

Review for photoshoot “Pantyhose with prints”

Spring is coming and the good weather is here. Jeny takes the opportunity to go for a walk outside. For the occasion, she put on her cream-colored boots, her slit mini skirt, her leather perfecto and her very pretty tights with a print that highlights her beautiful legs. She poses for the camera like a picture star in this tarmac driveway. Now she's sitting on a bench. She crosses and uncrosses her long legs, smiling. Her face captures the light remarkably well. She's beautiful. And if you look down a little bit, you'll notice that the slit in her skirt gives us a glimpse of her not-so-well-kept secret.
