The video opens with Jeny, our scout leader, approaching us in her non-regulation uniform of khaki green fedora, a thigh length khaki singlet, trekking boots with a wide belt held in place by braces and water bottle. Needless say, she looks fabulous!

Jeny introduces herself as our girl scout for the day (she is clearly braless as her nipples are trying their hardest to poke holes in the singlet!) and we catch glimpses of what looks like panties or shorts beneath. She leads us to a clearing in the forest. Standing with one leg on a tree trunk affording us further glimpses of her shorts. Jeny talks us through some ground rules, we must all stay together and if we need to go behind a bush to do our 'business' then we must tell her! " Remember, I must know where you are at all times!"

Before we start our trek, Jeny regales us with tales of coming to the forest with her grandfather.

Whilst doing this she sits on a fallen tree trunk with her legs open wide and now we can see her 'shorts' and, in fact, we can see through them too, her pussy lips clearly visible! Now it's time to start our walk, Jeny stops briefly to point out a shelter that had been left by previous trekkers. On we walk in the cool of the forest, enjoying the dappled sunlight. Jeny stops once more to reply to one of our group who asks her about her shorts.

You like my shorts? They are homemade, she proudly informs us and lifting her vest she shows us that they are, in fact, a pair of black seamless tights that have had the legs cut off. They are 'breathable' (I read that as sheer!) and Jeny asks us if we want to make a video of her shorts for Instagram, but we need to see them properly of course! Jeny tucks her vest into her belt revealing her shorts in all their glorious transparency, she walks back and forth so that her beautiful butt is exposed and for those lovers (and I count my husband and I amongst them) of hairless pussies, Jeny is completely smooth and bare! Having tucked the vest in the belt you'll be pleased to see Jeny leaves it there and as she leads the way we are treated to a delightful view of her butt cheeks gently wobbling at each step. At one point she bends over providing us with a delightful view of her pussy from below.

Jeny continues onwards until she turns to us and tells of a creature named 'IT' who dwells in the forest and several people have had their clothing go missing! Jeny has been here before and she and her girlfriends built a camp together. As they were getting ready to sleep they heard the sound of something or someone running towards them. Realising that the group may be scared, Jeny quickly dismisses the whole thing saying "it's nonsense!" and continues on with the trek, warning us that we must hurry up as the sun will set soon.

Those of the group that are observant will notice that Jeny has untucked her vest and her bare cheeks can be glimpsed as she bends under low branches.

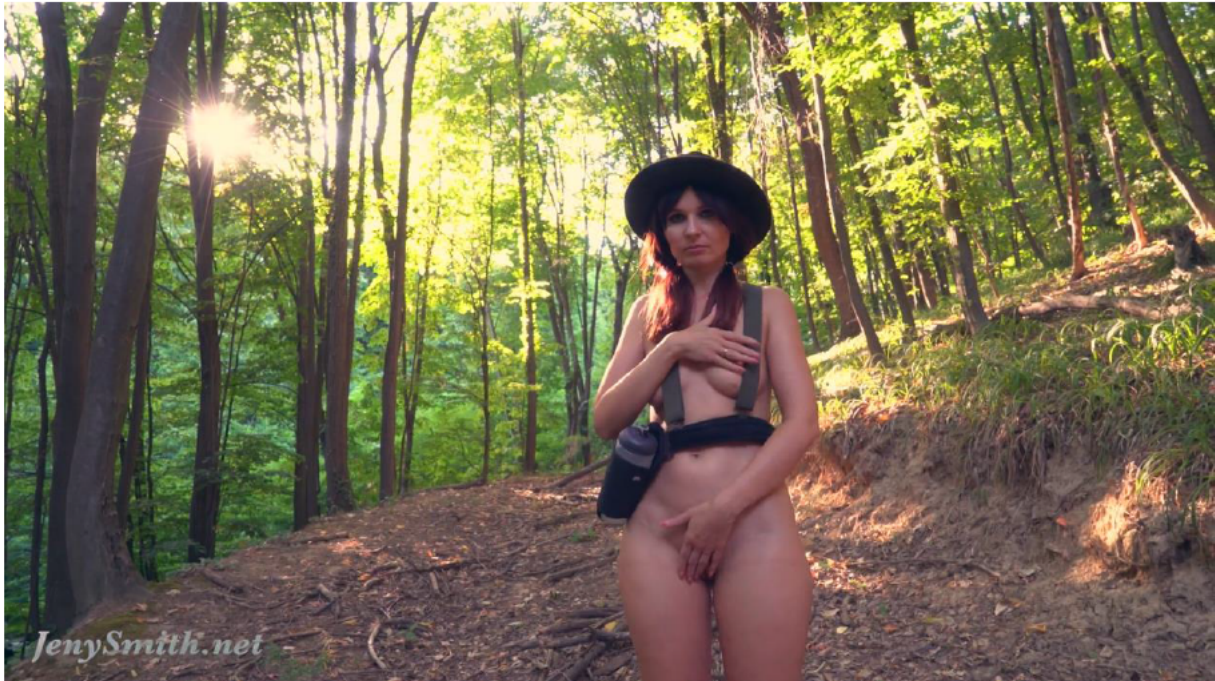

Jeny suddenly turns to us saying "can you hear!" "It might be 'IT' ! Finding a clearing the group stops for a few moments and Jeny bends over to show us that she has lost her shorts and we glimpse paradise as her now naked pussy is displayed in all of its smooth glory.

Plucking up courage, one of the group asks Jeny where her shorts are. Dumbfounded, Jeny lifts her vest up to discover that they are missing, she asks if anyone knows what has happened to them and reminds us that they were handmade. But every cloud has a silver lining (or as we are about to see, a golden one!).

Jeny very matter-of-factly points out that it's easier to go for a pee now! She instructs us to wait for her and that she can go on her own, in fact, she can do everything! She climbs the hill to find a bush to go for a pee and crouches down and pees (luckily one of the group has followed her and captures it all on film).

As she stands up she spots someone and demands to know if they were watching her! There is a brief shaking of the head from side to side Jeny returns to the spot when she says "what do you mean 'my t-shirt?'" , she's shocked to find her vest is now missing as well, leaving her naked but for her hat, webbing and boots! Jeny is at one with nudity so she only remembers half-heartedly to cover her beautiful breasts with one hand and with her other hand, covers her pussy!

We are urged by Jeny to help her find her missing clothes (although there doesn't appear to be any rush!). We follow Jeny ,all eyes on that fabulous bottom.

Stopping again, Jeny doesn't like the sounds coming from the forest and she senses that they are being watched. Retracing her steps, Jeny, now naked, confidently walks first ahead so, once again we have a great view of her naked ass and then she is behind us, only the braces hiding her nipples obscure the view of Jeny's magnificent body.

Stopping in a sunlit glade in the forest, Jeny gets her water bottle out and mischievously lets most of the cool liquid cascade down her fabulous body. Water runs down her beautiful frame and drips from her hairless pussy lips. This is a work of art in its truest form, the droplets reflecting the sunlight, her body a temple to be worshipped at. But what appears to be a scene of calm won't last long.

Jeny tells us that we must prepare a camp for the night. She urges us to not go far from the glade in our search for wood whilst she will look in the other direction.

No sooner has she disappeared from sight there are cries for help from the direction that Jeny had gone in. Racing to see what had happened, Jeny is almost tied to a tree. She says that something had grabbed her and then she implores us to run away "save yourself!" she cries. So turning and leaving her to her fate we race back to the spot we had shortly left.

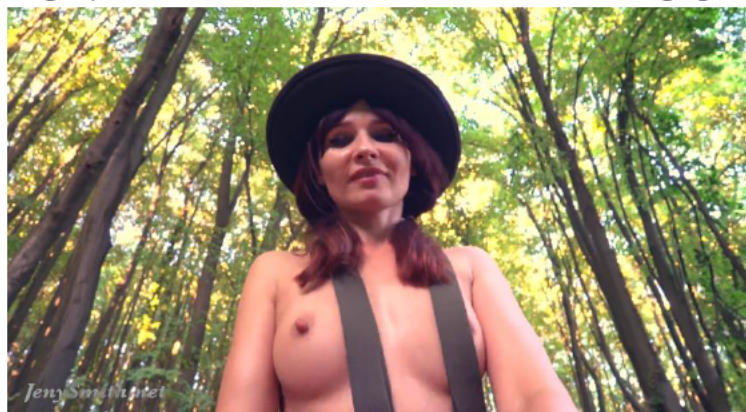

Meanwhile Jeny is now moving backwards and forwards on what appears to be a large dildo. And where is the pink phallus inserted.....deep in her butt! Jeny is obviously aroused by her butt fucking as she reaches down and starts to masturbate. Her moans of delight indicating her level of pleasure! She gently rubs her pussy as her climax reaches every part of her.

Now after the storm comes the calm. Jeny walks back to the group. She tells us what had happened, she says we made the right decision to leave her there, 'IT' had huge tentacles and we wouldn't have handled them "I won over him " she tells us but there were weird feelings but she got over them and calmly she needs to catch her breath.

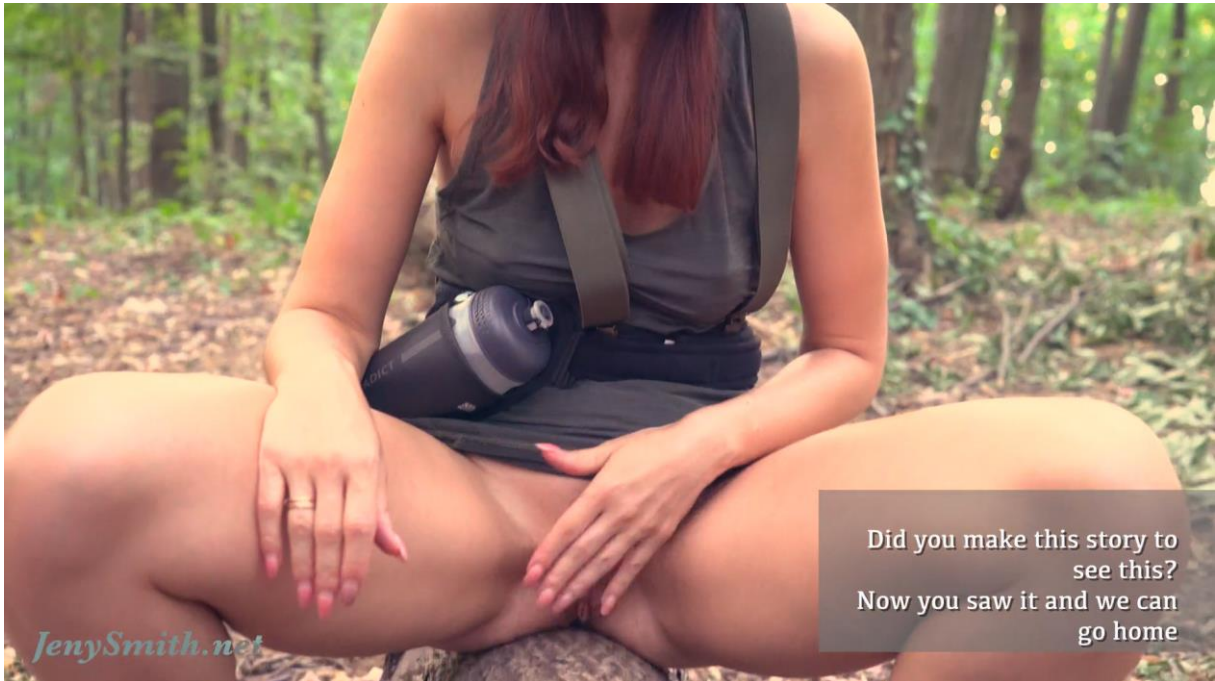

All the time she is telling us, the camera is panning across Jeny's naked body, her nipples now erect, her pussy still wet from her orgasm, she tells us we must build a camp and stay the night as it's too dangerous to leave so while we start to look for suitable materials, Jeny goes and sits alone. We go to check on her and find her squatting amongst the trees. She is suddenly aware of our presence and comes rushing towards us, accusing us of spying on her, I'm mad at you! she cries out as she mounts a cock and fucks it for all she's worth but then we realise that this is not what it appears to be! In fact Jeny is fucking the pink dildo on a fallen tree (is that the sound of water bottle or Jeny's wet pussy we can hear) all of a sudden she realises what she is doing.

Jeny explains that 'IT' has been communicating with her through fucking her as its the only language they both understand. He shows her visions of his home where sex is the common denominator, it's a beautiful world. All the time she is telling us, she is sat astride the dildo and between massaging her breasts she tells us that they only talk with the females of our world and its only us women that can save our planet (something that Jeny and I are well aware of!). Jeny now reaches her climax, cumming loudly (which begs the question does an orgasm make a sound in the forest if there's no one around to hear it!).

Jeny leaps across at the camera and she disappears only to reappear outside of the original shelter that they had seen earlier! Wake up, Alan! Alan, have you been asleep all this time? Monsters?

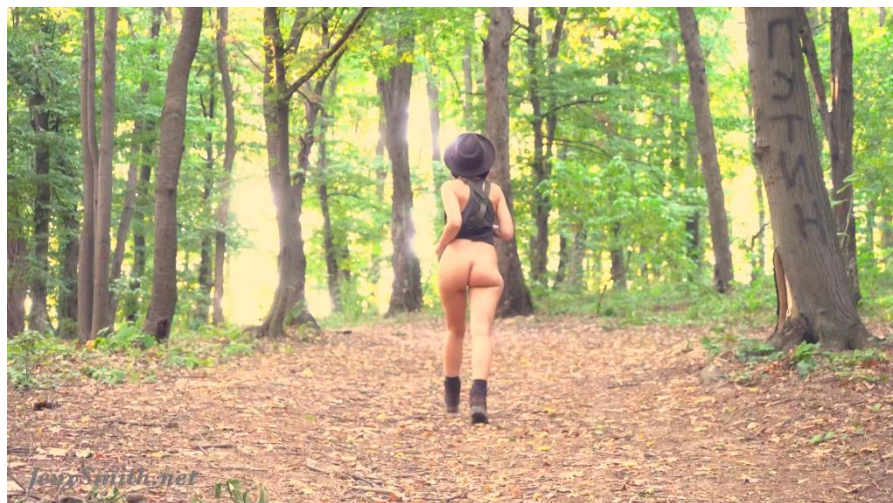

Naked? Have you been dreaming, Alan? Jeny gently mocks Alan (Jeny needs a good spanking, Alan!) She stands up and continues to mock him, saying "missing shorts? They are here! She confidently pulls up her vest to reveal. . .her beautiful hairless pussy!! What have you done with them ?? I'll call the police! If you wanted to see this, Jeny says as she is sat with her legs spread wide and her pussy gets a slapping.

PERVERT Jeny says to Alan! (and she would know!). "I'm a nudist and I don't care", Jeny laughs as she walks away, her bare bottom on show.

We last see her throwing her hat up in the air!!

This is a masterpiece of story telling and so erotic and if you like Jeny, you'll love this!
