

Review for video "At Night"

Running time: 37 mins 02 sec

Jeny hasn't been in her new country for very long and she really wanted to make a video alone and at night because she missed this type of adventure. Thus we find her in the city in a small street lit by street lamps.

She wears a light-colored sweater and a black coat that goes above the knee, pumps, seamless black tights...

...and she has decided not to wear a skirt.

We now see Jeny in front of the entrance gate of a building. Her open coat allows her pussy to be seen as cars pass in front of her.

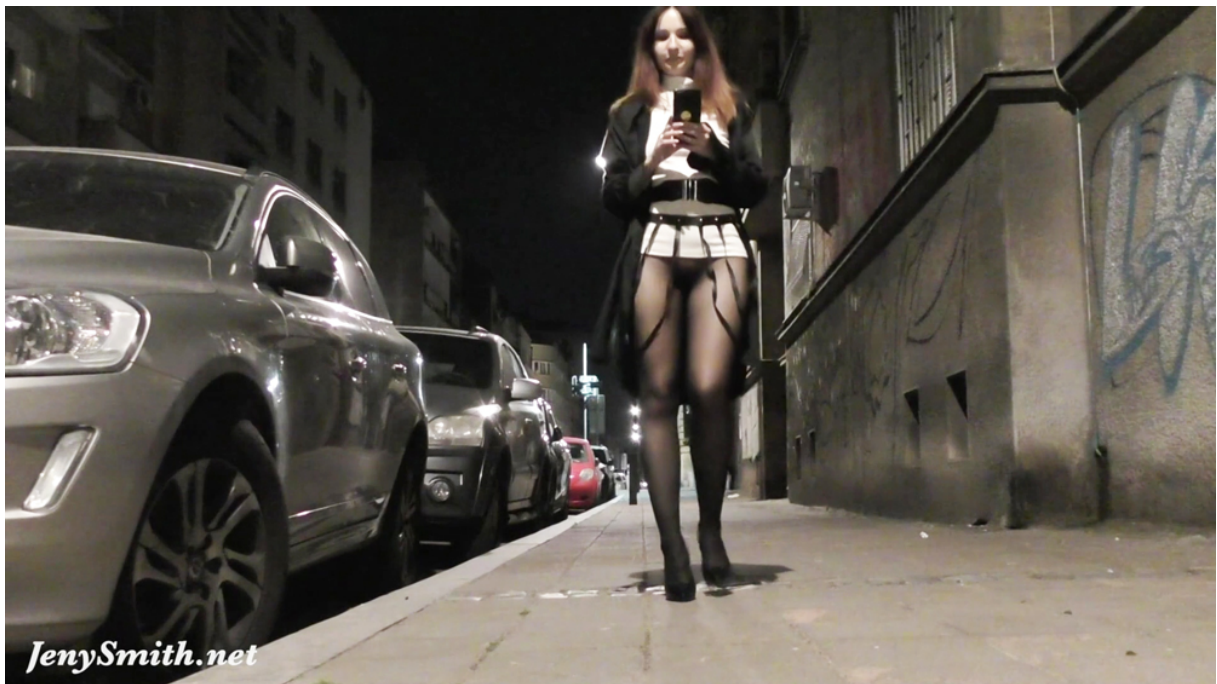

Now, with her back to the street, she takes off her coat to expose her buttocks.

Jeny is heading down a larger street this time. There are many more vehicles passing by but she is a bit hidden by parked cars.

After putting her camera on the sidewalk, we see her walk away. After several trips back and forth, she decides to take off her tights. It's not easy. Jeny watches for passing cars, watching the windows of the apartments, but the risk concerns pedestrians who could arrive at any time on the corner of the street, in front of or behind her.

There it's done. Of course, she has put her coat back on, but seeing her bare legs and her landing strip is as exciting for us, the viewer, as it is for her. Her nipples that point out confirms it.

She finally dares to take off her coat...

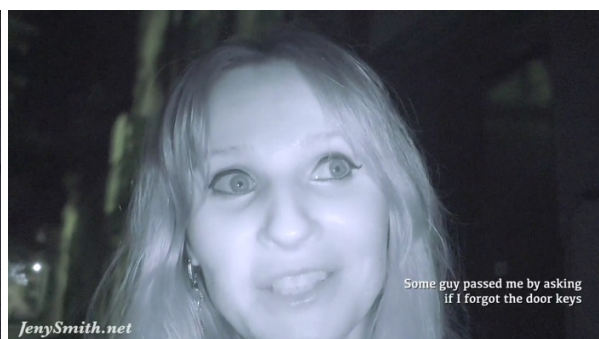

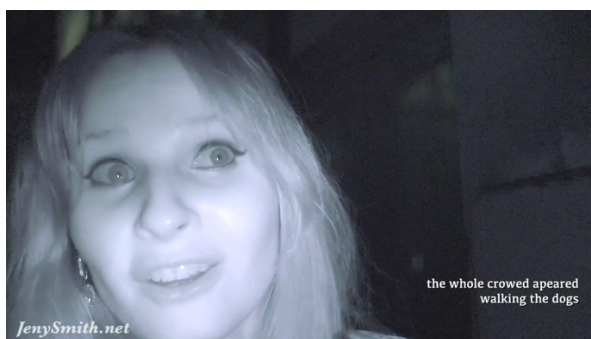

...and thus moves away from the camera. We enjoy the view of her magnificent buttocks and then she comes back to show us her pussy. She plays like this for a long time before getting dressed again to leave this time in a tree-lined street.

After putting down her camera, she takes off her coat and puts it on the hood of a parked car. She is sometimes forced to put it back in an emergency because pedestrians arrive and pass by her. This time it seems to be the right time. She puts her coat against a tree and takes off her sweater. She managed to be completely naked at night in the city.

And then people walking their dogs arrived. She put her coat back on urgently and a man even asked her if she had forgotten her keys to enter the building. No longer taking any risks, Jeny prefers to leave. She liked her little game and so did we.
