A seductive, erotic and sensual moment of the beautiful Jeny during her summer vacation in a magnificent seaside resort and under the blazing sun. We discover our goddess lying on the edge of the swimming pool, facing the ocean. We follow her in the beach shower in front of her hotel, or lying on a canvas deckchair. She's wearing this little swimsuit that she made herself because Jeny is not only beautiful, she's also talented. These few centimeters of fabric made with grace and elegance allow us to discover this marvelous body that the sun licks with its rays. Later Jeny will tell us that she heard charming and very pleasant comments from the hotel guests present on site and will admit to us that certain admiring glances gave her the impression of being naked in the eyes of these numerous admirers.
