Jenysmitcho is back!

Just a brief note on Anime which for those who don't know, is either hand drawn or computer generated animation originating in Japan, I've included an example. Jenysmitcho is Jeny's alto ego and is also a huge fan of the genre and one that you will find doted amongst her galleries and videos.

Jenysmitcho is wearing a typical example of anime dress with her wearing the sort of garb that would not look out of place in modern day Japan. The wonderful bonus of photos is that you get to see Jeny's inner beauty.

The photoset goes from innocent girl to sophisticated lady as she skips and dances around the swimming pool and the panties she wears are handmade and are the bottom half of a very small bikini (which she has worn at a public spa) in addition the g-string has ties on each side which, of course, Jeny undoes and the final photos are wonderfully uninhibited.
