

Review for video “Car Rental with Driver”

This video starts with a close up of Jeny’s pretty face as she is being driven as a passenger in a car. She tells us that the video we are about to watch isn’t of her. Instead it is of her twin sister Mary (otherwise her alter ego). She winks at the camera. Keen follower’s of Jeny’s videos will know that Mary often gets up to very naughty things. Hopefully this all means we have a real treat of a video to enjoy.

The video proper starts. The next shots show Mary outside. She is wearing a red and black top coat. She is wearing a black fedora type hat and black fingerless gloves. There is deep snow at the side of the road. She explains they have hired a car with a driver. She also says Alex and her have come up with a script. He will pretend to be drunk, he will sexually harass her, she will flirt with the driver and they will see what else develops. It all sounds very exciting.

Mary does a twirl for the camera to show off her attire and her fabulous legs. She is wearing a very short tight miniskirt. We cannot yet see if she is wearing pantyhose or stockings but her legs are highlighted by black high heeled ankle boots.

We then see her helping “drunk” Alex across a car park and he collapses into the back of a car. Mary gets into the back as well from the opposite side. The action is being videoed by a camera on a selfie stick. It is turned around to show the driver climbing into the driver’s seat. Mary explains she is filming to show her partner how badly he has been, getting drunk on their date. The driver agrees she can place her camera on its mount on the armrest at the side of the his seat.

The car sets off. Quickly we establish two things: Mary is wearing stockings; she is not wearing panties. We get our first “upskirt” shots as well as the first glimpse of landing strip. The camera also picks up and shows us the driver’s reactions in the bottom right of the screen. We see the driver turns around and we see his eyes looking downwards to get his first look between Mary's legs. He is sure to give her much closer attention now.

Mary explains she is taking Alex home before she goes shopping. She is getting hot so she unbuttons her coat.. Alex has until now, been slumped against the door. He now reaches around with his right arm to grope Jeny's leg. He then shoves his hand between her legs. Subtitles appear to say Alex will now pretend to sexually harass her. The games begin.

The next scenes are of Alex sat up, groping Mary even more. His hands go between her legs. He then tries to undo the popper buttons of her light brown shirt. Mary seems annoyed. The driver turns around and we see his eyes looking down towards Mary's legs.

Alex squeeze's Mary's breasts through her shirt. The shirt is partially opened. Alex gets his hand inside first to squeeze the righr breast, then to pop it into the open. He paws and squeezes it. The breast and nipple can clearly be seen.

Alex's attention switches to Mary's legs. He parts them with his hand and shoves it between them. We see the driver turn around and once again his eyes stare down. Alex returns to squeezing the right breast. He also pinches it's nipple. Mary is smiling. Alex then spreads Mary's legs again and fingers the pussy between them. Once again, the driver turns around and we see him have a lingering look at the action.

After a few seconds, Mary gets fed up aith Alex's groping and fumbling. She asks the driver to help her move him. The driver reaches back and with one arm, pushes Alex aside. As he glances back again, he sees Mary fastening her shirt.

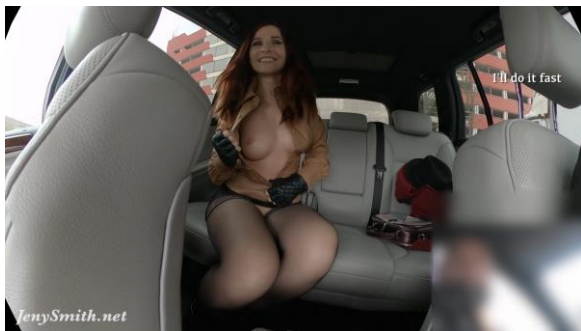

Alex is slumped against the side of the car. Mary talks with the driver complaining that he often gets drunk and treats her badly. Her legs arer parted. The camera shows between her legs the same view as the one the driver must get when he turns around. The talk continues for a while. Mary moves towards the middle of the back seat and raises her left leg. She then starts playing with her pussy whilst talking with the driver, just like it's the most normal thing to do! She continues doing so for more than a minute.

After a short while the car stops. We see Alex getting out of the car. We then see Mary getting back into the car, alone. She explains to the driver she is going to continue filming to show she went out alone. Within a very short while, she parts her legs and starts fingering her pussy. A subtitle tells us there is a camera in the back of the front seat pocket live streaming the events to Alex.

Mary complains she is feeling car-sick. So the driver stops for her to sit for a while until she feels better. They talk about things and her coat comes off. She pretends to be sad and then angry about the situation with Alex. Mary cleverly then switches the topic to talking about her breasts (what a lovely topic). She pretends Alex is unhappy with them and that he wants her to get implants. (Who in their right mind would want those lovely pert but soft natural breasts filled with silicone – not me for one?).

Mary wants to know the driver's independent opinion of her breasts (lucky guy). She offers to show them. He says it would be difficult to judge their stiffness just by looking (clever guy). She quickly pulls apart the poppers of her shirt and is sat at the front of the rear seat, so he can have a better look. He says "those are pretty awesome breasts" but he says he cannot talk about their feel without touching them (a very clever guy).

Mary cups her breasts (which she also calls "her girls") before offering the driver the chance to feel them. Of course he does (very lucky guy) by reaching backwards from the driver's seat.

After an amusing discussion about “the girls” Mary suggests the driver should join her on the rear seat to talk further (which he does, of course) and to have a better feel of her breasts.

The final few minutes of this video show the driver was really thorough in his evaluation of the wonderful breasts presented to him. He also got the chance to explore her gorgeous legs. As if that was not enough, Mary decides she has been so naughty that she needs to be punished by being spanked by the driver. She also says that it must be videoed so that she can show Alex both that she was naughty without him, but also properly punished.

The pictures that accompany this review are just a taster, but you really should watch the full video to see just what happened. Mary liked the driver and thought he was nice so he was given the chance to grope, pet and spank her. He was oh so lucky and had a chance in a million encounter that day. He had an experience he will surely never forget. The video is 28:18 minutes of the highest quality erotic teasing.
