Running time: 21 minutes 04 seconds

The weather is not pretty, Jeny tells us from inside her car. Her appointment with a "victim" is postponed. This video will allow us to accompany Jeny for the renewal of her wardrobe. And we'll be with her all the way to the fitting rooms. Excitement guaranteed.

Jeny has arrived. She takes off her raincoat. Wow! She's naked. Just self-fixing stockings. She tries on a white shirt and we enjoy the view through the mirrors.

Jeny is in another cabin. It is closed by a curtain. She tries on a kind of denim bra that she will later use to trap a victim during a date in the woods.

Jeny opens the curtain a little from time to time, she's playful. This time she tries on a pink button-down mini skirt, puts on a white top and goes out into the hallway. Her nipples are perfectly visible and she spreads the flaps of her skirt to show off her landing strip. Has she been seen? Certainly. This skirt will also be used later for a surprise video.

She now puts on a pair of pink leggings and heads back down the hallway. There are people around her. Sure, she's been spotted. By the way, when she goes back to her cabin and is naked again, she notices that a guy is looking at her through the many mirrors because of course Jeny leaves her curtain very slightly open.

New store, new cabin. This time she tries on a yellow jacket and then a strange black tunic open on the sides. Jeny goes out into the hallway. You can see her buttocks through the indentations and her breasts too when she leans forward. She plays with it and is quickly spotted.

Shopping is complete. We now see her in the shopping arcade, sitting on a bench. Discreetly, as if it were nothing, she opens her legs and shows her pussy to anyone who want to look.

Spotted again, she returns to her car in the underground car park. But she decides to play one last time before going home. She opens her raincoat wide and we once again enjoy her beautiful naked body. She dances to the sound of music coming out of the speakers. A man sitting in his car looks at her from the beginning but she doesn't know it. Finally, the guy decides to approach. Jeny is surprised and quickly closes her raincoat. They exchange a few words. The guy is so friendly that Jeny passes the camera to him. What a lucky man.

Now it's time to go. See you soon.
