I've been looking forward to reviewing this video for a long time now because it features some of my favourite themes and so without further ado..

The scenario for this video was supposed to feature a 'victim' attending a job interview with Jeny and Alex. However at the last minute he called to say he couldn't make it!

So what to do? Improvise, of course! So we join Jeny and Alex sat in the lobby just as most of the occupants are leaving the office complex for the evening. The only person left in the lobby along with the 2 of them is a cleaner.

Jeny is wearing a faux fur coat, what appears to be a roll neck jumper, with her gorgeous legs encased in dark nylon and sensational patent leather ankle boots with stiletto heels, legs crossed revealing a large amount of thigh. She is checking her phone whilst her hands are covered by fingerless gloves. Jeny, as always, looks stunning!

Alex gets her attention and motions her to reveal some more of her outfit. She opens her coat to show us that her jumper is not all it appears to be as it's only a roll neck hood beneath which is a dark brown sheer blouse. Gently she strokes her nipple through the opaque material. With her coat now open, Jeny is wearing a very short skirt and lace topped stockings. While she strokes her bare flesh, the cleaner carries on his duties.

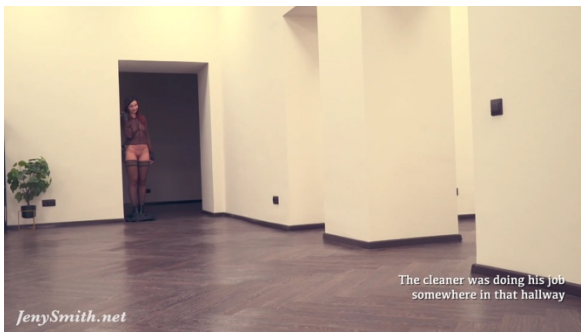

Realising that the building is emptying as more staff leave, Jeny thinks its time to explore and she can't resist lifting the front of her skirt up revealing her naked pussy which has the tiniest landing strip leaving her lips smooth and hairless.

At first Jeny is content to explore the lobby in her outfit, the cleaner is still working in the same location. But walking around fully clothed is never going to be sufficient for Jeny and so she leaves her coat on a seat. This reveals how short Jeny's skirt is as we can see the lace topped stockings and not content with that, off comes the jumper so that her fabulous breasts are visible through her sheer top. Now the fun begins in earnest..

Jeny is now in full exhibitionist mode and we can look forward to some real treats. The first is having walked across the lobby with her breasts clearly on show as are her stocking tops and now with no inhibitions she discovers a way through to another set of offices but before exploring them she unbuttons her skirt and lets it fall to the floor! Deciding that it might be a bit too risky she pulls her skirt back up but then proceeds to unbutton her blouse and frees her beautiful breasts. She is soon back at the doorway and this time she does go farther in to the darkness of the corridor.

Here Jeny discovers that the way forward is another lit area with a man sitting reading a magazine whilst he waits to be called to his appointment, a receptionist waiting with him. This is when we get to see the other side of being married to an exhibitionist. Jeny is now standing by the wall and taking off the skirt again and with her just in blouse, stockings and shoes, she is going to throw her skirt across the room. This is too much for Alex who realises that such a move will get the attention of both people in the office. He frantically tries to get Jeny from doing what will surely get noticed but before he can stop her, the skirt is flying across the floor and sure enough the receptionist comes to investigate the noise. Jeny beats a swift retreat and it's left to Alex to quickly retrieve the garment!

Back in the lobby, Jeny runs the back of her hand across her forehead, an indication of how close to getting caught!

At this point for those of you who would rather watch whatever happens next to Jeny than continue to read my review I suggest you stop now and for those who prefer to paint their own pictures in their heads, I will continue!

Having discovered the stairwell and for those of us who know what tunnels, corridors and of course stairs do to Jeny's psyche we know we're going to enjoy the next 10 minutes! (To find out why such places have such an effect on Jeny, read her blog on the website) .

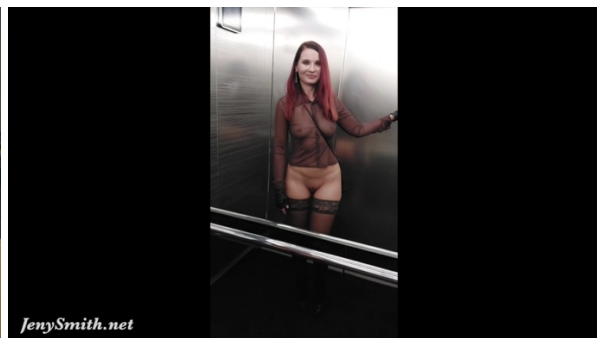

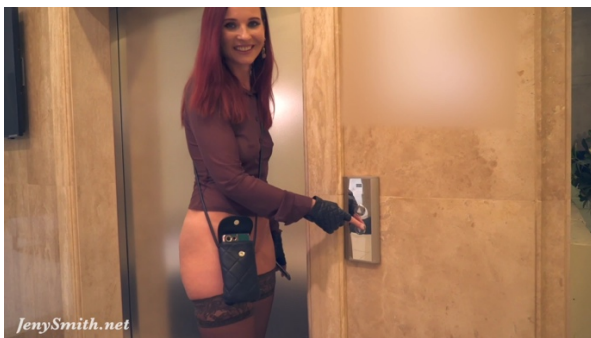

Jeny checks that no one is about. This includes Alex filming her from behind and below that anyone who loves upskirt will adore this section.

Stopping at one of the junctions between floors, Jeny pulls her blouse up, her nipples erect, a sure sign that she is excited! She takes her skirt off and puts it over the bannister and Alex seizes his chance and throws it down the stairs. How does Jeny react? By taking her blouse off leaving her naked! She climbs the stars, leaving her blouse behind. Several times she hears various doors opening but no one comes down. She returns to where she left her blouse and puts it back on. Then she feels the need to punish herself and starts to spank herself.

Jeny wants to make the sound of each spank echo up the stairwell and to achieve maximum results she takes her gloves off. Soon her butt cheeks glow a wonderful bright red. She is then told to go and stand face first in the corner as more punishment

Alex then leaves her to retrieve the missing skirt, on his return he keeps hold of Jeny's skirt and they go back to the lobby with Jeny still just wearing stockings and a sheer blouse!

And just when you think the fun must be over Jeny calls the lift and the door opens. She steps inside and asks Alex for her skirt but instead he presses the up button and steps back to leave a nearly naked Jeny alone in the ascending lift!

We watch as Jeny films herself in the mirrored interior of the lift and Alex meanwhile films the numbers changing on the lift floor indicator. Back comes Jeny who is finally reunited with her clothes! Thus ends one of Jeny's longest adventures in the world of exhibitionism. Jeny is truly the Queen of tease.
