I have to admit here and now that I found it difficult at first to watch this video let alone review it because of my own feelings about tattoos which I find very unattractive and in Kirill's case his facial ones. Sorry I'm showing my age but I was brought up thinking that only bad people (and pirates!) had them. Right now I've got that off my chest.....

The scenario is that having met G as he is somewhat confusingly known in the subtitles (his real name is Kirill and is called that several times by Jeny) he has been invited to be a guest on Jeny's blog. She is wearing a cream coloured waistcoat, a very short red skirt which has a lovely V cut in the hem, black leather knee length boots and a colourful scarf. As gorgeous as ever!! They sit behind a large wooden table.

The subtitles inform us that only sexual conversations will be translated but it does look like they're getting on well. As the video continues there is a camera set up to catch any upskirt shots and there are plenty of them! It's clear from early on that Jeny is pantieless, a fact that isn't lost on K as the V cut has been moved to reveal Jeny's tiny landing strip.

K's hand is now on Jeny's bare leg and with growing confidence he starts to massage her leg going further each time until 'BINGO' he reaches her pussy. But then Alex needs to adjust the cameras and the mood is broken

However Jeny draws K back in to her web and the you will see how! The rest of the video is basically setting the scene for part 2 (which I have reviewed!)

Poka poka for now
