

Review for photoshoot "Chess"

Tags: Chess; Published: September 01th, 2021

When Jeny found this dress in a store, she immediately loved it. When she got home, the first thing she did was unsew the lining. The dress is now very sheer and Jeny loves it. A little walk in nature, a little exhibition on a dirt road then along the Moscow and our goddess is happy with the insistent gaze of the people she meets. It's her smile that tells us that.
