The white Audi convertible drives slowly through the city. It's very hot outside and the sun is shining. Alex drives. He opens the roof and enjoys the wind which cools the atmosphere. Next to him, Jeny takes selfies. She wears a white skirt that she has pulled up to her waist and offers some people the view of her already hot pussy. She also wears a very pretty top held up by chain-shaped straps. But this top is so short that her breasts are visible almost to the nipples. The stroll continues through the shopping streets. Alex has one eye on the road and the other on the game that Jeny continues by filming herself while caressing her pussy and her breasts. She seems excited to know that people passing by on the sidewalk can see this beautiful, almost naked body, right there, nearby.

Alex has gone to run an errand and the car is parked near a small space along the sidewalk. Jeny decides to wait for him, sitting in a very particular way. In fact, her buttocks are placed on the upper part of the door, her back to the sidewalk and her legs extended towards the inside of the car, facing the road. Don't forget that this is a convertible car, therefore open to the eyes of everyone in the passenger compartment, from the sidewalk or from the road. And of course, Jeny has fun. From the sidewalk and thanks to the rising wind, the ruffles of her little white skirt largely reveal her buttocks and even her pussy for those who dare to bend down to get a better look. Unfazed by passers-by enjoying the incredible view, Jeny checks her phone. From the road, it's her crotch that attracts attention and of course her top, which is still too short for the pleasure of the lucky ones passing nearby.

We now find Jeny in an urban park. She is sitting on a bench and checking her phone. The wind is blowing harder and harder. Her top, which is always too short, sometimes even lifts up and surreptitiously reveals her adorable chest. And sometimes, when she opens her legs, you can clearly see her pussy coming up for air. Walkers pass then pass again. As she starts taking some rather naughty selfies, she notices that a passerby has just sat down nearby and is staring at her rather openly. When she decides to leave to get to her car, the man first follows her then dares to approach her. In fact he noticed that she spoke Russian with Alex. Being a language that he also speaks, a pleasant exchange quickly established between the three of them.

The weather changes suddenly and rain begins to fall. We find Jeny in her car. She explains to us that some very naughty, very hot and very explicit things are going to happen that we don't have to watch. Obviously our curiosity is even more attracted and our excitement goes up a notch. So Jeny is in the car in the back seat. The hood is of course closed because it is raining more and more. A real storm. Alex kindly offered the Russian-speaking guy a ride home. So he sits in the passenger seat. The car starts. At the front of the car the men are talking. In the back, Jeny places herself as close as possible between the two seats, pulls up her skirt and reveals her breasts.

She does it so discreetly that the guy always chats with Alex without imagining what's going on behind him. She then decides to be more and more daring and shifts a little further, hoping that he will be able to see her. She is now half naked in the back seat and the rain is increasing in intensity. At one point, the guy turns his head slightly and sees Jeny in this explicit outfit with a big smile but he says nothing and resumes his conversation. Intrigued and curious, he still glances behind him more and more often and Jeny no longer hides.

She knows that the guy saw it and she likes it. Once again he turns around and starts laughing, asking Alex what's going on here. Everyone bursts out laughing, a real bond begins in good humor. Jeny tells him it's too hot. Alex decides to stop the car and explains to her that it's just a game. That Jeny likes to show off in front of strangers to see their reaction.

An exchange between the guy and Jeny then takes place. She asks him if he wants to see more and as he completely agrees she opens her legs wide to show him her pussy and soon her breasts. She asks him if he wants her to caress herself so guess the answer. She plays with her nipples then now with her pussy and the guy looks very happy with what is happening here. Jeny tells him what she likes to do with her body, talks to him about her pleasures and asks him if he wants her to take off her clothes. So she does it and the guy wants her to take off her shoes too. There she is, completely naked and with her hair down in the car. She gets even closer and now masturbates openly in front of the guy's amazed eyes, masturbating to the point of pleasure. The show is over too quickly for this lucky spectator. He still can't believe it. It's no longer raining so he warmly thanks Jeny and Alex before getting out of the car. He leaves with regret and lets out a huge cry of joy which says a lot about the enormous pleasure he has just had aboard this car.
