After meeting Jeny and Alex in a bar during my vacation, both of them are hiking enthusiasts, they suggested I join them for a day in the mountains. The young woman's outfit was surprising and unusual, so my new friends told me the rest of the programme.

The hike continued under a blazing sun. We take a short sandwich break, exchange a few pleasantries and Jeny retires behind a rock to change.

When Jeny comes back, we resume our walk. Alex winks at me and smiles as Jeny takes off her tights, puts on a very short denim skirt and a see-through shirt.

Jeny leads the way up a small mountain pass and I can't help looking at her bare buttocks as she leans forward. At the top of the climb, she decides to take off her skirt and asks me if I'm not shocked. I try to answer by looking her in the eye, but her nipples peeking through her shirt throw me off balance. She offers to put her clothes back on and I'm surprised to answer NO immediately, which makes her burst out laughing.

It's been the best ride of my life and I'm still amazed. We're now heading into a steep canyon and it's here that Jeny takes off her shirt.

She plays with me for a moment, hiding her pussy with her hat, but she needs two more hats for her tits and buttocks. Luckily she puts her hat back on her head and we headed back down into the canyon.

Our walk continues and our discussions are full of innuendos for our greatest pleasure.

Now it's time to return to our starting point, but that's another story.
