

Review for “The Game # 2”

Jeny had so much fun in the previous “A TV Show Game Test” video that she decided to repeat the experience for the TV pilot. Like last time, she will be accompanied by two people. Shim, his accomplice and a new “victim”. It’s always Alex who films, it’s for television. The decor is the same. A table and chairs for the boys and a board set up in front of the table. This time Jeny is wearing a white tank top, short sleeves and V-neck. The fabric is so thin that her nipples are visible through it. She is dressed in a long black skirt in transparent veil under which she wears a black mini skirt.

The principle of the game has not changed. She explains that the boys will have to give 9 letters of the alphabet, consonants and vowels with which they will have to find as many words as possible, words that she will write on the board. After everyone was introduced, the game begins and everything goes well except Jeny didn't think her black mini skirt would ride up so quickly.

Jeny's butt attracts attention but does Jeny realize it? Yes certainly, we see it in his smile. And as she bends down to write at the bottom of the board, the view becomes very suggestive and the guy loses his speech. Then begins the second round. Jeny's pussy is becoming more visible and when she turns around we see half of her butt. The words flow one after the other and the atmosphere is good.

The third round is about to begin and the guy thinks he is the only one who notices that the skirt is so high. But Jeny continues her little game. I want to talk about the game of the falling marker which she picks up by bending down in a very erotic way. Which has the effect of pushing up her skirt even more, which looks more like a wide belt than a skirt.

Fourth round. The boys announce words and Jeny continues to write them on the board in very suggestive poses. The guy seems relaxed and laughing about it. A nervous laugh? The game ends like this and Jeny announces a break. The boys go for a drink at the back of the room and Jeny puts her outfit in order.

Fifth round. The dress is quickly pulled up and this time the guy points it out to Jeny. But as Jeny continues to drop her marker and take disturbing poses, the guy gets angry and wants to leave. Jeny catches up with him and apologizes. It's because of the marker caps. And I'm tired, she said, I would like Shim to take my place to finish the fifth round of the game.

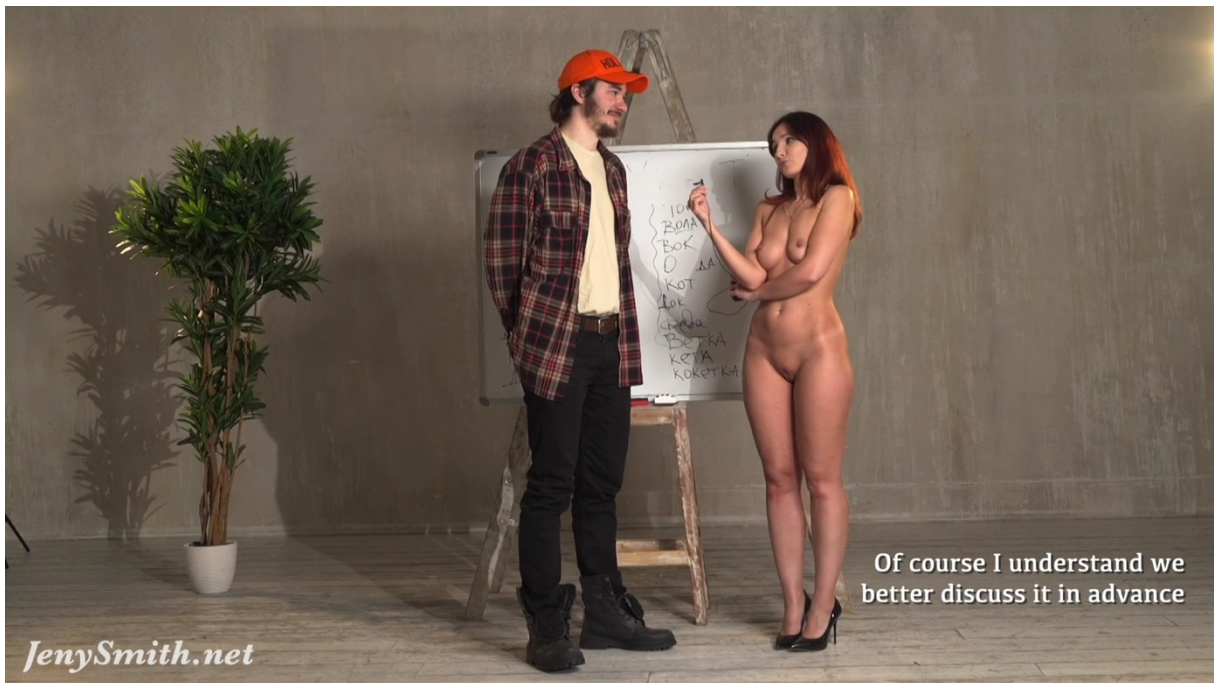

Jeny sits in Shim's place next to the guy and the game resumes. But Jeny is incorrigible. Discreetly lifts up her veil skirt. Her pussy is exposed but her neighbor hasn't seen anything yet. Now she picks up her audio receiver and removes her voile skirt and mini skirt. The guy has just noticed something and he finally understands that she only has her tank top on her back. He seems happy with that. So seeing the relaxed appearance, she leans forward, elbows on the table, and buttocks in view of her neighbor.

The guy seems to have understood. Especially when Jeny takes off her lapel microphone to take off her tank top because the boy helps her undress. The game ends like this. She is naked and he looks at her hungrily.

Before leaving, standing in front of the board, still naked, Jeny asks him his state of mind and his feelings about what has just happened and they separate, good friends.
