Here is the first video in the “a hairdresser” series.

Jeny is getting her “hair salon” ready. A seat for "the client" and plastic protection, scissors and a comb as well as a wig because she is not going to actually cut the hair of "her victim" of the day because the guy came for a hairdressing tutorial for Internet. For the occasion, Jeny is dressed in her famous short cream-colored dress (see the My Toy video) and ankle boots of the same color.

The guy is coming. Jeny places him on the seat, puts the plastic protection and the wig on him. Then begins the haircut and the explanations of his work for the tutorial. Jeny walks around the boy and cuts a strand here or there. The guy looks at Jeny's dress every time he can, especially as it goes up more and more, almost to her buttocks. Of course Jeny doesn't wear panties but the guy can't even imagine that.

Alex is the cameraman and when Jeny goes in front of the camera to comment on his work, the "client" doesn't hesitate to look at his hairdresser's butt. From now on the guy becomes nervous and very excited by what he sees, or rather what he guesses because in fact he only sees beautiful legs very close to him.

Jeny is now getting closer and closer and here is the first contact. The boy's knee touches Jeny's thigh and the situations will become more and more explicit. Jeny takes care of the hair on the back of her head and takes the opportunity to pull her dress up to the waist. But he doesn't see anything of course. And as she returns in front of him to comment in front of Alex's camera, the young man's attention is drawn to the fact that Jeny has incorrectly replaced her dress. Indeed, the view this time is very suggestive.

Jeny removes her belt for more comfort, she explains. The second contact is caused by Jeny's thigh on the guy's hand which he quickly removes. But Jeny insists. She gets closer again and the young man becomes very, very nervous. His hands are shaking. When she walks behind him again, she pulls her dress up to her shoulders, above her breasts but of course he still can't see that.

She then asks him to put his head back. He will therefore not see that Jeny, who has just positioned herself next to him, has her buttocks and pussy exposed. He doesn't see anything but his hand gently begins to brush the thigh and his fingers timidly move a little higher. This confused Jeny for a while because she wasn't expecting it.

Now Jeny switches sides and it's the guy's other hand that's really roaming Jeny's thigh. It is obviously she who provokes the contact. Positioning herself with her legs apart above the young man's knee, where he have his hand, she bends down while cutting his hair. Her wide open pussy lips meet the guy's fingers. First it's her who rubs herself on the finger but now it's the finger which explores Jeny's intimate cavity at length. After putting her dress back in place, she tells him that he can straighten his head. He then asks to go to the bathroom. What do you think it's for?

When she returns, Jeny starts playing again. Positioned behind him with the dress completely pulled up, her chest caresses his back then coming back in front of him with the dress pulled down, she once again offers him the opportunity to pass his finger over her still warm pussy. She plays with his nerves and walks around him, her dress partly revealing her buttocks. That's when Alex leaves the room to go to the bathroom. They are both alone. Then Jeny pulls up her dress completely and accompanies the boy's hand on her nipples, already erect with pleasure. They play together for a little while until Alex returns. Jeny gets dressed again quickly.

The session is over and Jeny changes in the locker room. He stay to look at her naked. She even suggest that he take some photos of her.

But already Jeny has other ideas for a new hairstyle video. To be continued...
