Running time: 31:08 minutes

This video starts with Jeny in the bright sunshine, stood by a large bed of vibrant purple flowers in a park. She is holding the video camera on a selfie stick so initially we see her bright auburn hair tumbling around her shoulders. She is wearing a white lacy top and a white trilby style sun hat. The subtitles tell us she has a rendezvous with Alex. But she then talks in English with her sexy accent (with Russian sub-titles) and tells us that she is going to show us her leggings and the skirt she sewed herself.

She pans the camera down and we see the hint of her nipple behind the material of the top. Then further down, we see she is wearing white linen shorts.

She explains she is going to find a comfortable spot where she can change into her leggings. The camera pans around and we see a number of benches that have been closed off and also the park is near a quite wide river. A boat motors gently by to the left.

We then see Jeny walking down a flight of steps towards the camera (so it presumably means she has now met up with Alex). It is a very pretty scene, enhanced by Jeny's presence in the sunshine. Her nipples can now be seen poking at the material of her top so as usual she isn't wearing a bra. Also, we see she is wearing yellow wedge heeled sandals.

Jeny tells us she has found the spot. There is a vacant bench with a slatted wooden roof in the shadows beneath a canopy of trees. A stocky, bald older man can be seen in the background on another bench, some 30 metres away. She sets her camera up on a stand in front of the bench she proposes to use. She sits down and we see her take her sandals off, then her shorts, first from the front right of her, using the camera operated by Alex...

... and then from directly in front from the camera Jeny has set up.

We then see Jeny start to put on some nude coloured leggings. First she pulls them up her right leg.

Then she puts them on her left leg. She then stands up and pulls the waist band higher and smooths the material down her legs. The material is a heavy denier and quite opaque. There is a prominent seam down the middle.

From the front view, the seam has worked its way between her pussy lips and a hint of landing strip is visible. From the rear view, the curves of her butt cheeks are prominent and the seam has nestled quite nicely in her butt crack!

There is an boarded area in front of the bench where Jeny has been sitting and initially Jeny takes videos of herself in that area. But she soon decides she needs an audience to appreciate her outfit better. So we next see her walking towards the man mentioned before, who is still sat on a neighbouring bench. The area in front of the man is also boarded but it is in the sunshine and leads down to some railings.

We see Jeny parading in that area in front of that man, treating it as a catwalk and giving him a one man clothes show. She flaunts her figure, walking backwards and forwards and leaning over the railing. All the while, Alex has remained out of sight taking videos of Jeny and the man as Jeny also takes selfie videos. Jeny and the man do not speak.

Jeny returns to her own bench and explains that the man has had a look at her leggings and she will now allow him to see her skirt. What skirt? We soon find out. Sat on her bench, Jeny puts on the skirt over her leggings. It is tight and stretchy and seems to be the same colour and Jeny confirms it is made of the same material as her leggings. However the skirt has a slit in it which Jeny has inserted, so she can change the look when wearing it. She can also wear the skirt short or long dependent upon how high she pulls it up. That sounds very interesting!

She soon shows us how it looks when the slit is worn at the front. It is indeed a very interesting look. Not only is her pussy on show but the curves of the dress naturally draw your eyes' attention to it.

Jeny then "models" the look for the camera by first leaning slightly back facing forward with one leg slightly raised...

and then turned away from the camera, legs slightly apart so the sunlight shows off how see-through the material is.

Now it is time to move the fashion show to the catwalk in front of the man. He is still sat on his bench. I suspect that after the first show by Jeny, he was waiting to see if she would provide a follow up. It looks like he won't be disappointed.

Jeny's second show for the man starts off following the same format as the first one. She struts backwards and forwards and once again uses the rails of the barrier as a prop to lean against. This time of course, her pussy is on show every time she turns towards the man. The other difference, we now see the man has his mobile camera out and is taking pictures of Jeny!

Jeny notices what he is doing. She talks to him for the first time and tells him he can take pictures of her. That of course pleases him greatly. She steps towards the man and tells him she has sewn the skirt herself and she was there to take videos of it so she doesn't mind at all if he also takes pictures.

They then have a conversation because the man has noticed that Jeny has changed her clothes and Jeny tells him she thinks it's best to model her clothes outdoors and she might find someone to help her with the video! The man then tells Jeny how he would like her to pose for him in front of the railings. Jeny is relaxed and friendly with him as the man stands up and moves much closer to her.

Member's of Jeny's site will know that Jeny loves an audience (even of just one, as here) and being told how to pose. The man tells her that when she was posed with her back to him he could clearly see through her skirt between her legs. He'd didn't mention though about her see-through top!

Jeny is enjoying herself so much she tells the man she can pose bottomless for him. He is so surprised. But Jeny takes the skirt off right in front of him and happily parades before him showing off her naked pussy and bottom.

She then asks him which of her looks he prefers but quite sensibly he says that you cannot compare them but all of her looks were great.

Jeny notices people coming towards them but she seems not to be perturbed by that. She allows the man to continue taking photos of her. In fact, she lifts her top as well so that the man (and us) get the first look at her breasts. Her nipples are of course perky!

“It feels so good!” says Jeny.

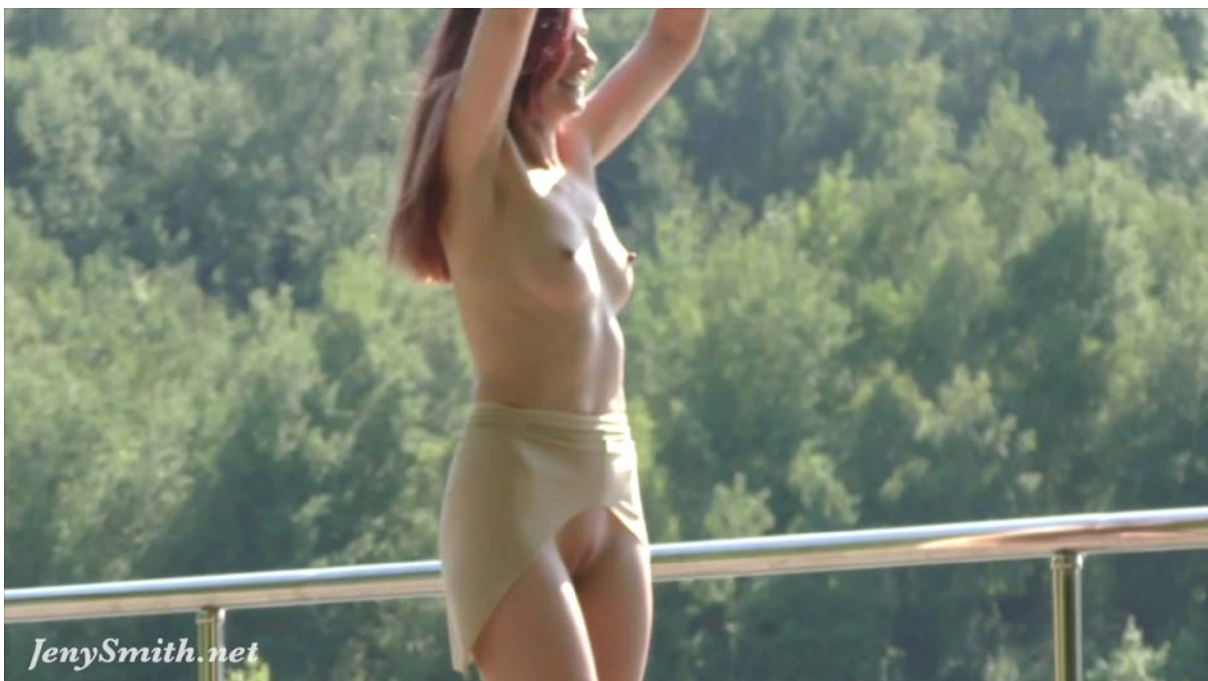

She decides to put her skirt back on, but only so that she can go topless instead. She changes, unashamedly stood just a few feet away from the man. What must he be thinking about this very lucky day for him? This time, at the start, Jeny positions the slit so it is at the side of her skirt, so she’s only showing most of her left thigh with occasional glimpses of her pussy and her naked breasts. But she then shortens the skirt so that her pussy is hardly covered and her breasts and even her tummy button are on show. She moves to the railings once again and the man follows her, standing to the right hand side as he continues taking pictures of her.

The video camera then shows two men in a speed boat powering along the river below the railings. They spot Jeny and turn in towards the shore. The subtitles tells us about the conversation that Jeny then has with the men in the boat which lasts for some minutes. They are trying to pick Jeny up. They offer her a ride in a boat and the man tells her about an island only 5 minutes away where the man and his wife go naked. He offers to show Jeny and for Jeny to meet the wife. She declines all but continues to pose for “her” man as well as now, the two new men in the boat somewhere out of sight of the camera below her. She enjoys herself hugely exhibiting her naked body, for the new and the existing audience.

After a while we can hear the men leave in the speed boat and Jeny waves them off. We next see Jeny dressed again showing her man the leggings that she wore first. We then see Jeny walking towards and then away from the camera with a contented look on her face.

She is wearing the skirt short with the slit on the left so that the whole of her left thigh is on show and the whole of her right inner thigh and her pussy can be glimpsed as she walks.

The final sub-titles tell us that the man did not want his face to be blurred in the video. I can understand why that is. I'm sure he would want to show everyone that he was the lucky man for whom Jeny gave a private catwalk show ending up, for all intents and purposes, naked. Something to brag about.

Footnote: Jeny used the skirt again, but this time she wore it walking out and about in a busy City. It was published on 1 July 2020 and runs for 42:28 minutes. See it here:
