Our journey begins with Jeny safely wearing her white helmet, white coat, white sneakers and as we soon find out a completely sheer white bodysuit. In winter months Jeny would be our snow Queen and would disappear in the snow! But gladly we're entering summer!

The first obstacle that confronts Jeny and her scooter (hence the safety helmet) is a steep set of steps, luckily there is a smooth metal rail that Jeny's machine fits into, so with bike ready she begins to push her scooter upwards, the first thing we observe is how short Jeny's coat is as her barely covered buttocks come into view! Unlucky for Jeny (but lucky for us!) there are no gentlemen around to help her with her scooter so we get to see more of her wonderful butt through her bodysuit.

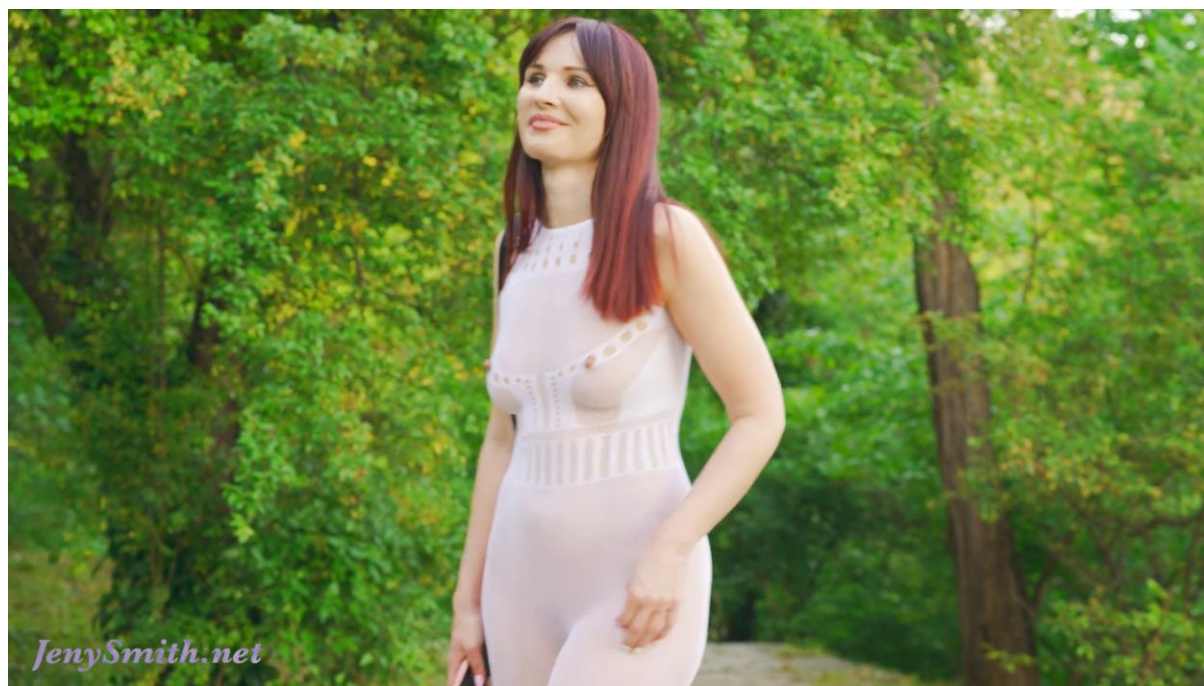

Finally she reaches the top and the scene changes as does the weather as Jeny has removed her coat and helmet to us that she is wearing a short tight top but now we get the lovely sight of Jeny's tiny landing strip and pussy lips as this suit is gusset free! She is now on an urban street only disturbed by one lucky motorist who must have had a wonderful view of Jeny's backside (how he manages not to crash is a minor miracle!) Our Queen of tease is now in her natural environment ie in broad daylight and at risk of being caught! She is clearly happy as she skips past the camera.

We next catch her on a busier street as Jeny continues her adventures and this time she has her coat to hand just in case she is caught! Soon we are back in the countryside only this time, after sitting on a bench to stretch those gorgeous legs Jeny reveals her glorious pussy whilst spreading those thighs wide apart.

Jeny decides it's time to reveal her bodysuit in all of its wonderful sheerness and soon we are able to see her magnificent breasts and perfect nipples which have escaped the confines of the suit to poke out through some holes in the pattern of the material.

As we voyeurs watch our Jeny strutting her stuff, she is joined in reality by a living, breathing voyeur who spies on Jeny from some bushes further up the path. Not realising he has met his match when it comes to who is getting the greater pleasure from the experience, Jeny continues to parade for us all and makes sure that not an inch of her glamorous frame is hidden from our gaze.

Finally keeping the best until last Jeny strips naked in some sun drenched woodland and as her body soaks up the warmth of the afternoon sun we lucky people get to watch our forest nymph enjoying the dappled light on her nudity stopping only when disturbed by a man walking his dogs.
