

Review for video “Renault 4”

Tags: Renault, car, driving; Published: June 13th 2023

The video begins with a car or more precisely a 40 year old Renault 4 all in blue whereas our gorgeous Jeny is all in black or more precisely a black jacket; black suspender belt, black stockings and black stilettos and that's all Jeny walks around the vehicle, her wonderful butt cheeks fully visible (I forgot to say the jacket stops at her waist). She's going to be doing a review of the vehicle! Her first attempt to enter the car fails as she finds the door stuck! But our Jeny's not going to be beaten and manages to release the door through the window.

We get to see how far the auto industry has progressed in the 40 years since the coming of the Renault! Jeny bends across the bonnet as we get to see up between her spread thighs and her hairless pussy lips. Jeny then turns to camera to tell us that was the first front wheel drive car that the French company had produced. However she fluffs her lines and we are treated to a laughing Jeny before regathering herself! This sets the tone for the rest of the video, a tongue in cheek look at this ancient monument!

She opens the bonnet and the heat from the engine is too much for our Jeny who pulls down the zip of the jacket and opens it to reveal her fabulous breasts and those lovely nipples. The owner of the vehicle joins Jeny and is handed the jacket She spends the rest of the video in just stockings and suspenders! Her co-driver explains the workings of the gear stick, a phallic shape that Jeny gently caresses Before driving off she insists on checking the windscreen wipers by laying on the bonnet ensuring that her pussy is fully exposed.

Jeny is eager to take the car for a test drive but her passenger insists that she wears a seat belt. He helps her to put it on and in doing so the belt catches on Jeny's erect nipples. Having managed to start the car, she struggles with the gear stick again and there follows a visual double entendre with Jeny and the co-driver playing with the phallus!

And off we go! Jeny's breasts juggling about as she drives along the rough track and then she is out of the car. Jeny is in her element ie just walking about in just her lingerie, confident and relaxed in her nudity. There's one last moment when she admits to not having read the manual. Her punishment.....a spanking on her gorgeous bare butt cheeks and we watch as they are turned a glorious reddish pink glow.

This is a fun video with Jeny not afraid to make fun of both herself and that cheeky smile is on constant show. To enjoy this video and a whole lot more join us at jenysmith.net asap!!
