An Experiment

There is a saying "When the cat's away, the mice will play". That is the story behind this photoshoot.

Jeny had met an artist who told her that he did "experimental photography." He explained that he used a video camera and then, from the video files he took screenshots. He reckoned that way he could capture moments that normal cameras might miss.

He offered to photograph Jeny in that way (of course he did). Jeny agreed to his offer (of course she did).

So, one day Alex was out of town on business and Jeny went on her own to the photo session with the photographer. She tells us in her commentary to the pictures, that he seemed very nice and she had a good chat with him at the start. She was shy at first and had to undress in front of him. But keen Jeny followers will know that often when Jeny feels shy, she gets tremendously turned on.

That is exactly what happened here. She tells us that her favorite moment was when she spread her legs very wide to expose her pussy to him for the first time. She also says that because he had a mobile phone instead of a normal camera, it felt like it was when she started posing for the first time. She was so turned on in fact that during this set she got very, very wet. So much so that she had to use a towel part way through to dry her legs! You can see from the photos (and the video) that Jeny really enjoyed herself and gave the photographer (and us viewers) an extremely erotic experience putting all her skill and experience into posing and showing off all parts of her fabulous body.

Most of the posing was indoors in a room where music classes took place. Jeny even gets to play a piano that was in the room. There are 179 pictures. Most are shot on a mobile phone in portrait mode without any separate lighting so Jeny admits the quality isn't great. They are certainly not anywhere near the standard that Alex normally gives us. However, don't let that put you off. There are also some pictures taken by Jeny's camera that she positioned nearby on a stand. There are also a number shot outside so the lighting is better and Jeny is her usual daring exhibitionist self.

You will see from the collage of photos that Jeny has an edgy look. Black leather jacket, black leather thigh high boots, softened by a black lacy suspender/garter belt. You will also see she did not hold back in her poses despite her being videod by a new guy!

There is also the video of the shoot on Jeny's site as well but for some reason it is not linked to the photos. It was published the next day on 21 April 2021 and is 28:48 minutes long. So a double whammy of Jeny experimenting! Do check them both out!
