

Review for video “A Close Friend”

Tags: friends, stockings, blindfolded; Published: 7 October 2021

This video runs for 45:24 minutes. It takes place in a studio which has been dressed to look like a man’s clothing shop. The shelves and cupboards are back-lit and there is a dark shiny tiled floor.

Jeny is wearing a short black skirt with a white short-sleeved shirt. Her legs are encased in either sheer stockings or pantyhose (it’s not yet clear which) and she wears black high heeled shoes. Her hair is worn in a pony-tail and she’s wearing dangly earrings. She looks very professional. But still she’s looking very, very sexy. I hope she won’t mind me saying, but her body is also a little curvier.

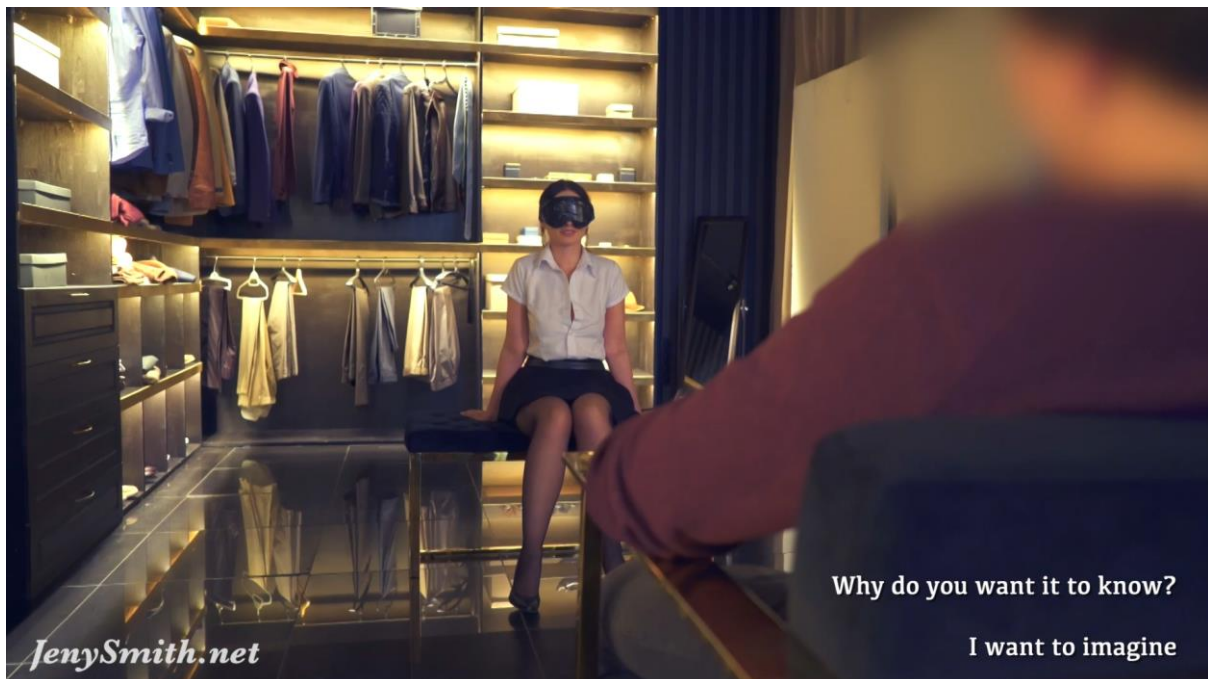

She has a nervous smile on her face. We hear Alex’s voice and sub-titles tell us, he is asking her why that is. She explains something new and intriguing is happening, but she doesn’t know what. So, this is an idea of Alex’s. We are then told today, Jeny is to be blindfolded (sounds very interesting).

Alex then asks Jeny if she has given any thought to the sort of guys she is going to meet and if they will be young or old. She replies: “Young – good; mature – perfect; seniors – the best”. (3 cheers say I, as a senior).

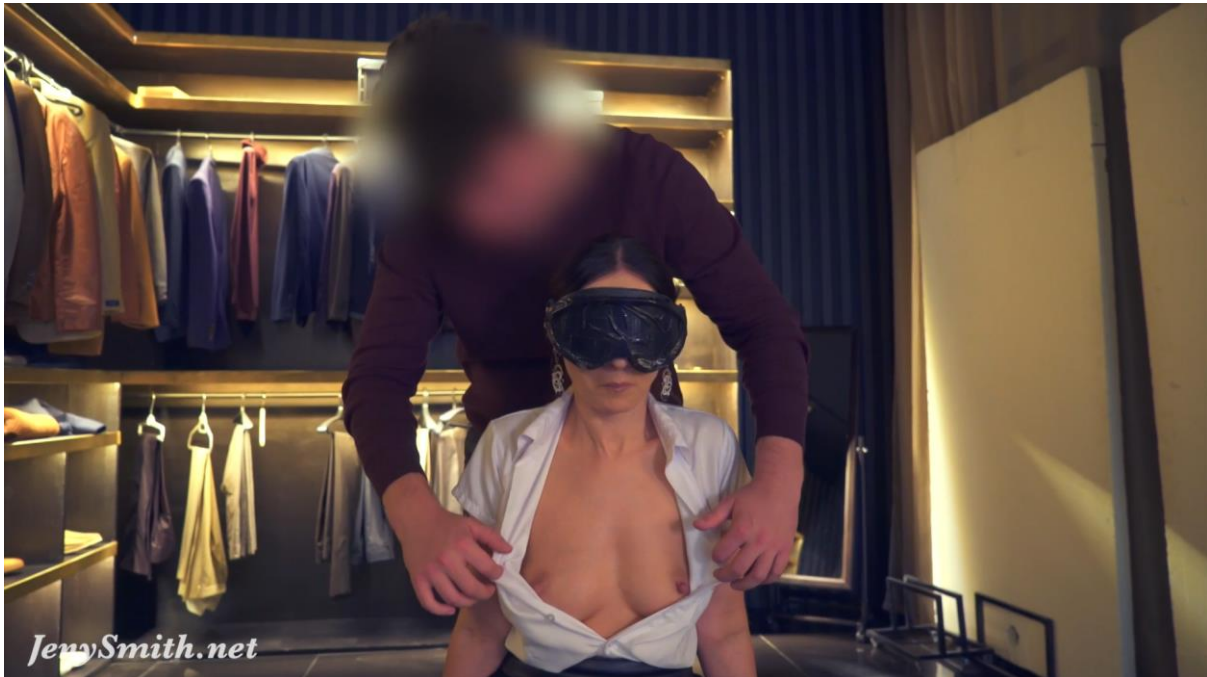

We then see Jeny sat on a long padded stool. A man has walked quietly in and he is sat in a chair opposite Jeny, facing her. The guest's face is blurred. We now can see Jeny is wearing a very unflattering pair of ski-goggles that have been masked with black tape.

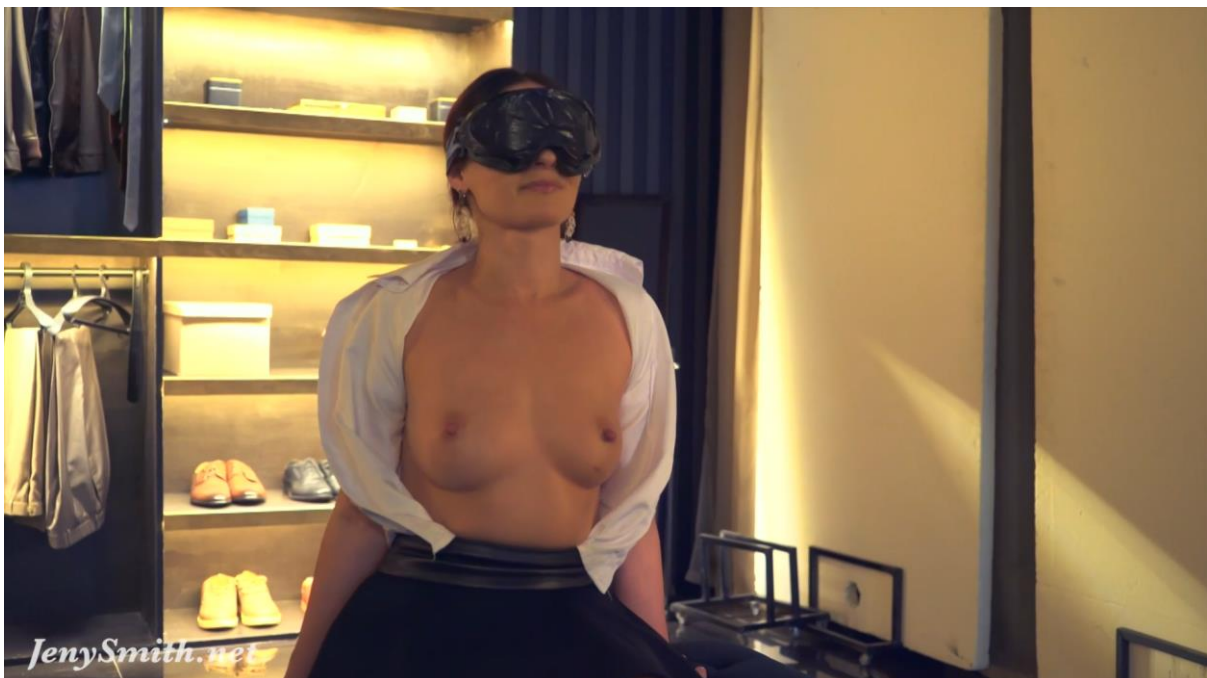

Jeny wants to know where he is and asks if he is seated or stood up. Alex tells her very little except that she knows the guest well! We then see that this video is going to be one of "His Order" videos, but with the difference that Alex will be telling not only Jeny what to do, but also the guest. He tells the guest to stand behind Jeny and to undo one of the buttons on her shirt. He does so, (I'm sure very willingly).

We get a first, all but brief look at Jeny's glorious breasts. Jeny is wondering who the guest is. Alex only says he is a very old friend whom Jeny knows well.

The shirt has closed to cover Jeny's breasts, so the guest is told to open the shirt wider. He does so happily. This time Jeny flicks her nipples to make sure they are at their perkiest.

Alex asks Jeny how she is feeling. She says she is mad at Alex because he did not ask her if she minded the guest undoing her clothes and how she would feel in this situation. He replies "For some reason, I think you will like it". We shall see (although I also think she will like it).

After some talking, Jeny is told to kneel on the stool she has been sitting on. But instead, Jeny gets up to walk cautiously toward the guest. She sits on his lap. Jeny is starting to enjoy the situation now and she wants to take some control. This is likely to get very interesting! We can also now see to the rear of the seated guest, a double bed in the other part of the studio.

The guest is told to hug her and fondle her (avoiding her intimate areas). Jeny is asked if she has any clues about the identity of the guest – she doesn't.

The guest helps lead Jeny back to the stool to sit down. The view from her rear shows sexy seams on the coverings on her leg, so she's probably wearing stockings. She sits down and Alex tells her to act like Sharon Stone. In front of one of her good friends! She crosses and uncrosses her legs and parts them slightly. This confirms she is indeed wearing stockings.

The guest is told to caress Jeny's legs. He does so very enthusiastically whilst stood in front of her.

He also kneels on the floor at her feet. His hands wander all up and down those magnificent legs for the next couple of minutes. Lucky, lucky guest.

Jeny is told she has been a bad girl and a bad housewife in front of the guest and she deserves to be punished. Jeny knows how. Without being told, she stands up to turn around to finally kneel on the stool. Her magnificent butt and pretty pussy can finally be seen. The view of her butt has been enhanced (for my taste) by seeing her suspender belt straps stretched over and pressing slightly into the flesh of her butt and thighs.

It gets better. Jeny says " Guest, spank me please". What an invitation (the first of a few times he gets to do that). Jeny's commands continue: "Guest, you can do it harder. Yes, now fondle me". Blimey! Jeny's butt cheeks soon start to turn a rosy red!

Then even more commands from Jeny: "The guest can take my shirt off. Take it off"! He happily complies. Then her skirt comes off. She stands naked in front of him, apart from stockings, suspender belt and high heels. She asks him to sit down and she then sits, once again on his lap.

She takes his hand and rubs it over her body. She talks to him trying to get him to talk to her but Alex has briefed him to remain quiet during the task. She asks him if he is embarrassed.

She stands in front of him facing him. She leans forward and trails her nipples across his face not knowing if she is touching his cheeks, his nose or his lips. Whilst doing this, she cleverly runs her hands over his hair and along his face and shoulders. She reckons she has narrowed down the field of possible suspects, because she now knows his hair covers his ears and he is clean shaven.

Co-incidentally, it was around this point that a close-up of Jeny's body shows us that Jeny's pussy was bald, with no landing strip!

Jeny stands up with her back towards her guest. Her butt is mere inches away from the guest. Her butt cheeks can still be seen glowing red.

She takes his hand and moves it to her butt. He gropes it. She feels his hand and says it feels small. This time, Alex tells the guest to spank her, as she has been naughty. He starts on her left butt cheek. Jeny grabs his right hand and gets it to work on her right butt cheek as well. "Harder" she says.

Stepping away slightly from the guest but then turning around to face him, Jeny exclaims she has one more thing she has forgotten to put on. Alex's hand passes her a small velvet pouch. She asks if she can take it out. Alex asks if the guest knows what it is and asks Jeny if she is ashamed. She hands the pouch to the guest and requests he removes the label from it. I'm sure he would have guessed what it was. I did, did you? He hands it back. Alex asks "Do you really want him to?". That remains unanswered.

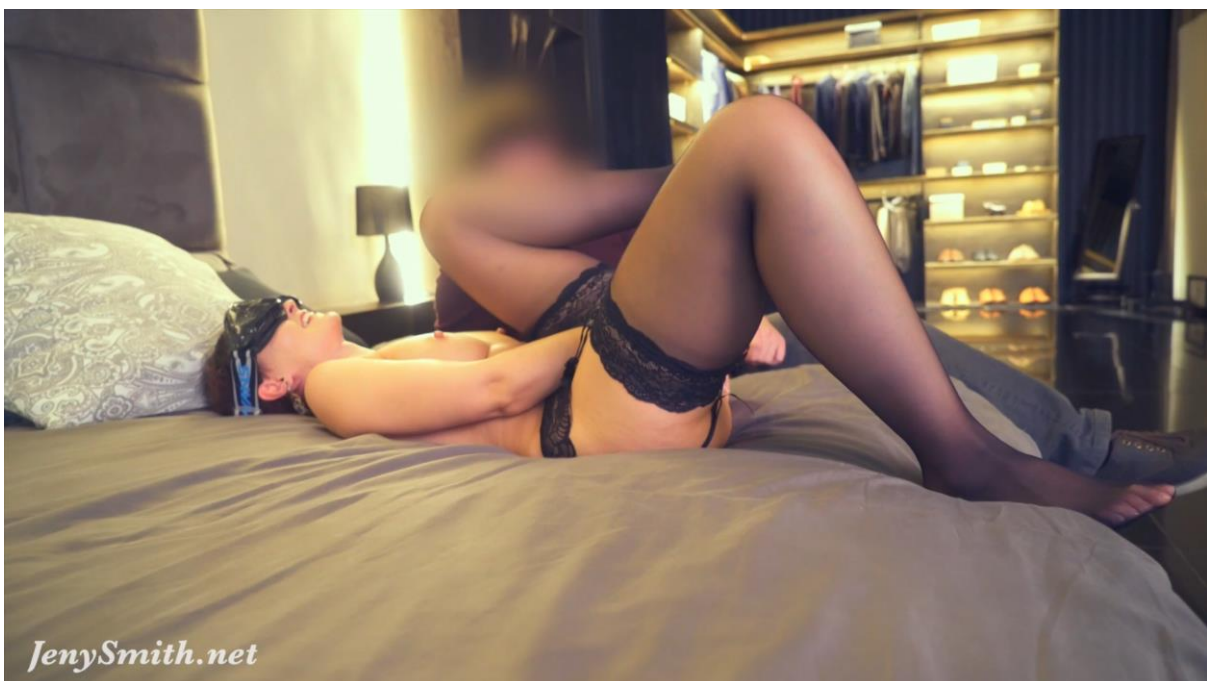

Jeny lays across the guests lap again. Alex has told her to do so because what she offered was too naughty. She is to be spanked again. A few minutes pass as she is spanked and caressed by the guest.

The guest is told to finish. Jeny is told to stand up and then to walk backwards and forwards in the front of the guest, so he can gaze at her nakedness.

Jeny is then told to walk past the guest to get to the bed in the other part of the studio and to lie down on it. Jeny does, of course and is soon joined by the guest who is told to sit down alongside her and to fondle her.

Jeny is told to put her arms above her head (which emphasises the swell of her breasts and her perky nipples) and to open her legs as the guest caresses her. After some minutes, Alex asks her if she wants to use her "thing". She does. Alex hands the pouch to Jeny and we see her with a can of lubricant and a side on view of Jeny with legs raised and hands between her legs.

We see in close-up what has happened. Jeny has inserted a butt-plug. It's one that looks a little like a 4 leaf turquoise coloured jewell. Jeny raises her legs above her head and turns her body slightly to face the guest. He sees her pussy and butt plug in all their glory (as do we viewers).

Despite this, Alex tells her to turn over onto all fours with her butt in the air facing the guest, so he can have an even better view. The guest and us viewers are treated to some wonderful erotic views of Jeny's pussy and butt-plug. She is also told to stand up and twerk her butt.

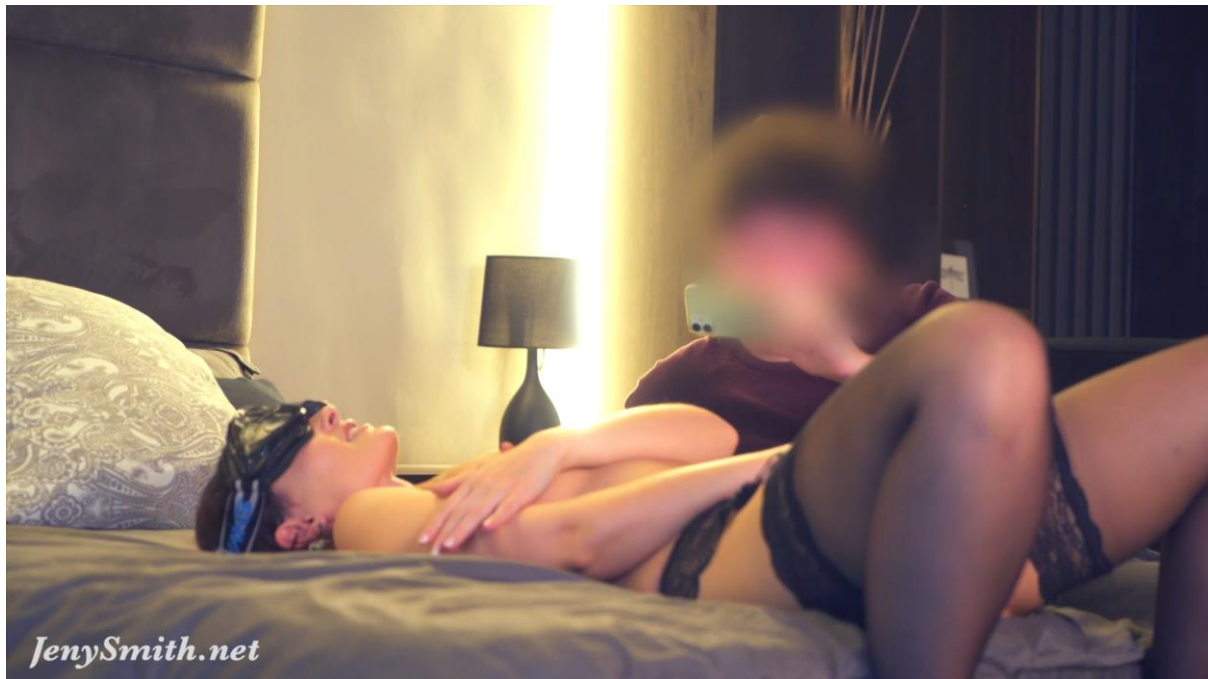

The guest has moved to sit opposite the foot of the bed. Jeny walks to him and gives him his own private dance, swaying and bumping and grinding just a few inches away from him. She bends over in front of him so he can once again spank her butt, this time with her butt-plug twinkling at him.

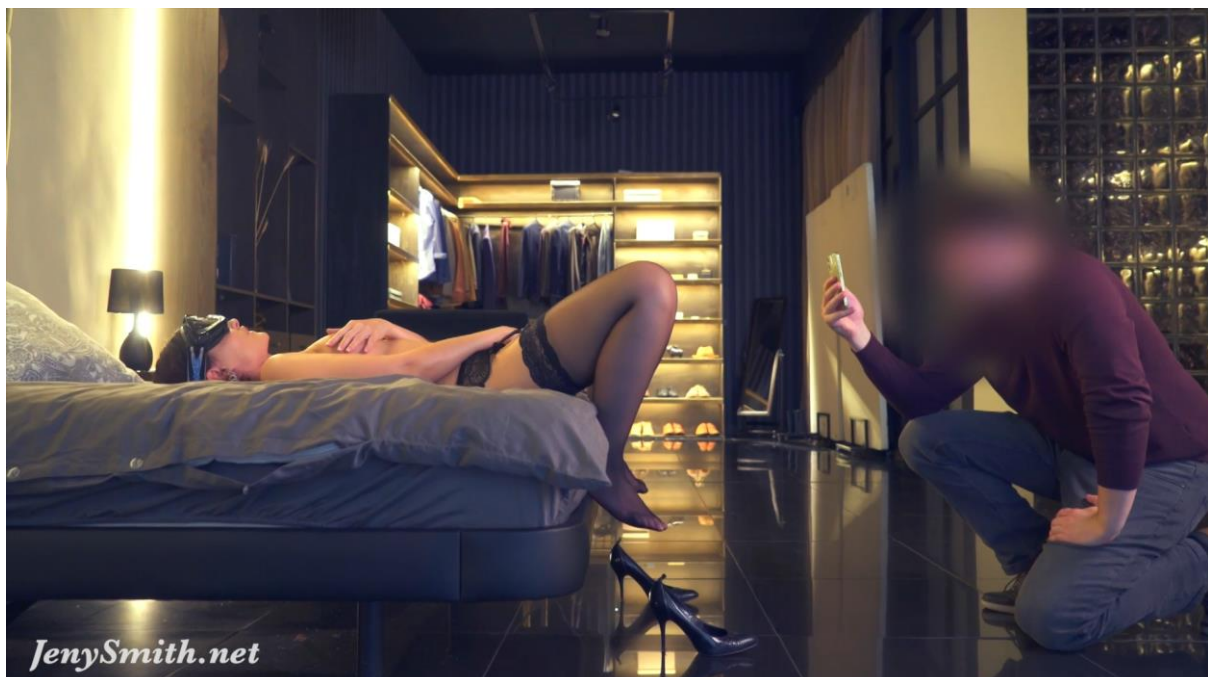

Jeny is told to walk back and sit on the bed. Alex teases her by saying the guest will come to their house again in the future but she won't know who he is. He could be one of many. Jeny admits that would be awful and she would suspect each one. Alex asks her if she feels ashamed (he may have meant embarrassed) but tells Jeny to open her legs, then even wider. She is also told to punish herself (by spanking her pussy). Jeny is keen to do as she is told. Alex asks Jeny if the guest has been good – she agrees he has been.

“Masturbate” says Alex! “What the heck” retorts Jeny. “ Until you finish”, Alex responds. So she starts. Alex wanted Jeny to feel ashamed (embarrassed?) from the start but she has been too strong. The only time she seems to be not in control is now, having to masturbate, blindfolded in front of the guest, not knowing who he is. Jeny does as she is told (I suspect she really wanted to anyway). The guest is close to her as she really starts caressing her pussy playing with her clitoris.

He then moves to the foot of the bed.

Jeny's discarded heels stand on the floor. The heels of her feet are on the end of the bed frame to brace herself as she rises to an orgasm. We see and hear her cum powerfully. Afterwards, the guest is asked to leave which he does, quietly.

Jeny is then told she can take off the mask. She blinks at the bright light. Alex asks her why she still has her fingers on her pussy – because “it is still pulsing” says Jeny. She also admits the situation has made her wet! She also says she is still angry at Alex, just a little bit! Endearingly, she thinks her make up has been “smashed up”. Alex says “You're beautiful” which brings a lovely smile onto her face...

...before she falls backward onto the bed, seemingly exhausted by events.

In the introductory commentary for this video, Jeny admits that when editing the video she was able to tell who the guest was. He wasn't a close friend, but an old school friend who had been to her house one time to help sort out their wi-fi. He admitted to Alex then he knew she was Jeny Smith so Alex thought to use him to prank his wife.

There are also 108 Photos which were taken in the same studio. Jeny gets to try on some of the clothes including a fetching hat. Needless to say she looks so sexy. They also show in close-up, Jeny “wearing” her butt-plug. They were published on 29 September 2021 -

Footnote: Jeny is seen to be spanked a few different times during this video. I counted a total of 72 spanks. That must be a record for any of Jeny's videos. Unless you know differently!
