This is one of the videos in the series of psychology tests that Jeny carried out from time to time. She explains at the start of this video, which runs for 41:06 minutes, that she had lined up three guys to take part. However only one guy turned up but Jeny says he was “awesome”. She also raises her eyebrows, very suggestively as she says he was great and she has something crazy lined up for us. What does she mean?

We then see Jeny sat in a mustard yellow armchair on her phone. Her shoulders are bare save for her auburn hair cascading over them. She is wearing a tight white boob-tube which accentuates her breasts and her nipples can be seen poking at the fabric. She is also wearing a figure hugging tight black skirt and her legs are sheaved in sheer black stockings or pantyhose. You cannot tell for sure at that moment. She tells us she is nervous about what will happen.

We then get a look from the side. Her skirt is riding quite high and it looks like she is showing part of her stocking tops. We can also see she is wearing black suede ankle boots which help highlight the curve of her calves. She is showing a lovely expanse of her fabulous thighs. But she thinks that is too much to start so she tries, not really successfully, to pull down the hem of her skirt. She does it first whilst sitting down but then when standing up.

Someone then arrives off to Jeny’s right hand side. She invites him to come in and we then see a man walk into shot and sit in an elaborate wooden sided armchair opposite Jeny’s own seat. They exchange initial pleasantries and Jeny asks the man his name. At that point he goes quiet. When asked by Jeny he explains he doesn’t want to become an internet star!

Jeny is very understanding of his concerns so invites the guy to use a fake name. He asks her to call him Dima, short for Dimitry. He then asks if the interview has begun. Jeny confirms it has and in answer to another of his questions, she confirms that the interview will be videoed.

A few minutes of small talk then take place. Jeny is now quite relaxed and soon Dima seems to relax as well especially after Jeny encourages him to carry out some breathing exercises. She also explains his face will be obscured in the video (he is wearing a medical mask anyway because of covid rules) and they will distort his voice. This seems to comfort him.

Jeny then invites Dima to tell her about his worries. He says he is concerned about the Corona Virus. She spends some minutes and gives some good reasons why he should not be overly concerned. He eventually admits he is also nervous because of the cameras and being in the presence of a beautiful woman! Jeny thanks him for the compliment. After some gentle probing by Jeny, Dima says he is very shy and gets embarrassed around woman. Boy, how must he be feeling now then so close to the beautiful and sexily dressed Jeny?

Jeny then gets to the whole purpose of the video. She explains she is a psychologist, but not the standard type and she follows her own rules. She says her sessions are an experiment but they are not dangerous. Dima says he wouldn't be surprised that Jeny is a rich girl doing this as a hobby. She confirms it is her hobby but she is not rich and she goes to some length to explain she is not a Doctor. Dima says he is even more stressed now because he has admitted to Jeny something that he's not told anyone else, that is, being nervous around girls.

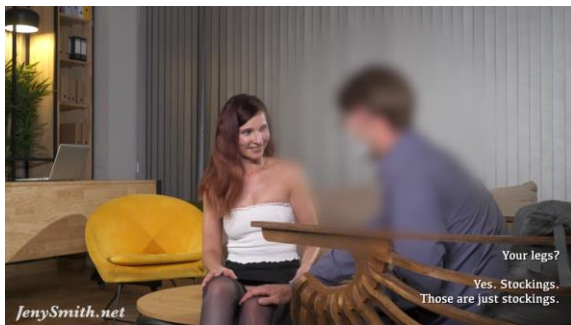

Jeny takes her time gently talking to Dima and he explains more about his bad experiences talking and being with females. Jeny tells him she is sorry to hear about his issues and she has warm and caring feelings for him. At this point he asks to go to the restroom. Jeny hopes he will return and says his story is sad.

A few minutes later he returns having taken some fresh air. They sit opposite each other and start talking again. After a little while, Jeny suggests she could get closer to him to see how he feels, In fact she stands up and walks circling around his chair. Her heels click on the uncarpeted part of the floor and sound to me like a slowly clicking clock. She then circles him the opposite way before standing right at his feet. He says nothing so Jeny asks if he is speechless. Dima says he liked it when Jeny was close behind him. Jeny explains she has carefully chosen her outfit that day. Dima admits he feels sexually excited. So, Jeny is finally starting to weave her magic effect on him. Who could resist?

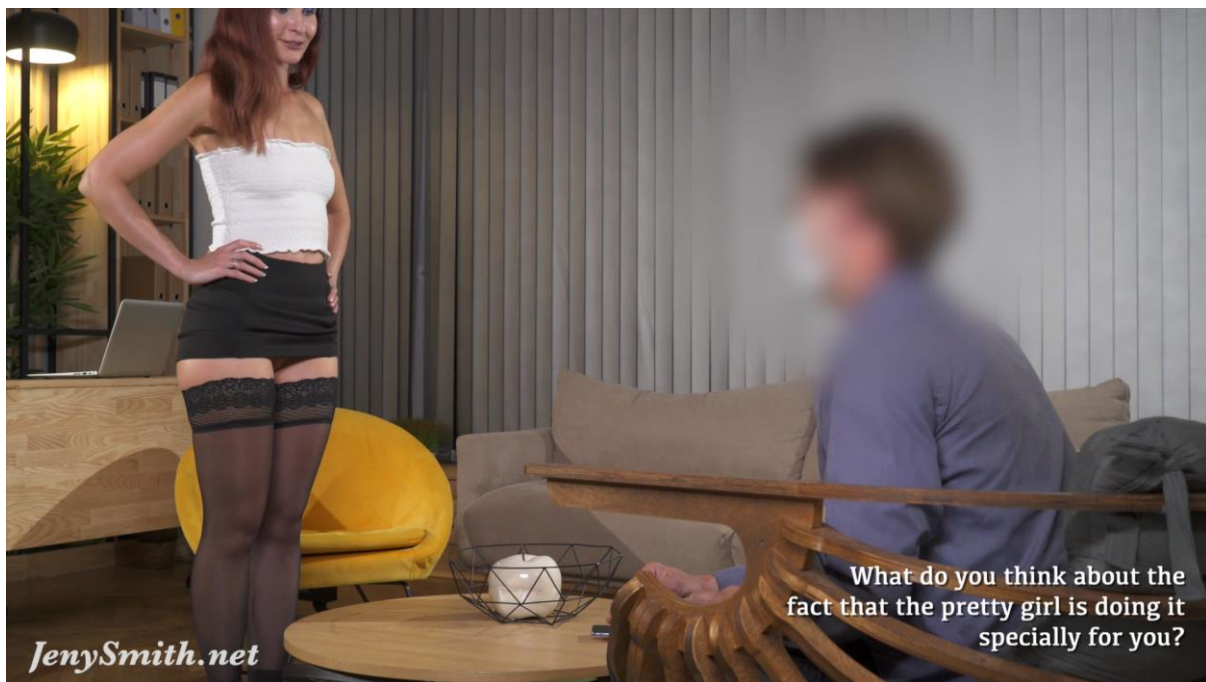

Jeny decides to gently apply some pressure on Dima's feelings. She sits on a low coffee table, close to and facing him. She asks him how it feels to have a pretty girl looking at him. He says he feels a little shy but Jeny looks so sexy. She leans in closer and touches his leg causing him to jump a little. She then strokes his hands which are resting on his own legs. You can feel the sexual tension rising as Jeny starts up her tease mode.

Dima is told he may be looking for the wrong type of girl. How would he feel if he had a girl who could give pleasurable experiences? Jeny turns sideways on to Dima and crosses her legs. Her stocking tops are visible but Jeny points it out anyway and strokes her leg. She tells him his eyes are now wide open but he confirms he still wants to go on. (He would have been extremely foolish to have stopped then – wouldn't he?).

Jeny has pulled the hem of her skirt up so the milky white of her fabulous thighs are on show. She tells Dima it is now the right time for him to stroke her legs and in fact she picks up his hand to place on her leg. He admits he has never before stroked a lady's stockinged leg. She tells him the colour of his shirt really suits him, which seems to boost his confidence. She raises her left leg giving him the chance to stroke the whole of her leg.

She then stands up, at first standing back but then moving closer. She has pulled the hem of her skirt up and more of her thighs are now on show. In fact, whoa, her pussy can now be seen! She asks Dima if she should pull her skirt down but (good man) he tells her to keep it up. Dima seems to be growing in confidence now and admits he is sexually excited (who wouldn't be?) and he is now leaning forward, towards Jeny.

She turns around. Her butt is exposed only inches from him. She asks how it looks but he is not sure what she is referring to so Jeny confirms she is asking about her butt. He tells her he has always loved bubble butts and she has one big beautiful butt. Go Dima!

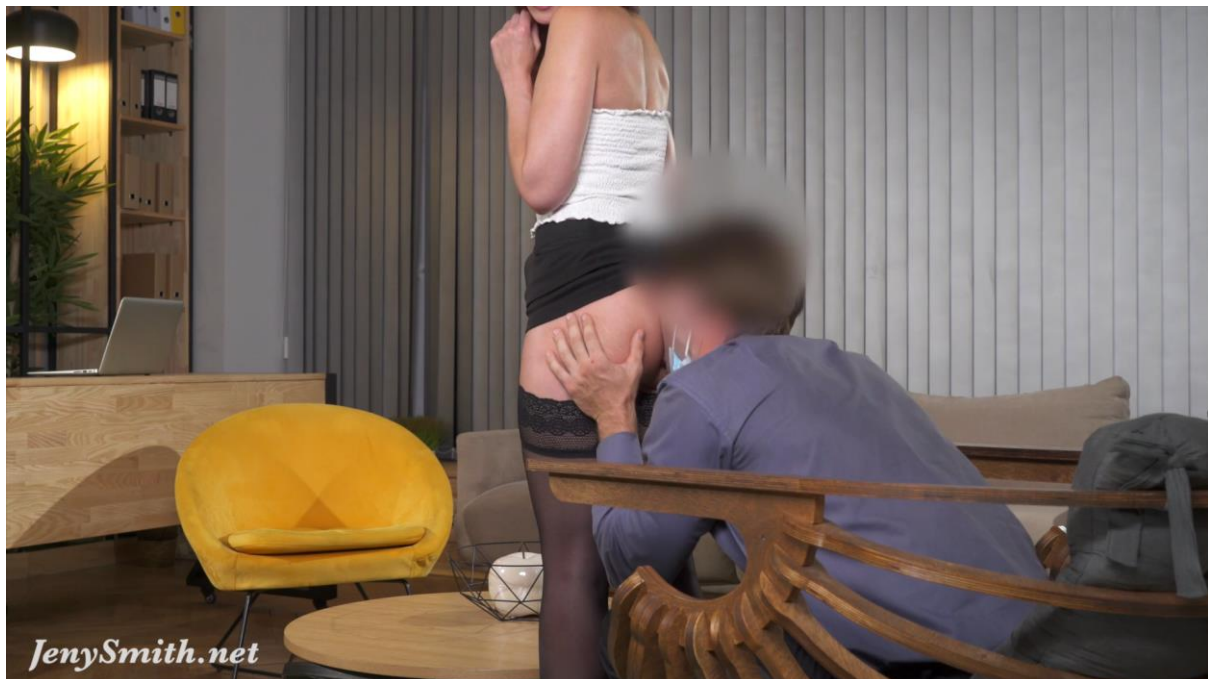

She invites him to touch her. He asks what and she confirms he should start on the stockings. His hands wander to her bare thigh above the stocking top and she says it is a magical feeling, the line above the stockings and the bare skin. I wouldn't disagree with her.

Dima thought girls didn't wear stockings in real life, only for photos. He has led a sheltered life hasn't he? Jeny has now moved to Dima's right hand side and perches on the arm of the chair. Her pussy can now be clearly seen. She asks if he is stressed but he says he is now finding the experience pleasurable. Jeny tells him it is her rule in life to only do what she finds pleasurable. So just what has Jeny got in mind now? We soon see, she plans to tease Dimi even more. She rubs her leg along his leg. She allows him to stroke her bare thigh again and his fingers trail over her outer pussy lips. Dima's confidence must be growing.

At that point Jeny notices, so tells Dima, that she can see he is stroking his cock (presumably subconsciously) with his left hand, whilst his right hand is stroking Jeny's thigh. She assures him she is happy that this is a sign that he is no longer shy in her presence. He admits he is now taking the chance offered to him. He then gently strokes Jeny's outer pussy lips with his right hand.

Jeny turns around and bends slightly forward and offers her butt to him. He takes the chance and fondles and squeezes it and pulls her cheeks apart. She is gently talking to him then poses the question – "how far can you go here?" We may soon find out as he asks if he can kiss it. Jeny says yes but he should keep his mask on. So he tries kissing both butt cheeks but can only nuzzle them.

Dima asks if he can remove the mask. Jeny seems unsure at first but then lets him remove it. She tells him to do it gently as she is getting shy. Emboldened now, Dima kisses both cheeks with relish. But then he pulls both cheeks apart and he must have been able to get his tongue or lips to Jeny's butt hole as she tells him, that is enough. She seems slightly flustered.

Jeny composes herself and turns around to face him. "But I haven't shown you everything. I like to do this", she says. With that, she pulls her top up, fully exposing her beautiful breasts and her nipples look hard. She has a grin on her face.

She then walks away from him, giving him the chance to fully appreciate the beautiful sexy woman standing in front of him. However, within seconds, Jeny is standing right in front of Dima again. Her feet are apart. Her skirt is raised so her pussy is on show. Her top is up so her breasts and nipples are thrust towards Dima. All this Dima can clearly see and all just inches from his touch. She says "I think you will stop being scared of pretty girls after this!"

To make sure he fully appreciates what is happening, Jeny sways and gyrates her body and thrusts her butt towards him so he gets a real good look between her legs. Jeny tells him she is very generous. He is sat, very still in the chair, his hands clasped firmly together. He responds by saying her would love to visit Jeny's sessions every day. Wouldn't we all?!

"And the last thing", says Jeny. She is stood in front of Dima. She bends forward with her arms on the back of his chair. Her face is inches from his. What next? She leans forward and smothers his face with her breasts! She trails her nipples backwards and forwards across the mask on his face. They are so hard and perky. The mask has dropped slightly and Dima has the chance, which he takes, to nuzzle her right nipple.

With that Jeny returns to her own seat, having pulled both her skirt and her top down. So, she is now modestly but still very sexy dressed. She asks Dima what his feelings are now. He responds by saying he thinks that after his experience with Jeny, he should feel more confident with other women. Jeny bolsters those feelings by telling him to remember he is a handsome young man.

At that point it looks like the session might have finished. But, Jeny notices he is still looking at her legs. He tells her that her stockings are awesome (they are). Jeny responds by saying she likes it when a man gets on his knees in front of her. I think to myself, surely that's an invitation and what will Dima do with it? Full of new confidence, he tells Jeny he is ready to kiss her legs non-stop. She tells him to do so.

The next few minutes were wonderful for Dima (and pretty good for viewers). He is on his knees in front of Jeny, kissing her legs. He pulls his mask down and then pecks the thigh on Jeny's left leg. That's all he does but Jeny tells him he can do more. So he does. He kisses all the way down to the ankle on Jeny's left leg. He then returns to the top of her leg and is allowed to kiss above the top of Jeny's stocking. His kisses become longer, lingering over the bare flesh.

Up until this point, Jeny's legs have been together. Now she parts her legs by raising her right leg up and onto the arm of the chair. What is even better is she invites him to look "there" whilst he is kissing. Where? Only at her pussy! Dimi seizes the chance with relish as he moves his kisses towards Jeny's inner thighs meaning he gets a far better look at Jeny's pretty pussy, which is then only inches from his lips.

Jeny tells him she is getting confused and from her look, she is also getting flustered again. To calm things down, she closes her legs and tells Dimi to go back to kissing her legs. However, she leans back in the chair and raises her legs onto the low table in front of her. Dimi's confidence has grown. Whilst kissing the lower inside part of Jeny's calve he uses his right hand to caress the inner part of her thigh. The side of his hand rubs up and down Jeny's pussy lips. She tells him he had told her he was inexperienced with women! He's now showing he knows a thing or two about gentle foreplay!

Again Jeny says she is confused and she does look flustered. He apologizes for his actions but is told by Jeny that he can do as much as a woman allows him to do. He returns to his chair. They then talk for some minutes about what has taken place. Dimi must be feeling confident about things as he asks if he can see Jeny naked for the last time! Of course she obliges.

She stands up a few feet in front of him. First she hitches up her skirt to show her pussy. Then she pulls up the bottom of her blouse so her breasts are naked. He turns the tables on Jeny asking her how she feels standing naked in front of someone she doesn't really know. She admits she enjoys seeing a man's eyes shining, as she sways and turns showing off her body in all its glory.

Dima cannot believe his luck and he insists that Jeny pinches him to prove he is not dreaming. She steps towards him, leans forward and gently, pinches his arm. He now firmly realizes it is not a dream. He tells Jeny and shows her that he is shaking so much. Being very caring she tells him he will need to calm down before he leaves. She composes her skirt and top to cover herself and sits down. He asks if he should leave now and after Jeny agrees, he stands up and exits left. But, when he is off camera he asks Jeny if they can meet for coffee. Jeny declines of course and he comments that his invites usually gets rejected. Jeny explains the reason here was because she is married and he should not feel too downhearted.

When he has left, Jeny sits closer to the camera and explains it was a nice experience for her but she can't believe she allowed things to go that far. But she wasn't sorry she did it and she felt it would help Dima in the future. I'm sure she is right but anyway, what a fabulous memory for Dima to look back on as one of the growing troupe of people Jeny has helped with her sexual psychology experiments.
