Running time: 48 mins 08 sec

To film Jeny presenting her information block, a cameraman has been hired to take various still shots while Alex will do other shots.

Jeny is wearing black stockings, a short skirt and a leather jacket.

The guy puts the microphone on the lapel of Jeny's jacket after undoing a button as she suggested and hangs the receiver on the back of Jeny's skirt.

Jeny sits behind the table and the cameraman in front of his camera, facing her.

After sound and camera tests, Jeny's News Network can begin. Jeny is reading her prepared files. Everything looks normal, but if we look closely at Jeny's legs under the desk, we can see a light area, probably her panties.

But thanks to Alex's camera, we now know for sure that Jeny isn't wearing any panties.

As her legs are crossed and uncrossed, Jeny's skirt rises higher and higher, and this time we can see her landing strip. The cameraman is in a good position to see, but says nothing.

Jeny knows what she's doing, and as she continues to unroll her text, she sometimes spreads her legs, exposing her entire pussy.

The cameraman becomes confused and looks for Alex's gaze, but nevertheless takes advantage of the situation.

It's time to take a break. Alex goes to the toilet while Jeny and the cameraman discuss work. However, we see him zooming in on Jeny's crotch while suggesting that Jeny relax while she waits for the second cameraman (Alex).

Alex is back and Jeny resumes her news. Her skirt is still hiked up and her pussy is more and more visible as Jeny spreads her legs as wide as she can. The guy is so nervous and embarrassed at the same time that he points out to Jeny that her skirt is too high. She acts confused but doesn't put her skirt back up properly, which means that her pussy is still just as visible. Resigned but delighted by the spectacle, the guy makes no further comments.

Alex announces that he has to go to the bathroom and Jeny takes the opportunity to ask that her microphone be repositioned differently. She quickly opens her jacket revealing her breasts to the eyes and hands of the cameraman.

Jeny decides to move up a gear and continues her news, sitting on the desk. She strikes increasingly suggestive poses, much to the delight of the cameraman.

Jeny then went to the toilet to retrieve her vibrating sextoy, which she slides into her pussy. She smiles at the prank she's about to play and returns to the office to take a seat in her chair. She resumes reading her news, but you can see from her face that the toy is having an effect on her, as her speech becomes slower. The guy gets worried and asks her if everything's OK. We learn that the tighter Jeny's lower stomach muscles are, the more intense the toy's vibration.

Jeny is finding it harder and harder to concentrate and speak normally. The cameraman doesn't understand Jeny's change of attitude and he's worried. She bursts out laughing, fidgets in her seat and he asks her if she's been drinking. She tries to reassure him, but the pleasure she's getting from her toy is becoming hard to handle. The shoot is interrupted because Alex suggests a coffee break and leaves the room.

Jeny gets up, walks past the desk, says the news are over, opens her jacket and reveals her breasts to the cameraman. She asks him to help her remove her microphone and if he hears a little buzz. Now she exposes herself frankly to him before confessing her secret by taking his hand and sliding it against her sextoy, between her thighs. He now understands the change in her behaviour and, after a long, friendly chat, Jeny finishes the new show completely naked.

In conclusion the cameraman will say that he has never been involved in anything like this before.
