Running time: 43 minutes 39 seconds

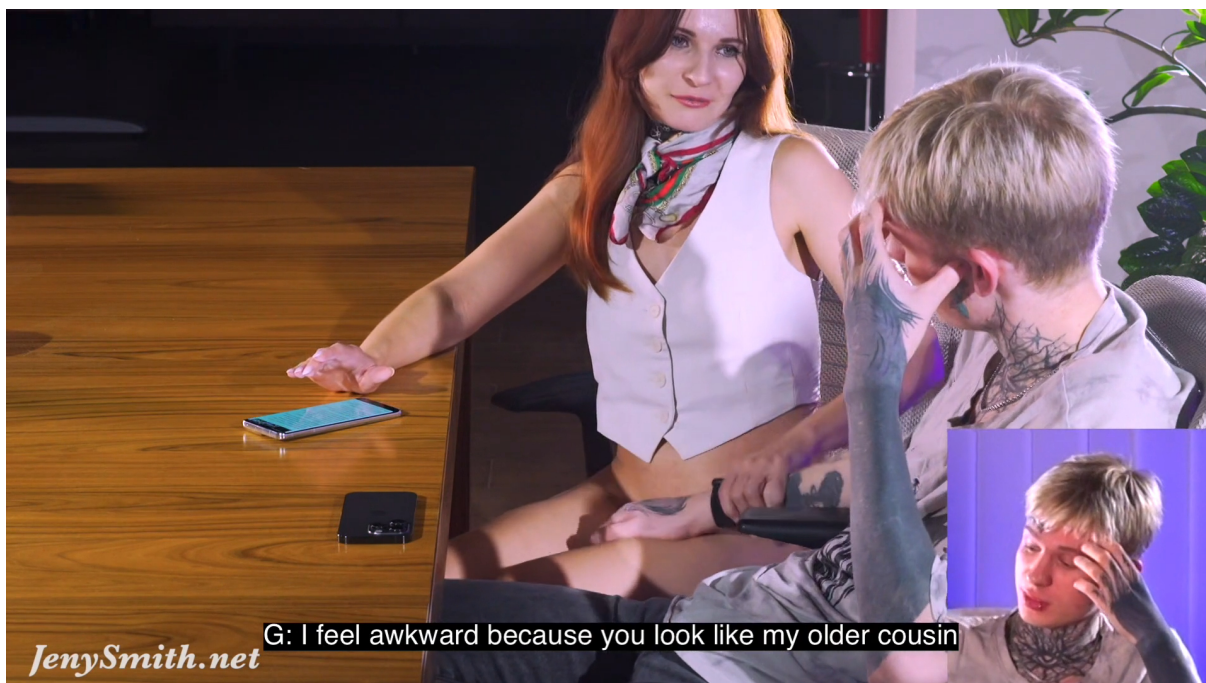

The video begins with a brief recap of part 1

Then we are straight in to where we left off with Jeny and K sat behind the desk. Jeny wears her bright red miniskirt (the one with the strategically placed split!), a cream waistcoat topped off with a silk scarf and finally on her feet a pair of knee length black leather high heeled boots, she looks fabulous!

We start where we left off in part one with Jeny having to make all the running (ie she takes K's hand and puts it on the top of her thigh!) He is aware of Alex's presence. Naturally he's worried that Alex will discover what Jeny's doing.

They continue with Jeny putting his hand, this time however Jeny puts the hand on her bare pussy. At last Alex leaves them alone and K instantly relaxes. However Jeny tells him to look away and whilst his back is turned, off comes her skirt and when instructed to, there's Jeny's skirt is on the desk top!

Jeny comes up with the idea to prank Alex but it feels to K that he is the victim. Jeny quickly reassures him that she wouldn't be so obvious if he was! Gullible is the first word that comes to mind!

Jeny soon finds a reason to free her fabulous breasts from the confines of the waistcoat. Even then K has to coaxed into, first giving her a spank and secondly to take the opportunity to fondle her breasts.

As George Bernard Shaw is quoted as saying ' youth is wasted on the young!' and clearly had K spent as long on having his face tattooed as he does plucking up the courage to touch Jeny. I'm sorry that my prejudices are taking up so much of my review but every time I see him I can't help seeing Macaulay Culkin from 'Home Alone'

Enough, Heather! On with the show!

Eventually it's decided to prank Alex but he comes back and catches Jeny as she tries to put her waistcoat on. They laugh together and when they start filming again, those of you who look at the tags will have noticed the tag, toy.

I won't spoil what happens next suffice to say that you will enjoy it!
