop there. She pulls the top down even further and lifting her butt from the seat and with a sexy wiggle she takes the suit off completely.

So, apart from her boots she is now totally naked in the back of her car. She poses for the camera. As she does so another car stops alongside the open window. The driver can see what she is doing. Jeny turns around and with a laugh, smiles at him. She also turns around to face him and shakes her breasts. She tells us that the man had asked if he could park and then join her in her car! This worries Jeny so she closes the window and also puts up the window shade.

At that moment she gets an error message and her camera stops recording. When the picture reappears, Jeny is talking in Russian and subtitles tell us she was perstered by a taxi driver who had saw her. He tapped on the windows and doors and wanted to be let in. She had to pretend to call the police. These events clearly rattled Jeny. But before not too long, she is smiling again and moves the camera around to show various pedestrians walking by the car. She has changed location.

Jeny is next seating in the middle of the rear car seat. She raises her legs and opens them. The camera gives us fantastic shots of her fabulous naked body and we get the first look at her pussy, which is smooth as usual apart from the briefest wisp of a landing strip. As she moves the camera she shows us the view through the front windscreen. She has been spotted by a man who is walking close to the front of her car!

The man stares at her through the front windscreen. She laughs, nervously. He then moves and walks by the rear side passenger window to get another look before going back to the front of the car. He then returns to the passenger window and the camera clearly shows him looking into the car, at Jeny. She has turned her back to the window but he must still be able to see she is naked.

Jeny, being Jeny cannot resist and dares to turn around to smile at him.

The man walks around the car to try to look at Jeny from all angles. Jeny is wary because of the previous worrying experience, but this guy does not touch the windows or the doors. He seems more than happy to look (who wouldn't?). He then stands at the front of the car. As Jeny is sat in the middle of the rear seat, her naked body can be clearly seen by the guy. Jeny giggles and seems a little embarrassed, at first and her face flushes red. But she brazenly sits there with her legs open, showing her pussy and she does not try to cover her breasts.

The man then walks to the driver's side rear window. The internal blind is up, so Jeny lets it down. The man waves to the camera. He talks to Jeny in Russian and says he only wants to look at her.

He then goes to the opposite rear window. Jeny lets the window down slightly to better talk with him. They talk and Jeny explains she is making a video of her being naked, alone in a car. He says it is enough for him to be able to watch her and he hopes he hasn't scared her. Jeny sets the camera up so it shows as much of her naked body as possible but also showing the man at the rear window. He asks to see her boots so she obliges him by lifting one foot as high as the headrest on the front seat. The man can be seen leaning in to get a better look. I bet he took the chance to get a better look of Jeny's naked body as well! They have been chatting, as if it was normal thing to do. Jeny then shows him the bodysuit she had been wearing and they discuss what it was made off. Jeny allows the man to put his hand through the partially open window to feel it. She now seems comfortable with his presence and is happy that he only wants to look at her. Jeny loves an audience when she is naked! She admits to him as well that she loves being caught naked.

Jeny is now sat in the rear seat right next to the window where the man is. She has been turned on by the situation, so much so, that she now strokes her pussy right in front of the man. As she does so, she sinks down in the seat pushing her open legs and her pussy forward so it is more in the man's sight. She is looking at him and asking him what he is thinking. He says he has never seen a naked stranger.

Jeny is clearly masturbating now. She rubs her pussy and gently smacks it. She opens and closes her legs. Her middle fingers concentrate on stroking her clitoris. All the while she continues to talk with and smile at the man. He tells her she is beautiful.

Suddenly the man walks slightly away from the car before turning around and coming back. He admits he got overexcited. Totally understandable in the circumstances. Jeny glances to her left and must have seen something which causes her to sit up and stop what she was doing. The man asks why Jeny's isn't doing this with her lover. She says she will show the video to him and she is likely to be punished. Jeny says goodbye to the man and he quietly walks away.

At the end Jeny says the man asked for her number but did not make an issue when she said no. She also says her heart was beating very fast in light of what had happened. That is not surprising as her adventures in the back seat of the car were very daring. This video, which is 30:05 minutes long ends with naked Jeny waving us bye bye.

How did she get dressed and back to the front of the car so she could drive off?
