Jeny is registered with a hostess agency, an agency which recruits young and pretty young women for trade shows, for representation needs or even for reception services. And this isn't the first time Jeny is hired for a job. She has already been a hostess for a small car show, a go-go dancer in an atmospheric bar, and an usher for a themed nightclub. This time she was hired for the evening in the team organizing a private party. The night begins to fall. Jeny gets out of her car and quickly walks into the large room where the evening is taking place. She walks quickly because she is afraid of being late. She wears a long wool jacket over a very transparent sequined top and without a bra. Her short shorts are special. These are shorts painted on her naked body. And finally she has her denim thigh-high boots.

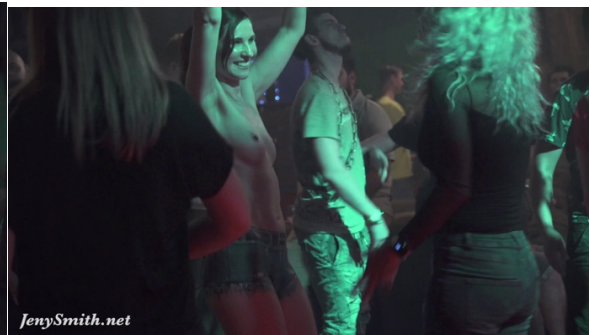

She joins the staff made up of girls and boys hired like her. The manager makes introductions behind the bar and explains to everyone their respective tasks. There are more and more people in the room. There are tables of three or four people, benches around larger tables, a small dance floor, deserted for the moment and a stage where a drum kit, a keyboard and two guitars most certainly await a group of musicians. Once the instructions have been given and the tasks defined, Jeny goes from table to table to bring food and drink to the now numerous and already seated guests. Jeny's wool jacket covers her buttocks so there is no possibility of discovering her secret, the shorts painted on the skin. On the other hand, when she is facing forward, as her jacket is open, we might notice something but no, not for the moment. She goes from the bar to the room and from the room to the bar. In fact, people and staff are more sensitive to her transparent top than to her shorts. Her nipples are quite visible and attract the attention of some.

It is at this moment that she takes off her wool jacket. Jeny is happy and her smile confirms it. Her breasts are very clearly visible under this light sleeveless top. But for the moment it is only his colleagues who benefit from it because the musicians have just settled in and are starting to play. Everyone looks towards the stage. The manager just noticed his shorts but Jeny asks him not to say anything. He smiles and all the staff are now aware. They understood the game well. Behind the bar people only see the top of her body and already attention was growing on her increasingly swollen nipples. After a discussion between Jeny and the staff, with complicity helping, they asked her to go and serve in the dining room to observe people's reactions. Jeny is delighted.

She goes from table to table and the people who see her from the front only pay attention to her breasts which are very visible. But on the other hand when we see her from behind, there is no doubt, the buttocks line reveals her secret. Little by little, people become aware of it and Jeny becomes the queen of the evening. People come to see her, talk to her, want to photograph her and the heat goes up a notch. The evening progresses and the men get closer and closer. The service being almost finished, Jeny leaves to meet the people who call on her. They are curious and ask him about his sexy look and his shorts because now everyone understands, everyone knows. Her breasts, her buttocks, her pussy, her smile, everything is a pretext for conversation.

Jeny is more and more comfortable and even does a few dance steps between the tables because the host of the evening calls into the microphone and invites people to come onto the dance floor. Getting closer to Jeny and still on the microphone, she talks to him about her incredible shorts and what they reveal of her privacy and of course everyone benefits from the exchange between the two women because Jeny does not hide to confess the pleasure she takes in showing off her body and showing off like she does now. This time the one who is not aware is deaf or blind. The guests then become emboldened and many ask to pose for a photo with her, taking her by the waist or by the shoulders. Imperceptibly a few hands wander a little but it remains reasonable. The service is now over and the staff members now have the opportunity to drink and have fun at the end of the evening. So the invitations to have a drink keep coming but Jeny always politely refuses.

Jeny loves to dance. Here she is lured onto the dance floor by the host of the evening who takes her by the hand. The atmosphere is pleasant and Jeny is getting hotter and hotter. Quickly and without hesitation she removes her top. Here she is topless for the greatest pleasure of the audience. With her painted shorts and her breasts exposed for all to see, there are more and more people on the dance floor. And those who don't dance have their smartphone in hand to immortalize the situation. Jeny is having the time of her life and her nipples have never been so erect. More and more often she caresses her breasts carelessly, a sign that she too is becoming aroused.

The manager calls Jeny. She is afraid that he did not like her being topless. No, he asks her if she wants to play a game with two boys. They will be lying on the ground and will have to drink as quickly as possible through a straw a glass that she has placed between her legs. She accepts without problem and to spice things up she announces that the winner will have the chance to wash their shorts. The guys are motivated by what is at stake and the race is close but there is a winner. Is the winner more excited about their victory or the shorts-washing ordeal? Without waiting we bring him a damp towel and he begins to wipe Jeny's hips. All the people are around and applauding. Now the buttocks. He caresses them gently, for a long time and the shorts disappear more and more. Jeny is getting shy now as he approaches the side of her pussy. It is obvious that the guy takes great pleasure in touching Jeny like this. His hand disappears between the thighs, gently, delicately to go up towards the pussy. It was not planned that the loser would also participate in the final game but Jeny said nothing and let herself be touched intimately by the two players. Imperceptibly, Jeny bites her lower lip because a hand begins to clean her pussy, to rub it gently, emphasizing the edges. Forgetting the towel, a finger slips between the lips already swollen with pleasure. The test is now over. Jeny no longer has any shorts. She is completely naked. As she needs to come to her senses, she goes to the dance floor to relax and let her excitement go down.

And this is how this unforgettable evening for some, incredible for others, ends. When he left, the manager offered to hire him full time. She didn't answer and smiled.
