

Review for video “Blindfolded by Darkness”

Running time: 56.05 minutes

The video starts in dramatic fashion. Music throbs from the speakers. Jeny appears wearing just stockings and a suspender belt. She is in front of what seems to be a wall of windows and the light from them is very bright. Her body gyrates in front of the camera in a wavy double image.

She runs her hands through her hair, cups her breasts and pinches her nipples. Blimey, what a start!

Seconds later, the music stops. A head and shoulders shot of Jeny appears.

She is now wearing what seems to be a white blouse under a dark jacket. She explains this will be a reload of her psychology experiment. She will do everything agreed with the members in a room with no windows (so my assumption was wrong, they were light panels) and there will be complete darkness.

Jeny then leads a guy into the room. Her heels click on the floor as she walks. He sits on an upright white wooden chair. Jeny sits opposite him but in a more comfortable armchair which is lower to the ground. We see the view from a fixed position camera.

She explains to him she is an experimental psychologist and she will be running a test about perceptions. Jeny finds out his name is Max. She explains he just needs to sit there and listen to his feelings. He must also wear the mask she provides to cover his eyes. He puts it on.

They talk about how he is feeling. Max tells Jeny she is beautiful and he would enjoy looking at her for longer but he is now wearing the mask! Jeny tells him to remove the mask to look at her for a while longer, which of course he does. Max is a bit of a smooth talker and says Jeny reminds him of someone – some movie star. He once again says she is so beautiful.

Max says he feels nervous, like he was before a doctor. Jeny assures him she won't be carrying out any physical experiments. He explains he once had a broken jaw and still gets nervous about it. But talking with Jeny calms him down and he soon puts the mask back on so that he cannot see her. They agree to start Jeny's experiment!

Jeny explains she will walk around and sometimes she won't talk to him. Max has to listen and imagine! (So what would you imagine if you were sat in Max's place wearing a mask, alone in a room with Jeny?).

Jeny stands up. She says she is warm and she is going to take her coat off, which she does.

(Every time she moves on the floor her heels click. Such an exciting noise (or is that just me?). Underneath her coat she has a crisp white shirt/dress with a wide black belt. Her outfit looks almost medical (like a nurse's tunic), were it not for fact it is so short and her stocking tops are clearly visible... and those black high heels clicking on the floor.

She asks Max what he thinks she is wearing under the coat. He correctly says black heels (because he's already seen them) but otherwise guesses wrong because he thinks she would be dressed for the office like a doctor.

Jeny picks up her mobile phone camera which is on a selfie stick and walks away, to the left of the screen. She uses the camera on the selfie stick to take a video of her, particularly shots from low down.

She returns to her armchair to kneel on it and pokes her butt out towards Max. The fixed position camera picks up the glint of something in her butt.

Using her selfie stick Jeny then takes a glorious close up of her butt. There it is, in all its twinkling glory a pink heart shaped butt plug!!!

Jeny uses the selfie camera to take various close up shots of her pussy, her butt and also as she adjusts her hair.

All this just a few feet away from Max sitting patiently on his chair with no idea of what is happening save for the swishing noise made by Jeny's outfit and the clicking of her heels on the floor. Does he have any idea what Jeny is doing?

Jeny then moves off screen to “find something”. There is some rustling from a bag and then the selfie camera shows Jeny holding something pink. Then we see a slightly smirking Jeny holding in her hand before her face a large pink dildo!

It must be the soft, rubbery kind as it wobbles as she moves it!

Jeny returns to her armchair but doesn't sit down. Instead she moves around with the selfie stick in one hand and the pink dildo in the other. She moves close to Max and teasingly touches his hand with the dildo. Max thinks he's been touched by Jeny's fingers because it felt what touched him was cold and he says girl's hands are always cold. Jeny admits her arms are always cold.

Jeny sits down into her armchair. Her heels are planted on the floor but her knees are open. She videos herself with the selfie stick as she puts the tip of the dildo into her mouth.

When asked, Max admitted he got excited when Jeny had moved close to him. While she is talking Jeny is licking and sucking the dildo. There is a particularly loud slurping noise which Max hears. He wants to know what the noise was. Max (rather amusingly) think Jeny is eating something! Max admits he liked the feeling when Jeny got close to him. He says it felt intimate and he became excited (a totally understandable feeling).

Jeny stands up and walks around Max again. Her heels click on the floor. She adopts various poses close to Max including one where she pretends to give the dildo a blow-job as she is bent over him.

Jeny returns to her armchair. Her heels click on the floor. She continues to suck on the dildo. Max admits he has no idea what is going on. He tries to find out by asking various questions but Jeny doesn't tell him. He tells her she is a typical woman who doesn't tell much. Now Jeny starts tapping her pussy with the dildo.

She slouches down in the chair and raises both her knees. We get a sexy close up shot of her pussy with the butt-plug clearly seen. At that point Max thinks Jeny has used some type of cream. He heard a sound, he says, just like you get when girls rub their hands with cream. (He must have heard the noise made by Jeny gently slapping her pussy with the dildo).

Just a few seconds later he says once again she has put cream on something! But he also now says the sounds are so erotic. I think that at that point Max clearly thinks Jeny is doing something naughty (which of course she is, but he cannot see what is happening). He next says he heard sounds just like you would when a woman gives a man oral sex. "Wow" says Jeny.

Jeny then gets up to walk off screen. We see her switch off the lights. For a couple of seconds the screen is totally dark. The picture then switches to the static camera which is in low light mode so we see the picture of Max still sat on his chair quite clearly but in a ghostly grey hue. She uses the light from her phone to return to her armchair. She explains to Max what she has done.

She then stands again and moves towards the static camera (her heels still clicking on the floor). She removes her skirt/dress so we get to see most of her fabulous body, naked except for the stockings and suspenders as the low light camera shows it. But to top that, she turns around facing away from the camera and bends over.

You see her glorious butt close up. The butt-plug glitters even more invitingly using the low light camera. You are such a tease Jeny!

So, at this point there are about 33 minutes of the video to go. Jeny is now "Blindfolded by Darkness". Just like Max she cannot see clearly what is going on. She also allows him to remove the mask he is wearing so they are both in the same situation. After a while they both get accustomed to the dark. At times she teases Max by getting very close to him (so the sound of her heels clicking on the floor is often heard). She gets to use the dildo properly and he is lucky enough to be allowed to get really close to her. She also allows him to check out the thing he can see glittering in the dark!

You must look at the video yourself to see what really happened in the darkness. I've included some "teaser" photos shot with the low light camera.

The low light pictures are fairly clear, although from time to time a red light blinks somewhere in the room which disturbs the picture balance. (It was not seen by Jeny or Max, but it was picked up by the low light camera).

Footnotes:

1. During early September 2021, Jeny had come up with an idea for her next video where, rather than wear a mask so he could not see her, her victim would instead be sitting very close to her, but in darkness. It would mean using the I.R camera. In her blog she asked the site members to vote on her idea and those that did, voted overwhelmingly in favour of the idea.
2. Jeny first posted 28 pictures from this shoot on her site on 8 September 2021. The video and the photos are not linked on Jeny's site, but the photos can be seen here: <https://jenysmith.net/gallery/8467490/preview-psychologist-in-the-completely-dark-room>
3. A short preview for this video was then released on Jeny's site on 10 September 2021, You can find it with this link: <https://jenysmith.net/scene/8469690/psychologist-intro>
