Jeny is registered with a hostess agency, an agency which recruits young and pretty young women for trade shows, for representation purposes or even for hospitality services. This time, Jeny was selected for a mini outdoor car show. The dress code remains free but the instruction is: “sexy”. Jeny arrives with three other young women. The organizers have already installed the cars and the briefing is quick and simple. Stay near cars and let visitors take photos or videos of you. Jeny is by far the sexiest, prettiest and most attractive girl. She wears her denim thigh-high boots, a black leather cap, a black t-shirt with holes and very, very short. The little black panties she chose barely cover her pretty buttocks.

From the path bordering where the cars are located, what we immediately notice are the four young women. Well done organizers. It's 10 a.m., the first visitors enter the enclosure and Jeny is already wearing a huge, radiant smile. There are only men who have just arrived and she intends to compete with the cars.

Despite her already somewhat suggestive poses, men do not yet dare to approach her too closely, do not yet dare to look at her frankly. Her t-shirt, which barely hides her nipples because it is so short, still seems to have an effect. Cameras and smartphones don't just target car curves. And how Jeny doesn't stand still, circling cars, swaying her hips, smiling openly at anyone who takes the opportunity to look at her directly, raising her arms to scratch her nose or put her cap back on and thus offer a view of her pretty breasts for the eyes from everyone who wants it, which emboldens some visitors. Now she poses because photographers and other amateur filmmakers have openly made their choice and cars are already less and less in the foreground. Her little panties wonderfully reveal her plump buttocks and the visual pleasure seems obvious but nothing compares to the little black triangle that barely hides her little pussy which now becomes the main attraction of all the guys present. And when she decides to get behind the wheel of one of the cars at the request of a young man, Jeny offers herself to him and it's not just the man's smartphone that overheats. She is now becoming more and more naughty because people approach her frankly and even ask her for certain poses. She lends herself to this game with such pleasure that her nipples are swollen with happiness and this is noticed by everyone because they are more and more often outside the t-shirt. She even briefly revealed her pussy to please a photographer and her success grew. Now, some even pose with her, going so far as to place a hand on her shoulder, on her hips or even on her thigh. Closer and closer.

The sky is blue, the sun is shining and it's getting hotter. The atmosphere is more and more pleasant, people are respectful and Jeny is very relaxed. Her panties are less and less where they should be and that is why, for everyone's pleasure, she decides to take them off completely. Her buttocks is successful and her landing strip interests more than one person. Moreover, she does not hesitate to bend her back in order to satisfy her ever-growing audience. Of course her tits came out too.

Now a little further away from the crowd, there he is between the last car and the small woods, almost hidden to offer an incredible spectacle to one of his luckiest admirers. Jeny looks him in the eyes, but the guy's gaze is rather attracted by something else. He would really like to touch but here we only touch with the eyes. And this is how this mini but very pleasant car show ends.
